Mai I Rangiatea Maori Wellbeing And Development:

Mai I Rangiatea Pania Te Whāiti, Marie Barbara McCarthy, Arohia Durie, 1997 Mai i Rangiatea provides some Maori perceptions of healthy growth and development. It introduces a Maori developmental discourse which affirms a cultural base with an affinity to the discourses of other indigenous peoples. Western concepts of human development have oversimplified the process by emphasizing individuality as the core then generalizing to the whole. Maori acknowledgment of the interdependency between the individual and the group gives some basis for alternative discourses. Ngā Kāhui Pou

Launching Māori Futures Mason Durie, 2003 Professor Durie discusses traditions and customs and addresses contemporary needs in order to build development strategies for the launch of the Maori population into the new millennium. This work also suggests models for the development of other indigenous peoples. Comprehensive Handbook of Social Work and Social Welfare, Social Work Practice, 2008-03-31 Comprehensive Handbook of Social Work and Social Welfare Volume 3 The Profession of Social Work features contributions from leading international researchers and practitioners and presents the most comprehensive in depth source of information on the field of social work and social welfare. Social Work Practice with Groups, Communities, and Organizations Charles A. Glisson, Catherine N. Dulmus, Karen M. Sowers, 2012-08-14 A solid theory to practice guide to contemporary mezzo and macro social work. Written by a renowned team of scholars Social Work Practice with Groups Communities and Organizations focuses on the contemporary theory and practice of social work. Each chapter delves deeply into the key theoretical considerations surrounding a particular practice area exploring the clinical implications of each. Spanning the full range of both mezzo and macro practice areas the authors thoroughly look at the assessment of and interventions with group community organizational and institutional settings. The most authoritative book in this field Social Work Practice with Groups Communities and Organizations features A focus on evidence based approaches to assessment and intervention for each practice area discussed. Comprehensive coverage of the most important new and emerging practice technologies in mezzo and macro social work. Current and emerging demographic social political and economic trends affecting mezzo and macro practice. An array of pedagogical aids including Key Terms Review Questions for Critical Thinking and Online Resources. Content closely aligned with social work accreditation standards EPAS. Providing a solid review of the entire scope of contemporary mezzo and macro social work practice. Social Work Practice with Groups Communities and Organizations is both an indispensable educational text for students and a valuable working resource for practitioners who work with groups communities and organizations of all sizes. Teachers' and Families' Perspectives in Early Childhood Education and Care Sivan Phillips, Susanne Garvis, 2019-01-30 The second volume in this Early Childhood Education in the 21st Century International Teaching Family and Policy Perspectives miniseries focuses on teacher and family perspectives of early childhood education and care from 19 different countries around the world. The aim of this volume is to articulate the key components of teacher education and family practices that impact young children's education and care Each country featured in this volume presents its own unique perspective in relation to the cultural and societal constraints around teacher training and or family practices and the thinking around those practices that are important for early childhood development Offering a unique insight into how teachers and families work together in different countries the book is essential reading for early childhood educators researchers early childhood organisations policy makers and those interested to know more about early childhood within an international perspective

Maea te Toi Ora: Māori Health Transformations Te Kani Kingi, Mason Durie, Hinemoa Elder, Rees Tapsell, Mark Lawrence, Simon Bennett, 2018-02-28 Residential Child Care in Practice Mark Smith, Leon Fulcher, Peter Doran, 2013-02-13 Written by experienced practitioners and academics this is a core text about the practice of residential child care It takes as its starting point the fact that residential child care involves workers and children sharing a common lifespace in which the quality of interpersonal relationships is key Each chapter highlights relevant policy guidance and is developed around a practice scenario discussing key knowledge skills and values relating to its theme This highly practical book should therefore be of value to a range of students at different academic levels from VQ to Masters and to practitioners and managers in residential child care The book draws on ideas from child and youth care and social pedagogic traditions and will appeal to a worldwide audience and provides a valuable addition to the emerging literature around social pedagogy

Play and Learning in Early Childhood Settings Ingrid Pramling Samuelsson, Marilyn Fleer, 2008-11-14 This book represents the outcome of the joint activities of a group of scholars who were concerned about the lack of international research in play for children from birth to 3 years The authors are members of the Organisation Mondiale pour l Education Prescolaire OMEP For further information see <http://www.om-ong.net> The idea of carrying out a research project internationally was born at the OMEP s World Congress in Melbourne Australia 2004 All member countries were invited and 10 countries decided to participate of which three have withdrawn during the process The reason for this might be that in these countries only one person was working with the project while other seven countries have been working in a team of two or more persons The countries that have carried out research and contributed to this book with a chapter each are Australia Chile China Japan New Zealand Sweden and USA Wisconsin For more information about the participating countries and their corresponding addresses see Appendix I This book project started in Melbourne with a discussion about what is general in early childhood education globally and what is culturally specific The discussion was inspired by one of the keynote speakers Nazhat Shameem 2004 judge in the supreme court in Fiji when she said If we all think we are so different and specific in each culture the role of human rights has no value anymore We formulated three questions

