Maharashtra Society And Culture:

Maharashtra A. Rā Kulakārṇī, 2008 A collection of research articles presented in seminars conferences and journals in the last few years Caste, Conflict and Ideology Rosalind O'Hanlon, 2002-08-22 The nineteenth century saw the beginning of a violent and controversial movement of protest amongst western India's low and untouchable castes aimed at the effects of their lowly position within the Hindu caste hierarchy This study concentrates on the first leader of this movement Mahatma Jotirao Phule Spaces and Places in Western India Bina Sengar, Laurie Hovell McMillin, 2019-09-05 This book studies places and spaces in Western India both as geographical locations and as imagined constructs It uncovers the rich history of the region from the perspective of places of pilgrimage commerce community expression and indigeneity The volume examines how spaces are intrinsically connected to the lived experiences of people It explores how spaces in Western India have been constructed over time and how these are reflected in both historical and contemporary settings in the art architecture political movements and in identity formation The rich examples explored in this volume include sites of Bhakti and Sufi literature Maharashtrian Sikh identity Mahanubhav pilgrimage monetary practices of the Peshwas and the internet as an emancipatory space for the Dalit youth in Maharashtra The chapters in this book establish and affirm the forever evolving cultural topography of Western India Taking a multidimensional approach this book widens the scope of academic discussions on the theme of space and place It will be useful for scholars and researchers of history cultural studies geography the humanities city studies and sociology Merchant Communities in Asia, 1600-1980 Madeleine Zelin, 2015-10-06 This book is the first to use local primary sources to explore the interaction between foreign and native merchants in Asian countries Contributors discuss the different economic political and cultural conditions that gave rise to a variety of merchant communities in Korea China Japan Taiwan the Philippines Singapore and India Images of Women in Maharashtrian Society Anne Feldhaus, 1998-01-29 This volume a companion to Images of Women in Maharashtrian Literature and Religion SUNY Press 1996 approaches more closely the realities of women's lives Using historical documents from the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries and photographs interviews and conversations from the twentieth the book constructs images of the conditions of women's lives in the modern state and traditional region of Maharashtra over the past three hundred years The authors search for the ideas understandings and judgments that have shaped those conditions for the conscious and unconscious images that have made women's lives what they have been The contributors examine ways femininity and the power status and potential of women have been viewed actual women emphasizing ideas about women Understanding ideas of this kind is a necessary first step toward understanding and perhaps eventually affecting the actualities of women's lives This book is divided into three parts Part I is based on documentary sources from the eighteenth century Part II explores the subjects and terms of the conservatism versus reform debate in Maharashtra and thus complements recent studies on images of women in Bengal and other parts of North India during the colonial period Part III which presents contemporary images of women in Maharashtra includes an examination of village women's work a photo essay an oral life history and a bibliographical essay

History and Collective Memory in South Asia, 1200-2000 Sumit Guha, 2019-11-04 In this far ranging and erudite exploration of the South Asian past Sumit Guha discusses the shaping of social and historical memory in world historical context He presents memory as the result of both remembering and forgetting and of the preservation recovery and decay of records By describing how these processes work through sociopolitical organizations Guha delineates the historiographic legacy acquired by the British in colonial India the creation of the centralized educational system and mass production of textbooks that led to unification of historical discourses under colonial auspices and the divergence of these discourses in the twentieth century under the impact of nationalism and decolonization Guha brings together sources from a range of languages and regions to provide the first intellectual history of the ways in which socially recognized historical memory has been made across the subcontinent This thoughtful study contributes to debates beyond the field of history that complicate the understanding of objectivity and documentation in a seemingly post truth world

The State and Society in Medieval India J. S. Grewal, 2005 This is also a truly pan Indian volume on medieval Indian history as it looks at state forms and social organizations among the Cholas the Delhi Sultans the Sultans of Bengal Himachal Kumaon and Garhwal medieval Rajasthan the Vijayanagar State Kerala the Mughal Empire Marahstra and the Punjab The contributors include eminent medievalist

Medieval Indian Mindscapes Eugenia Vanina, 2012 Medieval Indian Mindscapes Space Time Society Man centres on how Indians in pre colonial times perceived their world It compares the specific features of their mental programmes with that of their counterparts in other pre modern societies While analysing the importance of space in the medieval world view the book discusses how medieval Indians comprehended their territories and the landscape as their own vis a vis the alien space the development of territorial cultural and territorial political identities and knowledge about other lands and peoples In a discussion of medieval temporality the book also studies the ways of perceiving and reckoning time attitudes to the historical past and the manifold ways of recording it A special chapter on Society deals with socio ethical values and behavioural stereotypes of major estate and caste groups like the feudal landlords priests and officials merchants and craftsmen peasants and the lower castes in villages The book also has a chapter on the medieval Indian perception of Man his appearance and peculiarities as they pertained to the a behaviour social status and the steady development of individuality Medieval Indian Mindscapes will be of interest to medievalists as well as general readers keen to know more about the dynamics of pre modern history and culture

Ideals, Images, and Real Lives Alice Thorner, Maithreyi Krishna Raj, 2000 Women studies as a distinct field emerged in India in the mid seventies But preoccupation with the position of women dates back to more than a century and a half By the use of methods of history literary criticism and analysis of discourse this volume seeks not only to illustrate the broadening of the sphere of women studies in India in recent years but also to point to the need for relating ideas about women and gender relations to the social and economic forces that shape history Literary Cultures and Digital Humanities in India
