Louise Bourgeois Rainer Crone, Petrus Schaesberg (greve), 1998 Louise Bourgeois The Secret of the Cells is the first publication to present an introduction to the stylistic diversity and scope of Bourgeois work within the context of 20th century sculpture This volume focuses on her installations which she calls cells For the first time all 27 cells a cycle which Bourgeois has now declared complete are depicted in both full page and detailed illustrations as well as being catalogued according to their component parts The comprehensive narrative on Louise Bourgeois fascinating life the most detailed and extensive to date is documented in over 100 photographs from the artist's own archive many of which have never been published before These range from her youth in Paris her student years at the art academy under Ferdinand Leger and her experiences with the leading artists of the New York School in the 40s and 50s up to her famous performance The Confrontation in 1978 In 1982 the Museum of Modern Art honored Bourgeois in a grand retrospective of her work in 1992 her installation Precious Liquids caused an international sensation at documenta IX Her radical re evaluation of the medium of sculpture particularly evident in her unusual and unparalleled work of the last 10 years calls for a thorough review of art in modern times

Louise Bourgeois' Spider Mieke Bal, 2001-06-29 The sculptor Louise Bourgeois is best known for her monumental abstract sculptures one of the most striking of which is the installation Spider 1997 Too vast in scale to be viewed all at once this elusive structure resists simple narration It fits both no genre and all of them architecture sculpture installation Its contents and associations evoke social issues without being reducible to any one of them Here literary critic and theorist Mieke Bal presents the work as a theoretical object one that can teach us how to think speak and write about art Known for her commentary on the issue of temporality in art Bal argues that art must be understood in relationship to the present time of viewing as opposed to the less immediate contexts of what has preceded the viewing such as the historical past of influences and art movements biography and interpretation In ten short chapters or takes Bal demonstrates that the closer the engagement with the work of art the more adequate the result of the analysis She also confronts issues of biography and autobiography key themes in Bourgeois's work and evaluates the consequences of ahistorical experiences for art criticism drawing on diverse sources such as Bernini and Benjamin Homer and Eisenstein This short beautiful book offers both a theoretical model for analyzing art out of context and a meditation on a key work by one of the most engaging artists of our era

After the Revolution Eleanor Heartney, Helaine Posner, Nancy Princenthal, Sue Scott, 2013-11-04 Why Have There Been No Great Women Artists asked the prominent art historian Linda Nochlin in a provocative 1971 essay Today her insightful critique serves as a benchmark against which the progress of women artists may be measured In this book four prominent critics and curators describe the impact of women artists on contemporary art since the advent of the feminist movement

Art and the Home Imogen Racz,2015-01-26 Our homes contain us but they are also within us They can represent places to be ourselves to recollect childhood memories or to withdraw into adult spaces of intimacy they can be sites for developing rituals family relationships and acting out cultural expectations Like the personal social and cultural elements out of which they are constructed homes can be not only comforting but threatening too The home is a rich theme running through post war western art and it continues to engage contemporary artists today yet it has been the subject of relatively little critical writing Art and the Home Comfort Alienation and the Everyday is the first single authored up to date book on the subject Imogen Racz provides a theme led discussion about how the physical experience of the dwelling space and the psychological complexities of the domestic are manifested in art focusing mainly on sculpture installation and object based practice discussing the work and ideas of artists as diverse as Louise Bourgeois Gordon Matta Clark George Segal and Cornelia Parker within their artistic and cultural contexts
