The Built Surface: v. 1: Architecture and the Visual Arts from Antiquity to the Enlightenment Christy Anderson, Karen Koehler, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2002 Since antiquity through to the present architecture and the pictorial arts paintings photography graphic arts have not been rigidly separated but interrelated the one informing the other and establishing patterns of creation and reception In the Classical tradition the education of the architect and artist has always stressed this relationship between the arts although modern scholarship has too often treated them as separate disciplines These volumes explore the history of this exchange between the arts as it emerged from classical theory into artistic and architectural practice Issues of visual representation perspective allegory site specificity ornamentation popular culture memorials urban and utopian planning and the role of treatises manifestos and other theoretical writings are addressed as well as the critical reaction to these products and practices This title represents a variety of methods approaches and dialectical interpretations cases where architecture informs the themes and physical space of pictures or pictorial concerns inform the design and construction of the built environment The exchanges between architecture and pictures explored by these authors are found to be in all cases ideologically potent and therefore significantly expressive of their respective social political and intellectual histories

Graphic Modernism Art Institute of Chicago, 2003 This exhibition catalog highlights a recent gift of works on paper to the Art Institute of Chicago from the Gecht family longtime Chicago collectors The catalog comprises 135 drawings prints and sculptures from the collection all of which embody a broad definition of Modernism The book spans two centuries and contains artists such as Cezanne and Van Gogh as well as Mark Rothko and Philip Guston Toulouse Lautrec Matisse and Picasso form the backbone of the collection with nearly 30 works of art apiece Suzanne Folds McCullagh curator of prints drawings Art Inst of Chicago provides a short introductory essay that tracks the evolution of the collection Authored by a bevy of contributors the well written entries maintain a consistent tone and quality and strike a good balance between biographical information and interpretations of the work of art itself While the Gecht collection is certainly quite a boon for the institute it is not comprehensive enough in itself to make the catalog essential for all art libraries It does however belong on library shelves with strong modern art and graphics collections Kraig A Binkowski Delaware Art Museum Wilmington 135 colour illustrations

Museum Mediations Barbara K. Fisher, 2006-01-24 This interdisciplinary study participates in the ongoing critical conversation about postwar American poetry and visual culture while advancing that field into the arena of the museum Turning to contemporary poems about the visual arts that foreground and interrogate a museum setting the book demonstrates the particular importance of the museum as a cultural site that is both inspiration and provocation for poets The study uniquely bridges the dual canon in contemporary poetry and calls the lyric avant garde distinction into question by analyzing museum sponsored anthologies as well as poems by John Ashbery Richard Howard Kenneth Koch Kathleen Fraser Cole Swensen Anne Carson and others Through these case studies of poets with diverse affiliations the author shows that the boom in ekphrasis in the past 20 years is not only an aesthetic but a critical phenomenon a way that poets have come to terms with the critical dilemmas of our moment Highlighting the importance of poets peripheral vision awareness of the institutional conditions that frame encounters with art the author contend that a museum visit becomes a forum for questioning oppositions that have preoccupied literary criticism for the past 50 years homage and innovation modernism and postmodernism subjectivity and collectivity The study shows that ekphrasis becomes a strategy for negotiating these impasses a mode of political inquiry a meditation on canonization a venue
