Magic Of A People:

Upper Egypt: Its People and Its Products Karl Benjamin Klunzinger, 1878 Magic: A History Chris Gosden, 2020-11-10

An Oxford professor of archaeology explores the unique history of magic the oldest and most neglected strand of human behavior and its resurgence today Three great strands of belief run through human history Religion is the relationship with one god or many gods masters of our lives and destinies Science distances us from the world turning us into observers and collectors of knowledge And magic is direct human participation in the universe we have influence on the world around us and the world has influence on us Over the last few centuries magic has developed a bad reputation thanks to the unsavory tactics of shady practitioners and to a successful propaganda campaign on the part of religion and science which denigrated magic as backward irrational and primitive In Magic however the Oxford professor of archaeology Chris Gosden restores magic to its essential place in the history of the world revealing it to be an enduring element of human behavior that plays an important role for individuals and cultures From the curses and charms of ancient Greek Roman and Jewish magic to the shamanistic traditions of Eurasia indigenous America and Africa from the alchemy of the Renaissance to the condemnation of magic in the colonial period and the mysteries of modern quantum physics Gosden s startling fun and colorful history supplies a missing chapter of the story of our civilization Drawing on decades of research around the world touching on the first known horoscope a statue ordered into exile and the mystical power of tattoos Gosden shows what magic can offer us today and how we might use it to rethink our relationship with the world Magic is an original singular and sweeping work of scholarship and its revelations will leave a spell on the reader Lost in Magic: A FREE Magic, FBI, Witchy,
