Krebs,2014-04-25 Shani Krebs didn t fall in with a bad crowd he was the bad crowd Born to Hungarian refugees in Johannesburg South Africa Shani had a tough childhood During his national service he started dabbling in drugs and it wasn t long before he was supplying the Johannesburg party scene with marijuana LSD mandrax and cocaine It was a wild life filled with girlfriends narrow escapes and drug binges His closest friend was his pistol Then in 1994 at the birth of South Africa s democracy Shani flew to Thailand where he was arrested for heroin trafficking and after a trial was sentenced to death He was 34 Shani s sentence was commuted to 100 years and thus begun the greatest challenge of his life The first hurdle was to survive in one of the toughest prisons imaginable the random violence the appalling diet and the filth and diseases Shani not only survived he eventually rose to command significant respect within the prison system The second was to stay off drugs after years of addiction The third was nurturing a long neglected spiritual side which he found through his art and exploring his Jewish faith But what gave him most focus was in collaboration with his sister Joan trying to find some way either to be transferred to a South African prison or have his sentence shortened He failed in the former but after serving 18 years the longest serving Westerner in a Thai prison he stepped off a plane at OR Tambo in 2012 South Africa was