Intersecting Cultures in Music and Dance Education Linda Ashley, David Lines, 2016-05-25 This volume looks forward and re examines present day education and pedagogical practices in music and dance in the diverse cultural environments found in Oceania The book also identifies a key issue of how teachers face the prospect of taking a reflexive view of their own cultural legacy in music and dance education as they work from and alongside different cultural worldviews This key issue amongst other debates that arise positions Intersecting Cultures as an innovative text that fills a gap in the current market with highly appropriate and fresh ideas from primary sources The book offers commentaries that underpin and inform current pedagogy and bigger picture policy for the performing arts in education in Oceania and in parallel ways in other countries Culture Counts Russell Bishop, Ted Glynn, 2003 This is a study of the experience of Maori people in the school system and the pedagogical response It presents a model for addressing cultural diversity in the classroom which is based on a traditionalist Maori response to the dominant discourse within New Zealand

Rethinking Residential Child Care Mark Smith, 2009-02-25 The book provides a broad and critical look at policy and practice in residential child care and the ideas that have shaped the development of the sector

The Search for Environmental Justice Paul Martin, Sadeq Z. Bigdeli, Trevor Daya-Winterbottom, Willemien du Plessis, Amanda Kennedy, 2015-07-31 This thoughtful book provides an overview of the major developments in the theory and practice of environmental justice It illustrates the direction of the evolution of rights of nature and exposes the diverse meanings and practical uses of the concept

The Cost of Globalization Julian E. Kunnie, 2015-03-27 The issues arising from rapid global integration have generally been treated in isolation by most academic works This volume examines the many pitfalls of globalization from the perspective of impoverished and indigenous peoples including the widening wealth gap the struggle for restoration of dispossessed lands and cultural rights global warming and ecological annihilation and the experiences of women in underdeveloped regions The United States growing prison industrial complex is discussed The author concludes with a call for reassessing current ways of living and proposes recreating cultures of conservation and sustainable economies Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here

New Theories for Social Work Practice Kieran O'Donoghue, Robyn Munford, 2019-07-18 Social work theory and practice is evolving and this edited collection explains both what the latest developments are and how to use them in practice Exploring the challenges currently being faced within social work it shows new ways social workers can conceptualise and respond to these issues It covers emerging theory relating to work with families children and young people refugees older people indigenous practice and more while explaining different models that can be used It explores interventions in different contexts including community development mental health settings partnerships with disabled people work with Pacific communities cross cultural practice and the elements of evidence informed and ethical practice

Indigenous Statistics Chris Andersen, Maggie Walter, Tahu Kukutai, Chelsea Gabel, 2025-02-27 This second edition of the groundbreaking Indigenous Statistics opens up a major new approach to research across the disciplines and applied fields While qualitative methods have been rigorously critiqued and reformulated the population statistics relied on by virtually all research on Indigenous Peoples continue to be taken for granted as straightforward transparent numbers Drawing on a diverse new author team this book dismantles that persistent positivism with a forceful critique then fills the void with a new paradigm for Indigenous quantitative methods using concrete examples of research projects from first world Indigenous Peoples in the United States

Australia Aotearoa New Zealand and Canada Concise and accessible it is an ideal supplementary text as well as a core component of the methodological toolkit for anyone conducting Indigenous research or using Indigenous population statistics This is an essential text for students studying quantitative methods statistics and research methods The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivative Licence CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

Pacific Youth Helen Lee, 2019-10-31 Pacific populations are becoming younger and this youth bulge is often perceived as a dangerous precursor to civil unrest Yet young people are also a valuable resource holding exciting potential for the future of island nations Addressing these conflicting views of youth this volume presents ethnographic case studies of young people from across the Pacific and the diaspora Moving beyond the typical focus on youth problems in reports by Pacific governments and development agencies the authors examine the highly diverse lives and perspectives of young people in urban and rural locations They celebrate the contributions of youth to their communities while examining the challenges they face The case studies explore the impacts of profound local and global changes and cover a wide sweep of youth experiences across themes of education employment and economic inequalities political and civil engagement and migration and the diaspora Contributors to this volume bring many decades of experience of research with Pacific people as well as fresh perspectives from early career and graduate researchers Most are anthropologists and their chapters contribute to the interdisciplinary fields of youth studies and Pacific studies offering thought provoking insights into the possibilities for Pacific youth as they face uncertain futures

Imagining Ageing Carmen Concilio, 2018-10-04 What do literary texts tell us about growing old The essays in this volume introduce and explore representations of ageing and old age in canonical works of English and postcolonial literature The contributors examine texts by William Shakespeare Daniel Defoe Julian Barnes Thomas Kinsella Seamus Heaney J M Coetzee Alice Munro Witi Ihimaera and Patricia Grace and together with a medical study they suggest solutions to the challenges arising from the current demographic change brought about by ageing Western populations

Learning Together in the Early Years Theodora Papatheodorou, JANET R Moyles, 2008-07-09 Relational pedagogy underpins the core principles of both the cognitive and social emotional development of young children as evidenced in the Reggio Emilia preschools and the Te Whariki curriculum in New Zealand Emphasising the links between people places and ideas and the effects of these on education educators and learners it is integral to the English Early Years Foundation Stage and forms the basis for early years provision around the world This book brings together contributions from international experts on early years education to explore and debate relational pedagogy across different countries and in the context of a broad international field The three sections of the book cover the following areas culture environment and adult child relationships how children and adults relate to the culture ethos and environment in which they function adult child relationships how education and care environments directly relate to learning and teaching adult adult relationships for professional development in training situations and parental partnerships The book will be of interest to all those who want to delve deeper into how these interactions affect teaching and learning and to understand how the context can have its own impact on pedagogical outcomes Researchers in early years education and students on early childhood education courses will find much here to inspire and challenge their thinking
