Laurel, 2011-05-18 LISA ACOR LAUREL knows firsthand the necessity of letting go of relationships that aren't working, letting go and moving on to mystery, adventure and fulfillment. In this memoir, she narrates her escape from an abusive relationship and how she found healing and self-discovery through her faith and trust in God. Love in the Gardens of Macantar delivers a series of personal journal entries chronicling Laurel's journey from codependency, addiction, self-pity and blame to a life of happiness, contentment and taking responsibility for her actions. It captures her progress through one year of healing and it sheds light on Laurel's inner self, the great significance of her journey and how she found her true passion in gardening. Inspiring and uplifting, Laurel's testimony offers hope for a prosperous, productive and fulfilling life after leaving an abusive relationship. Realizing that happiness is not a luxury, it is a responsibility. Love in the Gardens of Macantar shows there is a new beginning after the end.

Slate Creek, Love Garden Bruce Wayne Niles, 2022-11-03 This book was designed and written with three types of people in mind. First, the individual that likes a morally based, humorous relationship and light easy reading. Second, the person that likes puzzles, twists and turns, plays on words and is trying to anticipate where the author is going next. The book is designed in little sections with the hint of what may be coming in that section, even though sometimes they are very bad hints. See if you can figure out how the hints fit in. And third, people may use it to spark small group discussions dealing with topics like: does our past make us what we are today? Morals, personal relationships, faith, seeing God's guidance, communicating with people, can we be happy in this life? Do we need to stand on someone's shoulders to stand out in a crowd? God bless and enjoy.

Roaming through Seductive Gardens G.L. Koster, 2021-11-01 In the field of Nusantara literary studies, systematic interpretations of individual literary works are still a relatively rare phenomenon. This book shows how such interpretations can be fruitfully produced for traditional Malay literature. Taking his cue from ideas in modern literary theory, anthropology and the study of western medieval literature, the author describes the major conventions of traditional Malay narrative and develops a comprehensive model of traditional Malay poetics comprising both oral and written traditions. By applying this model to a series of readings of individual works including heroic epics and Panji romances, the texts come to life.

Interpreting the Bible and the Qur'an through Love Tareq Hesham Moqbel, 2025-10-16 This book investigates the role of love as an exegetical resource for interpreting the Bible and the Qur'an. Through surveying the ways in which love was used to make sense of the Jewish, Christian and Muslim Scriptures, this book advocates and argues for a hermeneutical approach that reads the Bible and the Qur'an through the lens of love. Engaging various exegetical authorities from the Jewish, Christian and Muslim traditions, Tareq Hesham Moqbel identifies numerous cases of love-informed exegesis covering diverse themes and exegetical techniques. The exegetical dialogue presented in this book shows that the idea of love takes on greater meaning when studied from the standpoint of comparative exegesis Moreover by analysing this topic through a comparative lens the book argues for a novel conceptualisation of love as an exegetical tool and a reading ethic that connects the Abrahamic scriptural traditions and can be applied beyond them The Celestial Garden Jane Hawley
