Why Love Hurts Eva Illouz, 2012-06-05 A new book by the award winning sociologist Eva Illouz on modern love Sets out to explain why love is such a painful experience for many people why we invest so much in the search for love and why it so often disappoints us

The End of Love Eva Illouz, 2021-09-15 Western culture has endlessly represented the ways in which love miraculously erupts in people's lives the mythical moment in which one knows someone is destined for us the feverish waiting for a phone call or an email the thrill that runs down our spine at the mere thought of him or her Yet a culture that has so much to say about love is virtually silent on the no less mysterious moments when we avoid falling in love where we fall out of love when the one who kept us awake at night now leaves us indifferent or when we hurry away from those who excited us a few months or even a few hours before In The End of Love Eva Illouz documents the multifarious ways in which relationships end She argues that if modern love was once marked by the freedom to enter sexual and emotional bonds according to one's will and choice contemporary love has now become characterized by practices of non choice the freedom to withdraw from relationships Illouz dubs this process by which relationships fade evaporate dissolve and break down unloving While sociology has classically focused on the formation of social bonds The End of Love makes a powerful case for studying why and how social bonds collapse and dissolve Particularly striking is the role that capitalism plays in practices of non choice and unloving The unmaking of social bonds she argues is connected to contemporary capitalism which is characterized by practices of non commitment and non choice practices that enable the quick withdrawal from a transaction and the quick realignment of prices and the breaking of loyalties Unloving and non choice have in turn a profound impact on society and economics as they explain why people may be having fewer children increasingly living alone and having less sex The End of Love presents a profound and original analysis of the effects of capitalism and consumer culture on personal relationships and of what the dissolution of personal relationships means for capitalism The Wife Anne O.

Nimmus,2014-12-09 This is my memoir I know what you're thinking what kind of an unexceptional egocentric thirty something year old writes a memoir I'll tell you someone that had life figured out by kindergarten and by college was destined to take on the world with a certifiably impenetrable heart I was religiously raised thinking that I would never ever screw things up the way my parents had and unlike most marriages mine really was meant to be happily forever after that's until I realized I am really just one in six billion We aren't so different I am no stranger to love and fear You Can Master Your Fear Magdalena Scopelitis,2012-06-26 Be the master of your fear and you can rule over your life Fear is the only obstacle between you and your dreams between you and what you most love So says Archangel Raphael who in this series of channelings unravels the mysteries of fear and through its darkest paths guides you step by step up to the glade of love He helps you tear away fears masks one by one till you come to know its real face only then does he teach you the ways to transmute it into love thus eliminating its disastrous implications According to Archangel Raphael fear shows that somewhere in the deepest part of your being you have chosen hatred versus love and your life cannot have real meaning Only when your fear is transformed can real life happen to you The end of your fear will signal the beginning of your life Until that day comes you will have just lived in a lie in an illusion I am only asking you to give me your fear Archangel Raphael adds and I will give back to you your love the most precious gift you ever had Boundaries of Self and Reality Online Jayne
