Pathologies of Love

Judy Kem, 2019-12-01 Pathologies of Love examines the role of medicine in the debate on women known as the querelle des femmes in early modern France Questions concerning women s physical makeup and its psychological and moral consequences played an integral role in the querelle This debate on the status of women and their role in society began in the fifteenth century and continued through the sixteenth and as many critics would say well beyond In querelle works early modern medicine women s sexual difference literary reception and gendered language often merge Literary authors perpetuated medical ideas such as the notion of allegedly fatal lovesickness and physicians published works that included disquisitions on the moral nature of women In Pathologies of Love Judy Kem looks at the writings of Christine de Pizan Jean Molinet Symphorien Champier Jean Lemaire de Belges and Marguerite de Navarre examining the role of received medical ideas in the querelle des femmes She reconstructs how these authors interpreted the traditional courtly understanding of women s pity or mercy on a dying lover their understanding of contemporary debates about women s supposed sexual insatiability and its biological effects on men s lives and fertility and how erotomania or erotic melancholy was understood as a fatal illness While the two women who frame this study defended women and based much of what they wrote on personal experience the three men appealed to male authority and tradition in their writings

The Bond of Love: Catholic Teaching on Marriage & Sexual Ethics Willem Jacobus Cardinal Eijk, 2025-09-10 Contemporary attitudes toward marriage family life and human sexuality have undergone profound changes since the mid twentieth century spurred by a host of social and cultural factors Large segments of the population in the West now hold views on marriage and sexual ethics that are very different from the values and norms taught by the Church Indeed Catholic teaching on the truth of marriage and human sexuality is open to strong criticism including among groups of Catholics and seems at best poorly understood In The Bond of Love Willem Jacobus Cardinal Eijk provides a comprehensive and unflinching account of the Church s teaching on marriage and sexual ethics dispelling misconceptions and elucidating its truth with grace and clarity As he demonstrates far from being a set of arbitrary rules that constrain human freedom this teaching is instead a deep wisdom for human flourishing anchored in the truth of God and man divinely revealed within Scripture Tradition and the Gospel Eijk first locates Catholic teaching on marriage and sexuality in relation to the currently dominant views in Western society He follows this with an exposition of the fundamental starting point of the Church's teaching on the nature of marriage and sexuality rooted in theological anthropology Next discussed is the virtue of chastity the integration of the sexual faculties into the personality and what it requires of both married and unmarried persons The volume concludes by addressing practices and circumstances that violate the essence of marriage This powerful witness to the truth and beauty of Catholic teaching on marriage and sexual ethics is a vital resource for pastors teachers and all of the Church's faithful striving to live in the love and communion that is grounded in Christ The Ethics of Marital Peace, Joy & Lasting Love Eghosa Aiwuyo, 2020-08-03 The author is a Family Systems Specialist who works in private practice and seeing couples struggling with dysfunctional family patterns power struggles and communication problems therefore The Ethics of Marital Peace Joy whilst stimulating a growth oriented marriage Topic covered includes Role of the husband as leader Role of the wife as helpmate Co dependency divorce and remarriage Ways to triumph over financial issues Ways to deal with infertility Benefits of a lasting marriage Pre marital counselling This is an exclusive Christian resource and due to its profound benefits for building godly and healthier families it is highly recommended for all married and singles ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada has been shaped by colonisation immigration globalisation demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups However local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Richly illustrated with examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a broad ranging analysis of the family which will appeal to students researchers and policy makers Maureen Baker outlines with great clarity the diversity of families and the way in which they are shaped by historical and cultural forces The focus on Australia New Zealand and Canada is not only refreshing but throws into sharp relief the impact on contemporary families of the colonial experience industrialisation large scale immigration and globalisation David de Vaus La Trobe University

Love, Joy, and Sex Stan Chu Ilo, 2019-07-30 There is no papal document that has generated as much interest controversy and debate in recent times as Pope Francis's Amoris Laetitia This document which came out of two very divisive synods of Catholic bishops and leaders in Rome in 2014 and 2015 will probably be the most discussed document ever produced by a pope in modern Catholicism on marriage and family life This volume has gathered seminal commentaries on Amoris Laetitia by African Catholic theologians social scientists and pastoral workers They offer African theological and pastoral responses to the principles and practices proposed by Pope Francis and the Synod on the family on such contested issues as same sex relations divorce and remarriage and reception and denial of Holy Communion in the church among other divisive issues These important essays and commentaries show the strengths and weaknesses of this papal commentary and point out the missing link in the global conversation on marriage family and same sex relations Their argument for the inclusion of African perspectives and moral traditions in the search for a third way in finding an inclusive and integrated pastoral art of accompaniment is very compelling The authors here also call for the inclusion of Africa's own unique challenges like polygamy childless marriages and the impact of migration civil conflict diseases ecological and population crises and the rights of African women in the global discussion on marriage and family life They also challenge uncritical clichés in world Christianity that Africa's opposition to same sex marriages or Western propaganda about population or birth control and contraception are conservative while showing diverse African conversations on these topics in the search for abundant life on this beautiful continent

A Road Too Short for the Long Journey Quentin P. Kinnison, 2019-02-04 The inevitability of death in our broken world means that grief and mourning are a normal part of the human experience Too often though this normal journey of grief is cut short by a culture intent on pretending bad things don't really happen In A Road Too Short for the Long Journey readers are invited to consider how we might travel this road of mourning with those who grieve and how we might join them as partners in a reorientation of the world experienced through loss

Negotiating Non-Motherhood Jenny

Björklund, Dovilė Kuzminskaitė, Julie Rodgers, 2024-11-14 This open access edited volume focuses on the representations, perceptions and experiences of women who do not have children against the backdrop of traditional gender norms, pronatalist policies and patriarchal structures. While involuntary and voluntary childlessness have typically been treated separately and studied within different disciplines, in most previous scholarship contributing authors explore non motherhood beyond the involuntary/voluntary divide and consider a wide range of conceptualizations of women who do not become mothers. The editors bring together a variety of perspectives from different national contexts and disciplines including family studies, gender studies, literary and cultural studies, sociology and film studies to explore non motherhood. The book focuses on how women who choose or experience non motherhood are negotiated, felt, represented and received. Eat Pray Love

Elizabeth Gilbert, 2006-02-16 One of the most iconic, beloved and bestselling books of our time. This beautifully written, heartfelt memoir touched a nerve among both readers and reviewers. Elizabeth Gilbert tells how she made the difficult choice to leave behind all the trappings of modern American success: marriage, house in the country, career and find instead what she truly wanted from life. Setting out for a year to study three different aspects of her nature amid three different cultures, Gilbert explored the art of pleasure in Italy and the art of devotion in India and then a balance between the two on the Indonesian island of Bali. By turns rapturous and rueful, this wise and funny author whom Booklist calls Anne Lamott's hip yoga practicing, footloose younger sister is poised to garner yet more adoring fans. Falling in Love with Fertility
