The Other Side of Communication Jean Vautour Paul, 2022-06-01 I Jean Vautour Paul was born in Jérémie Haiti My mother two sisters and I went to Port au Prince the capital of Haiti on the invitation of our aunt Edele She introduced us to Ms Eleanor Louise Snare a white American lady who adopted our orphan cousin Jean Fanes Snare who really needed a mom or a dad at that time She raised us as a big happy family Those three women had inculcated in us the best moral principles ever Ms Snare couldn't afford to send us to college so with only my high school diploma I went to teach English After a few years I was blessed to run my own English school One Way English School in Thomassin 25 In 1999 I left for Philadelphia and in 2014 left for Florida and settled here since I always dreamed to make a difference in other people's lives

Therefore in a day by day basis I do my research so I can become a professional writer to bring change hope love understanding wisdom compassion and respect in the lives of so many who need and deserve it Hopefully my books do just that so I can form better people children societies and families for a better world I take pleasure in writing It s my life Read my books and get addicted to do the right thing

You're Wearing That? Deborah Tannen, 2006-01-24 Deborah Tannen s 1 New York Times bestseller You Just Don t Understand revolutionized communication between women and men Now in her most provocative and engaging book to date she takes on what is potentially the most fraught and passionate connection of women s lives the mother daughter relationship It was Tannen who first showed us that men and women speak different languages Mothers and daughters speak the same language but still often misunderstand each other as they struggle to find the right balance between closeness and independence Both mothers and daughters want to be seen for who they are but tend to see the other as falling short of who she should be Each overestimates the other s power and underestimates her own Why do daughters complain that their mothers always criticize while mothers feel hurt that their daughters shut them out Why do mothers and daughters critique each other on the Big Three hair clothes and weight while longing for approval and understanding And why do they scrutinize each other for reflections of themselves Deborah Tannen answers these and many other questions as she explains why a remark that would be harmless coming from anyone else can cause an explosion when it comes from your mother or your daughter She examines every aspect of this complex dynamic from the dark side that can shadow a woman throughout her life to the new technologies like e mail and instant messaging that are transforming mother daughter communication Most important she helps mothers and daughters understand each other the key to improving their relationship With groundbreaking insights pitch perfect dialogues and deeply moving memories of her own mother Tannen untangles the knots daughters and mothers can get tied up in Readers will appreciate Tannen s humor as they see themselves on every page and come away with real hope for breaking down barriers and opening new lines of communication Eye opening and heartfelt You re Wearing That illuminates and enriches one of the most important relationships in our lives Tannen analyzes and decodes scores of conversations between moms and daughters These exchanges are so real they can make you squirm as you relive the last fraught conversation you had with your own mother or daughter But Tannen doesn t just point out the pitfalls of the mother daughter relationship she also provides guidance for changing the conversations or the way that we feel about the conversations before they degenerate into what Tannen calls a mutually aggravating spiral a self perpetuating cycle of escalating responses that become provocations The San Francisco Chronicle

How to Talk So Your Husband Will Listen Rick Johnson, 2013-01-01 A woman has a powerful influence on the man in her life But in order to empower him to become all he was meant to be she has to be able to talk so that he will listen and listen so that he will talk Author Rick Johnson shares with women the secrets to bringing about positive change in the men in their lives and shows them how to recognize and affirm his good qualities Johnson shows women the keys they need to know to encourage leadership forgiveness and patience in their husbands build authentic masculinity deal with a man's anger self centeredness or other negative traits and much more Every woman who wants to create a brighter future for both herself and her husband will benefit from this insightful and sometimes humorous insider's look into the mind of a man The Individual, Marriage, and the Family Lloyd Saxton,1996 A truly interdisciplinary approach this text incorporates biological psychological and sociological perspectives to the study of the family Women's Writing Rashmi Gaur,2003 Fractured Society Hugh Roberts,2023-05-17 Scanning across recent decades Fractured Society Causes Effects and Resolutions looks at how human relations have been coming apart psychologically a situation summarised by a failure to understand each other Young people seem more stressed than previous generations while politics are now more polarised than for a long time past Wherever you look at gender relations the working environment responses to traumatic events and how people relate positively and negatively to their sense of place there are profound strains on how we interact with each other But maybe all is not lost Hugh Roberts examines how every situation can look better in context applying lessons learned from many years working internationally with different cultures and value systems He proposes a fresh approach to relationship building based on empathy and understanding of individual agendas has brought communities a renewed sense of collective purpose with digital communication proving vital in sustaining relationships However the Internet needs to take its rightful place in rather than take over the slow re building of mutual trust
