juvenile dragons from the Seven Kingdoms of Saridon have been commissioned to cross the dimensional boundaries to Earth on missions to accompany gifted or unique humans through their lives to their destinies Over the years as dragon society has changed the original purpose and intent of this Shadowing have been lost but the programme entrenched in Saridonian tradition continues although much reduced in magnitude Banpine a young Silver Iridescent dragon is sent to Earth to Shadow a human girl named Lydia born in Saskatchewan in the mid 1950s into a modest home and apparently ordinary family But things take a dark turn when his young human becomes the victim of sexual and emotional abuse by her father When at last Lydia reveals the crime to her siblings and mother she finds herself trapped in a web of duplicity as they attempt to preserve the fiction that their family is whole and functional As Banpine supports Lydia helping her to survive the atrocities committed against her the dragon and human forge a relationship unique in the annals of the Shadow Programme one that ignites an earthshaking reformation in the dimension of dragons Not a Fairy Tale is a sophisticated adult fantasy that attacks individual and social apathy toward the suffering of others making it clear that those who deny or ignore the existence of acts of aggression are as culpable as the perpetrator It shines an often uncomfortable light on the way that blind adherence to tradition and devotion to the status quo silence the oppressed and perpetuate abuse With or without the help of dragons healing can only begin with speaking and being heard The Transformations of Magic Frank Klaassen,2013-01-02

In this original provocative well reasoned and thoroughly documented book Frank Klaassen proposes that two principal genres of illicit learned magic occur in late medieval manuscripts image magic which could be interpreted and justified in scholastic terms and ritual magic in its extreme form overt necromancy which could not Image magic tended to be recopied faithfully ritual magic tended to be adapted and reworked These two forms of magic did not usually become intermingled in the manuscripts but were presented separately While image magic was often copied in the fourteenth and fifteenth centuries The Transformations of Magic demonstrates that interest in it as an independent genre declined precipitously around 1500 Instead what persisted was the other more problematic form of magic ritual magic Klaassen shows that texts of medieval ritual magic were cherished in the sixteenth century and writers of new magical treatises such as Agrippa von Nettesheim and John Dee were far more deeply indebted to medieval tradition and specifically to the medieval tradition of ritual magic than previous scholars have thought them to be

Conjuring Spirits: Texts and Traditions of Medieval Ritual Magic, 1998 Conjuring Spirits contains both general surveys and analyses of magical texts and manuscripts by distinguished scholars in a variety of disciplines Included are chapters by Richard Kieckhefer and Robert Mathiesen on the Sworn Book of Honorius Michael Camille on the images in Ars Notoria manuscripts John B Friedman on the Secretum Philosophorum Claire Fanger and Nicholas Watson on the Liber Visionum and Elizabeth Wade on Lullian divination The work also includes Juris Lidaka's edition of the Liber de Angelis and an overview of late medieval English ritual magic manuscripts by Frank Klaassen Claire Fanger's introduction describes the context of late medieval magical texts both angelic and demonic and offers insight into the place of magic in the medieval world This book will be invaluable for scholars and other readers interested in ritual magic in the later Middle Ages Back cover
