Biliteracy and Multiliteracies Fotini Anastassiou, 2021-05-07 This volume introduces the reader to ongoing research on the study of biliteracy and highlights recent trends in the promotion of biliteracy and multiliteracies in education Literacy issues have come under the microscope of researchers in recent decades The very concept of literacy includes skills such as understanding interpreting and managing different text types in different sociocultural environments Therefore the pioneers in the study of literacy characterize it as one multidimensional concept with social and cultural components or go even further by talking about pluriliteracies multiliteracies which emerge through the complex linguistic and value practices adopted by speakers of multilingual societies in the 21st century The contributions gathered here will give the reader a general idea of where research is heading in the areas of biliteracy and multiliteracies especially in view of multilingualism and its ever changing conditions The authors situate their research within current debates in terms of theory and empirical data In this volume the reader will find several chapters discussing issues of biliteracy and multiliteracies in a wide variety of settings countries and orientations including Brazil Cyprus Greece Iceland Malta Portugal and the USA

Global Variation in Literacy Development Ludo Verhoeven, Sonali Nag, Charles Perfetti, Kenneth Pugh, 2023-12-07 Through a range of multi disciplinary case studies this book provides a framework for variation in literacy development around the globe

Crosslinguistic Influence and Crosslinguistic Interaction in Multilingual Language Learning Gessica De Angelis, Ulrike Jessner, Marijana Kresic, 2015-11-05 Which strategies do multilingual learners use when confronted with languages they don't yet know Which factors are involved in activating prior linguistic knowledge in multilingual learning This volume offers valuable insights into recent research in multilingualism crosslinguistic influence and crosslinguistic interaction Experts in the field examine the role of background languages in multilingual learning All the chapters point to the heart of the question of what the multilingual mind is Does learning one language actually help you learn another and if so why This volume looks at languages and scenarios beyond English as a second language Italian Gaelic Dutch and German amongst others are covered as well as instances of third and additional language learning Research into crosslinguistic influence and crosslinguistic interaction essentially contributes to our understanding of how language learning works when there are three or more languages in contact Literacy Teacher Educators Clare Kosnik, Jennifer Rowsell, Peter Williamson, Rob Simon, 2013-04-19 Literacy Teacher Educators Preparing Teachers for a Changing World brings together the perspectives of 26 literacy English teacher educators from four countries Canada U S UK and Australia In this unique text the contributors of whom many are renowned experts in critical literacy and multiliteracies provide readers with an overview of trends in literacy English teacher education The chapters begin with authors personal stories and current research giving readers insight into the personal and professional worlds of the contributors Included in each chapter is a rich description of approaches to literacy instruction in teacher education These exemplary teacher educators show in concrete detail how they are addressing our evolving understanding of literacy This timely text written in a highly engaging style will be of value to teacher educators throughout the world I have never read anything quite like this book It contains explicit representations of the conceptual frames and work of distinguished literacy teacher educators at various stages in their careers accounts that provide a strong counter narrative to the mainstream discourse in policy and education that fully embrace the uncertainties and complexities of practice From the Forward by Susan L Lytle Professor Emerita of Education in the Graduate School of Education University of Pennsylvania Designing Critical Literacy Education through Critical Discourse Analysis Rebecca Rogers, Melissa Mosley Wetzel, 2013-06-26 Uniquely bringing together discourse analysis critical literacy and teacher research this book invites teacher educators literacy researchers and discourse analysts to consider how discourse analysis can be used to foster critical literacy education It is both a guide for conducting critical discourse analysis and a look at how the authors alongside their teacher education students used the tools of discourse analysis to inquire into critique and design critical literacy practices Through an intimate look at the workings of a university teacher education course and the discourse analysis tools that teacher researchers use to understand their classrooms the book provides examples of both pre service teachers and teacher educators becoming critically literate The context rich examples highlight the ways in which discourse analysis aids teachers decision making in the moment and reflections on their practice over time Readers learn to conduct discourse analysis as they read about critical literacy practices at the university level Designed to be interactive each chapter features step by step procedures for conducting each kind of discourse analysis narrative critically oriented multimodal sample analyses and additional readings and resources By attending to the micro interactions as well as processes that unfold across time the book illustrates the power and potential of discourse analysis as a pedagogical and research tool Preschool Bilingual Education Mila Schwartz, 2018-05-23 This volume provides an up to date collection of key aspects related to current preschool bilingual education research from a socio linguistic perspective The focus is on preschool bilingual education in multilingual Europe which is characterized by diverse language models and children s linguistic backgrounds The book explores the contemporary perspectives on early bilingual education in light of the threefold theoretical framework of child s teachers and parents agencies in interaction in preschool bilingual education Five significant theoretical concepts are promoted in this volume the ecology of language learning an educational partnership for bilingualism a notion of agency in early language development and education language conducive contexts and language conducive strategies The volume examines preschool bilingual education as embedded in specific socio cultural contexts on the one hand and highlights its universal features on the other The book is a fundamental read for scholars and students of second language teaching preschool education and bilingual education in multilingual and multicultural societies

