Prohibition the recovery of the record has been the goal of many investigators over the years and the results are here brought together for the first time In print in its entirety for the first time A History of Wine in America is the most comprehensive account of winemaking in the United States from the Norse discovery of native grapes in 1001 A D through Prohibition and up to the present expansion of winemaking in every state A History of Wine in America, Volume 2 Thomas Pinney,2005-07-05 A History of Wine in America is the definitive account of winemaking in the United States first as it was carried out under Prohibition and then as it developed and spread to all fifty states after the repeal of Prohibition Engagingly written exhaustively researched and rich in detail this book describes how Prohibition devastated the wine industry the conditions of renewal after Repeal the various New Deal measures that affected wine and the early markets and methods Thomas Pinney goes on to examine the effects of World War II and how the troubled postwar years led to the great wine boom of the late 1960s the spread of winegrowing to almost every state and its continued expansion to the present day The history of wine in America is in many ways the history of America and of American enterprise in microcosm Pinney s sweeping narrative comprises a lively cast of characters that includes politicians bootleggers entrepreneurs growers scientists and visionaries Pinney relates the development of winemaking in states such as New York and Ohio its extension to Pennsylvania Virginia Texas and other states and its notable successes in California Washington and Oregon He is the first to tell the complete and connected story of the rebirth of the wine industry in California now one of the most successful winemaking regions in the world A History of Wine in America from the Beginnings to Prohibition Thomas Pinney,1989-01-01 Tells the story of vitaculture and winemaking in America and discusses the individuals organizations and institutions associated with the enterprise Parker's Wine Buyer's Guide Robert M. the mid to late nineteenth century In A Toast to Eclipse Brian McGinty offers a definitive history of the wine exploring California's winemaking past and two of the people who put the state's varietal wines on the map Arpad and his father Agoston Haraszthy the legendary father of California viticulture Inspired by his father's dream of making California one of the world's great viticultural regions Arpad Haraszthy 1840 1900 pursued that goal at a time when the best grapes for making California wine had yet to be discovered when the best locations for vineyards had not yet been established and when the public could hardly believe that good wine could be made in a country overrun with gold miners and desperados As a young man Arpad spent two years in the Champagne country of northeastern France studying the classic methods of French sparkling wine manufacture before bringing his knowledge home to California As McGinty shows the story of the award winning wine Haraszthy created is also the story of San Francisco during its heyday as the largest most dynamic city in the American West McGinty reveals new information about California varietals and winemaking districts and probes the controversy about whether Agoston Haraszthy introduced the Zinfandel grape to the Golden State Aficionados of wine and of California history will find this narrative insightful and refreshing and all readers will gain an appreciation for Arpad Haraszthy Eclipse and the delicate process of making a wine sparkle
