Magnificent Obsessions Mitch Tuchman, 1994-02-01 The 20 individuals presented in this book have gathered remarkable collections from the whimsical to the conceptual from items already widely appreciated to the unconventional beyond The color photos present the collectors themselves surrounded by their favorite things The interviews draw out the stories behind these remarkable collectors They reveal the collectors capacity to derive emotional or intellectual stimulation from objects their desire not merely to see but to own their methods for unearthing items both wondrous rare their willingness to allocate time resources to the elusive goal of completeness

Magnificent Obsessions Mitch Tuchman, 1994 The 20 individuals presented in this book have gathered remarkable collections from the whimsical to the conceptual from items already widely appreciated to the unconventional and beyond The color photos present the collectors themselves surrounded by their favorite things The interviews draw out the stories behind these remarkable collectors They reveal the collectors capacity to derive emotional or intellectual stimulation from objects their desire not merely to see but to own their methods for unearthing items both wondrous and rare and their willingness to allocate time and resources to the elusive goal of completeness

Wax Trash and Vinyl Treasures: Record Collecting as a Social Practice Dr Roy Shuker, 2013-01-28 This study examines the history of record collecting profiles collectors and the collecting process considers categories especially music genres and types of record collecting and outlines and discusses the infrastructure within which collecting operates Shuker situates this discussion within the broader literature on collecting along with issues of cultural consumption social identity and the construction of self in contemporary society Record collecting is both fascinating in its own right and provides insights into broader issues of nostalgia consumption and material culture

Cultural Studies of James Joyce, 2016-08-09 The first volume to collect essays from the emergent field of cultural studies that specifically address the work of James Joyce Cultural Studies of James Joyce includes work from both well established Joyce scholars such as Margot Norris and Cheryl Herr and by such younger writers as Tracey Teets Schwarze and Paul Saint Amour Topics range over the whole field of culture from Nipper the Victrola dog to the statuary of Praxiteles from the Tank Girl comics to studies of Irish schizophrenia from the history of University College Dublin to the political ferment over choral singing at the turn of the century The volume should be of interest to Joyceans to students of literature and culture in the twentieth century and especially to those interested in the interactions of different cultural levels between the nineteenth century and our own time An introductory survey by R Brandon Kershner discusses the rise of cultural studies and places the issue within modern debates in literary theory

Collecting in a Consumer Society Russell W. Belk, 2013-01-11 This groundbreaking book examines the relationship between the development of the consumer society and the rise of collecting by individuals and institutions Russell Belk considers how and why people collect as individuals corporations and museums and the impact this collecting has on us and our culture Collecting in a Consumer Society outlines the history of museum collecting from ancient civilizations to the present It also looks at aspects of consumer culture advertizing department stores mass merchandizing consumer desires and how this relates to the activity of collecting Collecting in a Consumer Society is the first book to focus on collecting as material consumption This is a provocative and engaging book essential reading for anyone involved with the process of collecting An Anthropology of Contemporary Art Thomas Fillitz, Paul van der Grijp, 2020-05-15 Drawing on the exciting developments that have occurred in the anthropology of art over the last twenty years this study uses ethnographic methods to explore shifts in the art market and global contemporary art Recognizing that the huge diversity of global phenomena requires research on the ground An Anthropology of Contemporary Art examines the local art markets biennials networks of collectors curators artists patrons auction houses and museums that constitute the global art world Divided into four parts Picture and Medium World Art Studies and Global Art Art Markets Maecenas and Collectors Participatory Art and Collaboration chapters go beyond the standard emphasis on Europe and North America to present first hand fieldwork from a wide range of areas including Brazil Turkey and Asia and the Pacific With contributions from distinguished anthropologists such as Philippe Descola and Roger Sansi Roca this book provides a fresh approach to key topics in the discipline A model for demonstrating how contemporary art can be studied ethnographically this is a vital read for students in anthropology of art visual anthropology visual culture and related fields Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums Paul van der

Grijp, 2024-12-06 Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums questions why private collectors donate their collection or parts of it to museums and examines what the implications of this gifting process might be Presenting case studies from Europe North America East Asia and the South Pacific this book is concerned with both elite and popular collections and examines the act of donating art from the collector's point of view Demonstrating that art museums depend on donations from private collectors Paul van der Grijp emphasizes that it is crucial to understand the psychological sociological economic and educational motivations for gifting works of art to institutions Taken together the chapters argue that collectors donate to museums because the latter represent an imagined community to whom those collectors would like to bestow a sacred gift Private collectors are Van der Grijp maintains motivated to ensure the immortality of their collections and ultimately to preserve some memory of their own lives in the process Art Collecting and Gifts to Museums will be of interest to researchers and students engaged in the study of museums culture art anthropology history and sociology Art Information and the Internet Lois Swan Jones, 2013-12-16

In the first book of its kind art information expert Lois Swan Jones discusses how to locate visual and textual information on the Internet and how to evaluate and supplement that information with material from other formats print sources CD ROMS documentary videos and microfiche sets to produce excellent research results The book is divided into three sections Basic Information Formats Types of Websites and How to Find Them and How to Use Web Information Jones discusses the strengths and limitations of Websites scholarly and basic information resources are noted and search strategies for finding pertinent Websites are included Art Information and the Internet also discusses research methodology for studying art historical styles artists working in various media individual works of art and non Western cultures as well as art education writing about art problems of copyright and issues concerning the buying and selling of art This title will be periodically updated Creative Enterprise Martha Buskirk,2012-04-26 In the face of unparalleled growth and a truly global audience the popularity of contemporary art has clearly become a double edged affair Today an unprecedented number of museums galleries biennial style exhibitions and art fairs display new work in all its variety while art schools continue to inject fresh talent onto the scene at an accelerated rate In the process however contemporary art has become deeply embedded not only in an expanding art industry but also the larger cultures of fashion and entertainment Buskirk argues that understanding the dynamics of art itself cannot be separated from the business of presenting art to the public As strategies of institutional critique have given way to various forms of collaboration or accommodation both art and museum conventions have been profoundly altered by their ongoing relationship The escalating market for contemporary art is another driving force Even as art remains an idealized activity it is also understood as a profession and in increasingly obvious ways a business particularly as practiced by star artists who preside over branded art product lines Cabinet of Curiosities Colleen Josephine Sheehy,Frederick R. Weisman Art Museum,2006 Representing Consumers Barbara Stern,2003-09-02 Representing Consumers explores representation and constructions of truth in consumer research Contributions come from the United States and Britain and draw on a wide range of theoretical approaches Material culture : critical concepts in the social sciences.
