Harty,1999-01-01 This collection of eleven essays details more than 75 films from Edwin Porter's 1904 Parsifal to the animated Quest for Camelot in 1998 A variety of critical perspectives are provided The medieval and modern worlds collide in The Fisher King and Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade issues of femininity and depictions of Morgan Le Fay are analyzed in the 1931 Connecticut Yankee and in Excalibur concerns of masculinity are examined in First Knight and Dragonheart A comprehensive filmography selective bibliography and over 40 film stills complete this critical appreciation of the rich and varied cinematic tradition of Arthur The Cambridge Companion to Gothic Fiction Jerrold E. Hogle,2002-08-29 Gothic as a form of fiction making has played a major role in Western culture since the late eighteenth century In this volume fourteen world class experts on the Gothic provide thorough and revealing accounts of this haunting to horrifying type of fiction from the 1760s the decade of The Castle of Otranto the first so called Gothic story to the end of the twentieth century an era haunted by filmed and computerized Gothic simulations Along the way these essays explore the connections of Gothic fictions to political and industrial revolutions the realistic novel the theatre Romantic and post Romantic poetry nationalism and racism from Europe to America colonized and post colonial populations the rise of film and other visual technologies the struggles between high and popular culture changing psychological attitudes towards human identity gender and sexuality and the obscure lines between life and death sanity and madness The volume also includes a chronology and guides to further reading The Cinema of Québec Janis L. Pallister,1995 Quebecois cinema too long neglected and too long unknown by American viewers and often not appreciated on its own terrain receives its well deserved defense in Janis L. Pallister's The Cinema of Quebec Masters in Their Own House The Marx Brothers Wes D. Gehring,1987-07-28 This bio bibliography was designed to present a combined biographical critical and bibliographical portrait of the Marx Brothers It examines their significance in film comedy in particular and as popular culture figures in general The book is divided into five sections beginning with a biography which explores the public and private sides of the Marx Brothers The second section is concerned with the influences of the Marx Brothers as icons of anti establishment comedy as contributors to developments in American comedy as early examples of saturation comedy and as a crucial link between silent films and the talkies Three original articles two by Groucho and one by Gummo comprise part three A bibliographical essay which assesses key reference materials and research collections is followed by two bibliographical checklists Appendices containing a chronological biography with a timeline a filmography and a selected discography complete the work

The Films of Jean Seberg Michael Coates-Smith, Garry McGee, 2014-01-10 Here is the first comprehensive examination of the international film career of Iowa born actress Jean Seberg 1938 1979 Bursting onto the scene as star of Otto Preminger's controversial Saint Joan 1957 the 19 year old Seberg encountered great difficulty recovering from the devastating criticism of her performance The turnaround came in 1959 with her brilliant work in Jean Luc Godard's new wave classic A bout de souffle Breathless Though her Hollywood prospects were harmed by subsequent political involvements Seberg continued to work with some of Europe's finest directors Her later films offer a fascinating view of the movie industry in the 1960s and 1970s and of a courageous actress always ready for a new challenge A biographical sketch provides a framework for detailed scrutiny of her 37 films Background information and a critical evaluation is provided for each title

Tennessee Williams Philip Kolin, 1998-10-28 The plays of Tennessee Williams are some of the greatest triumphs of the American theatre If Williams is not the most important American playwright he surely is one of the two or three most celebrated rivaled only by Eugene O'Neill and Arthur Miller In a career that spanned almost five decades he created an extensive canon of more than 70 plays His contributions to the American theatre are inestimable and revolutionary The Glass Menagerie 1945 introduced poetic realism to the American stage A Streetcar Named Desire 1947 explored sexual and psychological issues that had never before been portrayed in American culture Cat on a Hot Tin Roof 1955 dared to challenge the political and sexual mores of the Eisenhower era and his plays of the 1970s are among the most innovative works produced on the American stage But Williams was far more than a gifted and prolific playwright He created two collections of poetry two novels four collections of stories memoirs and scores of essays Because of his towering presence in American drama Williams has attracted the attention of some of the most insightful scholars and critics of the twentieth century The 1990s in particular ushered in a renaissance of Williams research including a definitive biography a descriptive bibliography and numerous books and scholarly articles This reference book synthesizes the vast body of research on Tennessee Williams and offers a performance history of his works Under the guidance of one of the leading authorities on Williams expert contributors have written chapters on each of Williams' works or clusters of works Each chapter includes a discussion of the biographical context of a work or group of writings a survey of the bibliographic history an analysis of major critical approaches which looks at themes characters symbols and plots a consideration of the major critical problems posed by the work an overview of chief productions and film and television versions a concluding interpretation and a bibliography of secondary sources The volume concludes with a selected general bibliography and a comprehensive index

The Afterlives of Anticolonial Aesthetics Carlos Garrido Castellano,Patrick Crowley,2025-08-06 This book develops a critical intervention in the politics of time and anticolonial aesthetics Engaging with recent debates on cultural activism and postcolonial and decolonial studies the main objective of this volume is to examine the ways in which anticolonial cultural analysis and production keeps nurturing contemporary processes of progressive social transformation The chapters in this volume argue that anticolonialism should not be bounded to a specific historical moment that of postcolonial nation building rather it should be seen as a fertile radical tradition going beyond the specific event of decolonization and informing utopian and radical futures The twelve essays engage with this argument from a wide variety of disciplines including film studies art history literary criticism and cultural and visual studies It is intended for scholars activists and students across disciplines who are interested in the intersections of culture politics and social change The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Interventions

The Films of G.W. Pabst Eric Rentschler,1990 GW Pabst entered film history as a luminary of Weimar cinema an astute observer of social struggle and psychic process the espouser of a progressive and engaged film art He gained international renown as the director of The joyless street Pandora's Box Westfront 1918 and Kamaradschaft After 1933 the once revered auteur would become a voice incessantly modified and modulated by socio political forces more sovereign than his best intentions experiencing exile emigration a sojourn in Hollywood a fateful return to Germany and an unsuccessful postwar attempt to regain a once considerable reputation This collection of essays presents the first truly comprehensive image of a problematic firmmaker whose life and oeuvre compellingly reflect both the turbulent character of recent German history as well as the fate of artistic producers in the transcultural machinery of the modern world

The Arabian Nights Reader Ulrich Marzolph,2006 An authoritative guide to research inspired by the Arabian Nights containing sixteen influential essays

Hollywood Knights S. Aronstein,2016-04-30 Hollywood Knights examines Hollywood Arthuriana as political nostalgia offered to American viewers during times of cultural crisis the red scare of the 1950s the breakdown of traditional authority in the 1960s and 1970s the turn to the right in the 1980s and the redemption of masculine and national authority in the 1990s Its analysis of these films explores their proposal of an ideal past an Americanized Camelot and a democratized chivalry as the solution to the problems of a troubled present a solution that will ensure prosperity in the homeland and a globally beneficial American authority abroad

Re-Entering the Dollhouse Heather M. Porter,Michael Starr,2022-05-24 Premiering on Fox in 2009 Joss Whedon's Dollhouse was an innovative contentious and short lived science fiction series whose themes were challenging for viewers from the outset A vast global corporation operates establishments Dollhouses that program individuals with temporary personalities and abilities The protagonist assumes a different identity each episode her defining characteristic a lack of individuality Through this obtuse premise the show interrogated free will morality and sex and in the process its own construction of fantasy and its audience A decade on the world is for better or worse catching up with Dollhouse s provocative vision This collection of new essays examines the series relevance in the context of today s social and political issues and media landscape
