Roger Grant,2014-04-17 Among the grand antebellum plans to build railroads to interconnect the vast American republic perhaps none was more ambitious than the Louisville Cincinnati Charleston The route was intended to link the cotton producing South and the grain and livestock growers of the Old Northwest with traders and markets in the East creating economic opportunities along its 700 mile length But then came the Panic of 1837 and the project came to a halt H Roger Grant tells the incredible story of this singular example of railroad fever and the remarkable visionaries whose hopes for connecting North and South would require more than half a century and one Civil War to reach fruition The Heart of a Great Pastor H. B. London,Neil B. Wiseman,2006-09-05 The Heart of a Great Pastor salutes pastors everywhere those wanting to take a fresh look at their ministries as well as those just starting out As the baton is passed to the new breed of pastors there is a great need to help them count the cost of serving Christ and equip them with the tools wisdom and encouragement from those who have gone before them H B London Jr and Neil B Wiseman bring their experiences and heart to pastors for such a task To the new breed they ask Do you have a mentor Have you examined your unique call and place in society Do you have buy in from your spouse and children Do you spend as much time in the Word and study as you do in the entrepreneurial pursuits of your ministry Do you genuinely love people Do you really understand how invested God is in you and how important it is for you to make it Here is help for young pastors and their mentors to stay strong personally while taking churches to the edge of creative imaginative newness for Christ while remaining safely anchored to the abiding and adventuresome gospel DIVINE ECHOES Sonia A.
