Research Handbook on Program Evaluation Kathryn E. Newcomer, Steven W. Mumford, 2024-06-05 In the Research Handbook on Program Evaluation an impressive range of authors take stock of the history and current standing of key issues and debates in the evaluation field Examining current literature of program evaluation the Research Handbook assesses the field's status in a post pandemic and social justice oriented world examining today's theoretical and practical concerns and proposing how they might be resolved by future innovations This title contains one or more Open Access chapters

Recognizing Connectedness Rajib Nandi, Ratna M. Sudarshan, 2021-09-17 The concept of programme evaluation now more than half a century old refers to the practice of professional assessment of a programme that is informed by evidence and guided by evaluative thinking to arrive at a judgement about value merit worth significance and utility Good programme evaluations in general adopt an inclusive development approach rather than a transformative approach Feminist evaluations by contrast identify a wide range of stakeholders and engage the larger community in order to identify and encourage the programme to challenge social norms that perpetuate inequalities between men and women and other genders The essays in this volume in different ways suggest that gender transformative change cannot happen through the actions or exercise of agency by one group alone whether it is girls or boys or women Instead the authors draw out the importance of connectedness between groups of people and between individual agents and the larger structures within which they are located In doing so they apply a feminist lens to a range of programme evaluations and policies at both the national level and at the level of specific states Uttarakhand Delhi Bihar Haryana Rajasthan and Tamil Nadu
