Family, Friends and Foes Debra D. Andrist, 2018-11-01 Jigsaw puzzles notorious complexity and mega multiple amorphously shaped pieces provide an appropriate metaphor for the navigating and maneuvering necessary throughout all aspects of human dynamics Involvement comprises not only efforts by an individual personally trying to fit together a life of relationships with Family Friends Foes within complex categories and different levels but the efforts by groups of individuals within those categories progressively by those groups within a larger society and or societies and then across so many so called boundaries geographic ethnic linguistic artistic and more Such is the starting point for this particular collection of essays which focuses on the human dynamics in cultures characterized mostly linguistically as Hispanic worlds and those cultures both in real life and in terms of cultural productions such as movies visual art and literature Unlike jigsaw puzzles with their convenient guiding box cover representation of the finished product once the pieces are correctly assembled human dynamics pieces are more like amoebas ever changing size and shape multiplying and dividing sometimes fitting in with other pieces sometimes not sometimes overlapping in short frequently unpredictable and always challenging for the would be assembler s Thus the title of this book could easily morph ad infinitum with the three elements of Family Friends Foes reflecting an enormous and unwieldy range of relationship emotion and viewpoint Mixed messages abound And as can be seen from the individual chapter titles and content so called successful relationships may be fleeting or unattainable or may match the imagined hoped for picture of a working relationship dynamic The Standard , 1924 The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo, 2006 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing

Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development
