The Parents Journal Guide identifies the most important things every child needs in order to develop and thrive and presents easy everyday opportunities to meet these needs through the ordinary daily routine of parents and children. Magical Moments of Change Lenore Terr, 2008 Why and how therapy with even the most challenging kids can work. Terr presents highly effective child psychotherapeutic styles and techniques and demonstrates them in three ways: by relating moments from at least six of her own cases; by conveying and comparing moments from 33 of her distinguished colleagues' cases; and by watching her wild child patient, little Cammie, develop her own eight magical moments over a period of fifteen years. These moments are rare. But by pooling them together or by looking at how they develop over a long period of time in a single individual, readers are able to achieve further understanding of the process of change in child and adolescent psychotherapy. Child and Adolescent Psychopathology Linda A.
