Framed Visions Gerd Gemunden, 2025-10-01 Framed Visions analyzes the pivotal role American mass media and popular culture have played in shaping the political social and psychological identity of postwar Germans and Austrians Through detailed readings of films novels plays and poems of a variety of contemporary artists including Rainer Werner Fassbinder Wim Wenders Elfriede Jelinek Herbert Achternbusch Monika Treut Peter Handke and Rolf Dieter Brinkmann Gerd Gemunden reveals the paradoxical stance of this generation toward American politics and Hollywood aesthetics On the one hand they are pulled toward a culture that has shaped childhood images tastes and desires on the other they reject American politics and the colonizing effect of its mass culture In contrast to most scholarship about the reception of U S culture abroad this study underscores the imaginary relation of contemporary German and Austrian artists to America Topics such as Americanization and cultural imperialism are therefore treated not as a foreign principle imposed from the outside but as ways that German and Austrian artists have tried to come to terms with their own problematic culture and history Gemunden's study elucidates how the culture of the United States has been mapped in contradictory ways onto questions of national and cultural identity in Germany and Austria over the last thirty years Gerd Gemunden is Assistant Professor of German and Comparative Literature Dartmouth College

Gender Outlaw Kate Bornstein, 2016-05-31 I know I m not a man and I've come to the conclusion that I m probably not a woman either The trouble is we're living in a world that insists we be one or the other With these words Kate Bornstein ushers readers on a funny fearless and wonderfully scenic journey across the terrains of gender and identity With a new introduction by the author On one level Gender Outlaw details Bornstein's transformation from heterosexual male to lesbian woman from a one time IBM salesperson to a playwright and performance artist But this particular coming of age story is also a provocative investigation into our notions of male and female from a self-described nonbinary transfeminine diesel femme dyke who never stops questioning our cultural assumptions Gender Outlaw was decades ahead of its time when it was first published in 1994 Now some twenty odd years later this book stands as both a classic and a still revolutionary work one that continues to push us gently but profoundly to the furthest borders of the gender frontier

Harrisons Anne Douglas,Chris Fremantle,2024-09-30 Helen Mayer Harrison and Newton Harrison known as the Harrisons dedicated five decades to exploring and demonstrating a new approach to artistic practice centred on doing no work that does not attend to the wellbeing of the web of life Their collaborative practice pioneered a way of drawing together art and ecology They closely observed often with irony and humour how human intervention disrupts the dynamics of life as a web of interrelationships The authors of this book think with the Harrisons critically tracing their poetics as a reimagining and reconfiguring of the arts in response to the unfolding planetary crisis They draw parallels between the artists poetics and rethinking in the philosophy of science particularly drawing on the work of Isabelle Stengers and Alfred North Whitehead Thinking with the Harrisons is for anyone concerned with the implications of ecology as part of a reimagining of public life including through the interaction of art and science Throughout their joint practice the Harrisons sought to engage policy makers governments ecologists artists and inhabitants of specific places sensitizing us to the crises that emerge from grounded experiences of place and time A User's Guide to German Cultural Studies Scott D.
