Looking Good For Guys:

Looking Good Margaret A. Lowe, 2003 Winner of the Bridgewater State College Class of 1950 Distinguished Faculty Research Award Toward the end of the nineteenth century as young women began entering college in greater numbers than ever before physicians and social critics charged that campus life posed grave hazards to the female constitution and women's reproductive health A girl could study and learn Dr Edward Clarke warned in his widely read 1873 book Sex in Education but she could not do all this and retain uninjured health and a future secure from neuralgia uterine disease hysteria and other derangements of the nervous system For half a century ideas such as Dr Clarke's framed the debate over a woman's place in higher education almost exclusively in terms of her body and her health For historian Margaret A Lowe this obsession offers one of the clearest expressions of the social and cultural meanings given to the female body between 1875 and 1930 At the same time the college girl was a novelty that tested new ideas about feminine beauty sexuality and athleticism In Looking Good Lowe examines the ways in which college women at three quite different institutions Cornell University Smith College and Spelman College regarded their own bodies in this period Contrasting white and black students single sex and coeducational schools secular and religious environments and Northern and Southern attitudes Lowe draws on student diaries letters and publications institutional records and accounts in the popular press to examine the process by which new twentieth century ideals of the female body took hold in America

Getting Dressed Carrie Yodanis, 2018-10-10 Getting Dressed teaches sociology through the everyday decision of what to wear It is about the rules that shape how we dress and how and why we conform It is about how and why we imitate others

We may think about clothing as our personal style and identity But our personal style is not so personal it is social shaped and limited by countless social influences We use clothes to rank and treat each other as better and worse Yet we need each other to become who we are when getting dressed This book is about what we wear why we wear it and why it matters

One of the Good Guys Reverend Joanna Z. Ray,2008-08-11 Hi the name s Joe Marsh and I am the narrator for this book and it s the twenty fourth century using the Earth calendar and not the Galactic Year count in case anybody decides to read this book five hundred or so years from now I begin the story as a soldier on the Security Team of the Interspace starship the I G S McBride This was a supplies grain ship that had been converted to a war vessel as there was a severe shortage of space battle cruisers on Earth That is because we were losing the space war right up until two years ago Joanna Ray has written a space epic saga full of adventure humour and romance in the 24th century Narrated by Joe Marsh a human security officer aboard the human star ship McBride the story lurches from war hatred and bitterness between the antagonists to peace at last The Sikaran Empire has just changed sides and Earth is helped by elite Sikaran soldiers led by Shield Lord Marayshan Love and romance blossom and flourish on the Naiobi colonies CAUGHT One More for the Good Guys J.J.
