Deloria, Neal Salisbury, 2008-04-15 A Companion to American Indian History captures the thematic breadth of Native American history over the last forty years Twenty five original essays by leading scholars in the field both American Indian and non American Indian bring an exciting modern perspective to Native American histories that were at one time related exclusively by Euro American settlers Contains 25 original essays by leading experts in Native American history Covers the breadth of American Indian history including contacts with settlers religion family economy law education gender issues and culture Surveys and evaluates the best scholarship on every important era and topic Summarizes current debates and anticipates future concerns Indigenous Aesthetics Steven Leuthold, 2010-07-05 What happens when a Native or indigenous person turns a video camera on his or her own culture Are the resulting images different from what a Westernized filmmaker would create and if so in what ways How does the use of a non Native art making medium specifically video or film affect the aesthetics of the Native culture These are some of the questions that underlie this rich study of Native American aesthetics art media and identity Steven Leuthold opens with a theoretically informed discussion of the core concepts of aesthetics and indigenous culture and then turns to detailed examination of the work of American Indian documentary filmmakers including George Burdeau and Victor Masayesva Jr He shows how Native filmmaking incorporates traditional concepts such as the connection to place to the sacred and to the cycles of nature While these concepts now find expression through Westernized media they also maintain continuity with earlier aesthetic productions In this way Native filmmaking serves to create and preserve a sense of identity for indigenous people First Peoples, First Contacts Jonathan C. H. King, 1999 From the Big Game Hunters who appeared on the continent as far back as 12 000 years ago to the Inuits plying the Alaskan waters today the Native peoples of North America produced a culture remarkable for its vibrancy breadth and diversity and for its survival in the face of almost inconceivable trials This book is at once a history of that culture and a celebration of its splendid variety Rich in historical testimony and anecdotes and lavishly illustrated it weaves a magnificent tapestry of Native American life reaching back to the earliest human records A recognized expert in North American studies Jonathan King interweaves his account with Native histories from the arrival of the first Native Americans by way of what is now Alaska to their later encounters with Europeans on the continent s opposite coast from their exchanges with fur traders to their confrontations with settlers and an ever more voracious American government To illustrate this history King draws on the extensive collections of the British Museum artwork clothing tools and artifacts that demonstrate the wealth of ancient traditions as well as the vitality of contemporary Native culture These illustrations all described in detail form a pictorial document of relations between Europeans and Native American peoples peoples as profoundly different and as deeply related as the Algonquians and the Iroquois the Chumash of California and the Inupiat of Alaska the Cree and the Cherokee from their first contact to their complicated coexistence today The New Lives of Images Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2025-09-30 In this ambitious new work eco philosopher and cultural theorist Adrian Ivakhiv presents an incisive new way of thinking about images and imagination Drawing upon an immense range of materials Ivakhiv reassesses the place of imagination in cultural life analyzing how people have interacted with images in the past and the ways that digital media are profoundly altering these relationships today The book contributes powerfully to the study of visual culture and digital media and provides provocative interpretations of a range of important artists and media movements from the work of photographer Edward Burtynsky the ambitious multi screen installations of John Akomfrah the abstract art of Swedish spiritualist Hilma af Klint and the Afrofuturism of jazz musicians like Sun Ra and poet Alexis Pauline Gumbs to the ever expanding universe of animal videos on YouTube Along the way the book delves into animacy and religious imagery iconophilia and iconoclasm divination and prophecy truthiness and enchantment networks online communities and artificial intelligence the political and affective economies of digital media and the role of utopian futurism in the present climate colonial Anthropocene predicament The result is a vital contribution toward a more empowering conception of the creative imagination and its possibilities in today s emerging digital ecology
