Maison Suspendue:

Designing the French Interior Anca I. Lasc, Georgina Downey, Mark Taylor, 2015-10-22 Designing the French Interior traces France's central role in the development of the modern domestic interior from the pre-revolutionary period to the 1970s and addresses the importance of various media including drawings, prints, pattern books, illustrated magazines, department store catalogs, photographs, guidebooks, and films in representing and promoting French interior design to a wider audience. Contributors to this original volume identify and historicize the singularity of the modern French domestic interior as a generator of reproducible images, a site for display of both highly crafted and mass-produced objects, and the direct result of widely circulated imagery in its own right. This important volume enables an invaluable new understanding of the relationship between architecture, interior spaces, material cultures, mass media, and modernity. Le Monde de Michel Tremblay André Brochu, 1993 Vingt-cinq collaborateurs G. David, S. L. Pine, L. Mailhot, P. Popovic, etc. Etudes de pi ces tudes du cycle romanesque essais biobibliographie p 447-448 Selon l'éditeur il s'agit de la première exploration en profondeur de l'écriture du prolifiquecrivain montr'alais Une cinquantaine d'illustrations Recommandé SDM Your Private Sky Richard Buckminster Fuller, 2001 This title which complements the volume Your Private Sky: The Art of Design Science (see page 44) gives an authentic insight into the development of Fuller's architectonic, technical, anthropological concepts. Fuller was the epitome of the poet as engineer, the thinker as designer, the artist as researcher. He left behind a voluminous quantity of writing, including texts of visionary importance, penetrating linguistic force, as well as of urgent topicality. The book documents various aspects of Fuller's widely respected texts. These testaments were intended to be shared with the whole world, or as Fuller coined it in 1950 with Spaceship Earth 3-7643-6072-0 La maison suspendue Paul Nelson, 1939 The Modern Steel House Neil Jackson, 2016-03-23 This book provides a comprehensive survey of Modern Movement houses constructed with steel frames. Arranged chronologically and thematically, it traces the development over the last seventy years of steel houses in Europe, Australia, and the United States, with special reference to London, Paris, Sydney, and Los Angeles, and to the work elsewhere of Mies van der Rohe, Philip Johnson, and Jean Prouvé. Examples of steel houses from around the world demonstrate that steel structures can provide a better quality of life within a cleaner, lighter home environment. Buried Astrolabe Craig Stewart Walker, 2001 Over the last two decades, Canadian drama has emerged as an important presence in international theatre. In The Buried Astrolabe, Craig Walker offers a critical introduction to contemporary Canadian playwriting, providing a context for the study of Canadian drama and showing how it developed from Western European philosophical, literary, and dramatic traditions. Outside Belongings Elspeth Probyn, 2015-12-22 Outside Belongings argues against a psychological depth model of identity, one in which individuals possess an intrinsic quality that guarantees authentic belonging. Instead, Probyn proposes a model of identity that takes into account the desires of individuals and groups of individuals to belong. The main ideas she considers: the outside, the surface, and belonging, allow her to articulate in concrete terms her precise concerns about sexuality and nationality Translators Through History Jean Delisle, Judith Woodsworth, 1995 Translators have invented alphabets helped build languages and written dictionaries They have contributed to the emergence of national literatures the dissemination of knowledge and the spread of religions Importers of foreign cultural values and key players at some of the great moments of history translators and interpreters have played a determining role in the development of their societies and have been fundamental to the unfolding of intellectual history itself Published under the auspices of the International Federation of Translators FIT Translators through History is organized around nine themes that illustrate the main areas in which translators have distinguished themselves through the ages Nearly fifty scholars from twenty different countries have helped to compile this survey which takes the reader through Europe the Americas and into Africa India and China Space and the Architect Herman Hertzberger, 2010 The work of Herman Hertzberger is the subject of wide international esteem 1991 first saw publication of Hertzberger's Lessons for Students in Architecture an elaborated version of lectures he had given since 1973 at Delft University of Technology This immensely successful book has gone through many reprints and has also been published in Japanese German Italian Portuguese Taiwanese Dutch Greek Polish Iranian Korean and Chinese Space and the Architect is the second book written by Hertzberger It charts the backgrounds to his work of recent years and the ideas informing it drawing on a wide spectrum of subjects and designs by artists precursors past masters and colleagues though with his own work persistently present as a reference Space is its principal theme physical space but also the mental or intellectual regions the architect calls upon during the process of designing Once again Hertzberger's broad practical experience his ideas and his seemingly inexhaustible library of images are a major source of inspiration for anyone whose concern is the design of space language variety as a trigger for their reactions Theatre is the most public of arts closely interwoven with contemporary society and language is a crucial tool for establishing order In this book Aaltonen explores the ways in which chosen languages on stage can lead to rejection or tolerance in diglossic situations where one language is considered unequal to another Through a selection of carefully chosen case studies the socio political rather than artistic motivation behind code choice emerges By identifying common features of these contexts and the implications of theatre in the wider world this book sheds light on high versus low culture the role of translation and the significance of traditional and emerging theatrical conventions This intriguing study encompassing Ireland Scotland Quebec Finland and Egypt cleverly employs the perspective of familiarising the foreign and is invaluable reading for those interested in theatre and performance translation and the connection between language and society
