comprehensive and inquisitive stance for the study of moving pictures as a cultural movement and ludenic innovation It returns to earlier analysis and commentary on this new invention and recreation quickly termed the movies and develops the initial impression of both moviegoers and observers that the movies appealed because they were fun As such the book examines the characteristics that made films so enjoyable namely their use of magic presentation of myth and persistence of mnemonic recollection The enduring appeal of moving pictures remains consistent even though the medium has proliferated and diversified so much so that now a good portion of the human race spends a great deal of time looking at moving pictures The book is eclectic and exploratory designed to urge consideration of moving pictures in this larger perspective as something that has changed and perhaps enriched the lives of many people leaving inquirers the task of calculating the enormous significance and consequences of our motion picture experience for the conduct of our lives Such an effort is not without merit since it now seems quite clear that the whole world is watching From the Forest Sara Maitland, 2013-10-29
