Tropical Truth(s) Armin Burkhardt,Brigitte Nerlich,2010-04-23 Tropes are not only rhetorical means which are used as a creative and or persuasive linguistic means in poetry and public speech They are also a cognitive tool which helps people to understand the world and to express their world As they are the basis on which our worldview and even our everyday speech is founded the question must be posed as to whether utterances containing tropes can be said to be true This has been an epistemological problem since Nietzsche expressed his doubts about the possibility that figurative language could give access to truth However since then research has paid little attention to this question 18 papers by linguists philosophers psychologists and literary scholars have been collected in this volume Their 21 authors use various approaches or paradigms in order to define metaphor metonymy synecdoche irony euphemism antonomasia and hyperbole and find an answer to the crucial epistemological questions namely whether and to what extent utterances containing tropes can be said to be true or false

Selected Poetry and Prose of Edmond Holmes John Howlett, 2016-05-23

This book represents the first scholarly gathering together of the long neglected poetry of the School Inspector educationalist and philosopher Edmond Holmes 1850-1936 Alongside a generous selection from Holmes's six volumes of poetry there is also a full reproduction of Holmes's essay What is Poetry which served to delineate his thinking on the discipline Supporting these original works is both a lengthy scholarly introduction and extensive endnotes which serve to locate Holmes's poetry not merely within the context of its time and amongst his own contemporaries but also to make a case for the importance of this body of work in its own right particularly in its promulgation of original and innovative ideas Holmes's poetry represents a particularly unique combination of traditional verse form coupled with innovative and esoteric subject matter often drawing upon Eastern Buddhist philosophy as well as Western Romanticism and Pantheism and so deserves to be more widely recognized as being wholly distinctive within the canon of Victorian and Modern poetry

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club.
