Love In Beijing:

Love and Marriage in Globalizing China Wang Pan, 2014-11-13 As China globalizes the number of marriages between Chinese people and foreigners is increasing These Chinese foreign marriages have profound implications for China's cultural identity This book based on extensive original research outlines the different types of Chinese foreign marriage and divorce and the changing scale and changing patterns of such marriages and divorces and examines how such marriages and divorces are portrayed in different kinds of media It shows how those types of Chinese foreign marriage where Chinese patriotism and Chinese values are preserved are depicted favourably whereas other kinds of Chinese foreign marriage especially those where Chinese women marry foreign nationals are disapproved of male foreign nationals being seen as having a propensity to infidelity deception violence and taking advantage of Chinese women The book contrasts the portrayal of Chinese foreign marriage with the reality and with the depiction of Chinese Chinese marriage where many of the same problems apply Overall the book sheds much light on changing social processes and on current imaginings of China's place in the world Im/possibility of Love in Beijing 爱的可能性 (王潘), 2016

Love and Romance in China Pan Wang, 2025-09-04

Love and Romance in China examines love affection and emotions in China from Maoist to contemporary China focusing on the intersections with politics economics gender class race and technology From the founding of the People's Republic of China to the end of the Cultural Revolution political ideology and class struggle dominated everyday life and love was subordinated to the communist revolution and socialism During the Cultural Revolution this turbulent period witnessed the paradoxical existence of self abstinence and self indulgence Since China changed its political ideology in 1979 and shifted to a market oriented economy the country embraced the idea of romantic love This emotional turn fostered opportunities for diverse intimate relationships characterized by the growth of cross cultural love LGBTQI love and the emergence of a sexual revolution Zhang 2011 Jeffreys and Yu 2015 The new dynamic was linked to contested discourses of fantasised eroticized and racialized foreign love intertwined with nationalist sentiments and ongoing tensions between sexual minorities and the government The new millennium has witnessed love crises characterised by growing concerns about leftover men and women high divorce rates declining marriage and birth rates and other relationship problems The deepening of the market economy and technological advances have turned love into a fast food commodity for mass consumption manifested in dating shows digital platforms and intimacy between humans and AI dolls Wang draws on a wide range of texts including government statistics on marriages and divorces legal documents Maoist folk songs poems posters love letters media texts popular discourses online dating websites and ethnographic observations and interviews Love in Beijing and Other Stories William Goede, 1988 The Methuen Drama Anthology of Modern Asian Plays Kevin J. Wetmore, Jr., Siyuan Liu, 2014-05-22 A companion volume to Modern Asian Theatre and Performance 1900-2000 this anthology contains nine emblematic scripts from twentieth and twenty first century Asian theatre Opening with a history of modern Asian drama and a summary of the plays and their contexts it features nine works written between 1912 and 2009 in Japan China Korea India Indonesia and Vietnam Showcasing fresh contemporary writing alongside plays central to the established canon the collection surveys each playwright's work and includes Father Returns by Kikuchi Kan Hot Pepper Air Conditioner and the Farewell Speech by Okada Toshiki Sunrise by Cao Yu I Love XXX by Meng Jinghui Huang Jingang Wang Xiaoli Shi Hang Bicycle by O Tae sok The Post Office by Rabindranath Tagore Hayavadana by Girish Karnad The Struggle of the Naga Tribe by W S Rendra Truong Ba's Soul in the Butcher's Skin by Luu Quang Vu The chronological and geographical breadth of the anthology provides a unique insight into modern Asian theatre and is essential to any understanding of its relation to Western drama and indigenous performance The Urban Generation Zhen Zhang, 2007-03-28 An anthology that explores film works by the urban generation filmmakers who operate outside of mainstream officially sanctioned Chinese cinema whose impact has been enormous Religion, Secularism, and Love as a Political Discourse in Modern China Ting Guo, 2025-10-01 What is the meaning of love in modern Chinese politics Why has love been a crucial political discourse for secular nationalism for generations of political leaders as a powerful instrument to the present day This book offers the first systematic examination of the ways in which the notion of love has been introduced adapted and engineered as a political discourse for the building and rebuilding of a secular modern nation all the while appropriating Confucianism Christianity popular religion ghost stories political religion and their religious affects The insights of this exploration expand not only the discussion of the role of emotions in the project of Chinese modernity but also the study of affective governance and religious nationalisms around the world today Revolution and Its Narratives Xiang Cai, 2016-02-04 Published in China in 2010 Revolution and Its Narratives is a historical literary and critical account of the cultural production of the narratives of China's socialist revolution Through theoretical empirical and textual analysis of major and minor novels dramas short stories and cinema Cai Xiang offers a complex study that exceeds the narrow confines of existing views of socialist aesthetics By engaging with the relationship among culture history and politics in the context of the revolutionary transformation of Chinese society and arts Cai illuminates the utopian promise as well as the ultimate impossibility of socialist cultural production Translated annotated and edited by Rebecca E Karl and Xueping Zhong this translation presents Cai's influential work to English language readers for the first time Chinese International Students and Citizenship Xiudi Zhang, 2020-02-22 This book investigates how Chinese international students reconfigure their sense of themselves as citizens when they reflect on what Chinese citizenship means in the context of New Zealand Adopting a case study approach it develops a theory relating to the thoughts of Chinese international students the theory is based on the communities schools family and state relationships of both their past and their contemporary daily experiences It finds that the struggles of Chinese young people lie in between being individuals and submitting to the general will of the family state and guanxi a Chinese concept of interpersonal relationships The book argues that the Western literature on citizenship is not sufficient in helping us understand how it is viewed in the Chinese contexts It offers readers a picture of what citizenship means for Chinese young people and the role of citizenship education in Modern Chinese society and demonstrates that the Chinese young people studied re educated themselves on citizenship in a way that is unstable and emotional This book makes important contributions to the literature on Chinese students who are studying abroad by going beyond the well researched topics of academic and social experience to explore deeper understandings of each individual student s relationship to family and the state in China and how the study abroad experience has developed new understandings of individual s relationships to China and new possibilities for contributing to Chinese society on return explores aspects of multilingual education in the People's Republic of China (PRC). Amongst other issues it also looks at the challenges associated with bilingual and trilingual education in Xinjiang and Tibet as well as the mediation between religion and culture in multi-ethnic schools covering these issues from a range of perspectives: Korean, Uyghur, Tibetan, Mongolian, and Yi. The PRC promotes itself as a harmonious stable multicultural mosaic with over 50 distinct ethnic groups striving for common prosperity. Beneath this rhetoric there is also inter-ethnic discord with scenes of ethnic violence in Lhasa and Urumqi over the last few years. China has a complex system of multilingual education with dual pathway curricula: bilingual and trilingual instruction, specialised ethnic schools. This education system is a lynchpin in the Communist party state's efforts to keep a lid on simmering tensions and transform a rhetoric of harmony into a critical pluralistic harmonious multiculturalism. This book examines this supposed lynchpin.

A Study on Suicide Jianjun Li, 2019-11-26. This book systematically presents and classifies the latest advances in suicide research in contemporary China, examines the status quo of suicides in China and analyzes the reasons for suicides among three high-risk groups: namely rural females, teenagers, and the elderly. It reveals the deep-seated influence of traditional Chinese values and socio-cultural customs on suicide and puts forward a way to prevent suicide. This book argues that high suicide rates stem from flaws in the social fabric. Effectively reducing suicide rates and mitigating the damage done by suicide as a social disease is not only the responsibility of the state government but also that of social, educational, and medical professionals.
