Robinson,2016-10-10 Excerpt from The Maid of Mirabelle A Romance of Lorraine I see the dawn through drowsy eyes which close only to start Open again as the restored silence is once more pierced by another clarion call Now a bugle before the barrack just over the way is singing in silver tones the staccato notes Of the reveille Poilu get up poilu get up poilu get up it s morning it seems to say The command is not addressed to me and I lazily turn over under the uffy feather counterpane that covers me like heaped up snow on a grave the high head and foot stones Of which are hand carved black walnut beautiful with age I strive to shut out the sounds Of stirring life by burying both ears simultaneously in the pillow and fail For now from the near by convent whose square tower and squat steeple rises above the village like a guardian sentinel the morning Angelus begins it ringing welcome to the new born day Clang Clang Clang The bells in turn sound out the tonal trinity the last sonorously deep of voice speaking in slow measured notes as though it scorned to be hurried at its time of life N OW all three join in the glad matutinal chorus About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Maid of Mirabelle Eliot H 1884- Robinson,2016-05-11 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant MAID OF MIRABELLE Eliot H.