Early Biliteracy Development Eurydice B. Bauer, Mileidis Gort, 2012-05-22

A large and growing number of students from culturally and linguistically diverse backgrounds in the US and around the world have the potential to develop bilingualism and biliteracy if supported in their immediate environment At the forefront in focusing exclusively on biliteracy development in early childhood across a variety of languages this book provides both findings from empirical research with young bilinguals in home and school contexts and practical applications of these findings Each chapter is structured in a similar format to offer parallel descriptions of the research including a brief review of related empirical studies an overview of the methods for data collection and analysis a description of the main findings and specific pedagogical implications to support educators efforts to construct meaningful challenging and dynamic literacy and language learning communities where one or more languages are used for communicating and learning Pushing the field forward this book is a valuable resource for helping literacy educators understand and respond to critical issues related to the development of young children s literate competencies in two languages in home and school contexts

Critical Issues in Early Literacy Yetta Goodman, Prisca Martens, 2020-07-24 This volume adds in important ways to understanding the power and complexity of the forces in the lives of children that impact their literacy learning The critical issues presented emerge from interpretivist research and thinking practices that are constructivist in nature The chapters by researchers teacher researchers teacher educators and teachers are antidotes to the present political context in which political agendas are being used to define literacy literacy teaching and learning and literacy research in narrow ways Providing a rich source of information about how young children come to know reading and writing as a tool of communication in a range of social and cultural contexts this book presents current research and thinking in the field documents research that is currently being ignored by many who make decisions about children s learning values who children are and what they bring with them to school provides a useful tool for advocacy and for social action toward improving education in ways that can make a difference in the lives of young children and raises thoughtful issues for discussion Critical Issues in Early Literacy is essential reading for early childhood teachers and prospective teachers for teacher educators for literacy researchers including teacher researchers for special educators for those working with English language and foreign language learners and for early childhood education administrators advocates and policy makers

Family Language Learning Christine Jernigan, 2015-01-19 Family Language Learning is a practical guide designed to support advise and encourage any parents who are hoping to raise their children bilingually It is unique in that it focuses on parents who are not native speakers of a foreign language It gives parents the tools they need to cultivate and nurture their own language skills while giving their children an opportunity to learn another language The book combines cutting edge research on language exposure with honest and often humorous stories from personal interviews with families speaking a foreign language at home By dispelling long held myths about how language is learned it provides hope to parents who want to give their children bilingual childhoods but feel they don't know where to start with learning a foreign language Noa's Ark David Schwarzer,2001 David Schwarzer reveals that under the right conditions multiliteracy can be developed easily and provides some of the tools and strategies to enable monolingual teachers to do so Research as a Tool for Empowerment David Schwarzer,Melanie Bloom,Sarah Shono,2006-03-01 Research as a Tool for Empowerment Theory Informing Practice is an edited volume that includes an array of research based chapters that not only further the field of second foreign language research but also provide practical implications to language classrooms in international and national settings Chapters in this volume present a bridge between methodologically sound second foreign language research and strong pedagogical implications This volume includes the voices of researchers graduate students teachers parents and learners exploring the second foreign language phenomena The multiple voices of the contributing authors reflect the diverse readership of the Research in Second Language Learning series Unlike previous anthologies in second foreign language research this volume presents studies from various research paradigms Chapters include examples of various research methods from both quantitative and qualitative paradigms Few previous anthologies have presented research based in multiple paradigms and from multiple perspectives Research as a Tool for Empowerment Theory Informing Practice not only presents these various perspectives but it also makes the link from research to classroom implications and applications The volume is unique as it makes a connection between different types of research and research methods and empowerment and issues of empowerment Multicultural Education ,2001 Research Informing Practice - Practice Informing Research David Schwarzer,Mary Petrón,Christopher Luke,2011-04-01 Research Informing Practice Practice Informing Research Innovative Teaching Methodologies for World Language Educators is an edited volume that focuses on innovative nontraditional methods of teaching and learning world languages Using teacher research projects each author in the volume guides readers through their own personal journey and exploration of teaching methods novelty risk taking and reflection Chapters include guiding questions vignettes and thick descriptions of classroom based research in an assortment of instructional settings Theoretical issues and an array of practical applications are presented as well as additional research opportunities and guidelines for implementation in a variety of teaching and learning venues While not professing to be a panacea for world language learning this book provides various lines of theory research and practice as they interact with each other through teacher research narratives As a well known African proverb asserts It takes a village to raise a child Similarly it takes a village to develop a master teacher and it takes a community to create an exceptional classroom Throughout this volume authors share their voices experiences and expertise as a means of strengthening the village They then invite readers to embark on their own methodological journeys The text thus serves as a stimulus for further discussion and pedagogical development in world language settings Teachers and researchers are challenged to think critically and reflectively about world language education encouraged to design innovative methods approaches and techniques for their world language classes and ultimately asked to share their findings with students parents peers communities and the village

Multicultural Education, the Internet, and the New Media Robert Muffoletto, Julie Horton, 2007 As we enter the 21st century education that is multi cultural becomes increasingly critical in the development of democratic citizens in a global society With the development of broadband and digital technologies schools teachers and families are now able to engage students in ways of knowing the world that simply were not possible before Hence the book addresses concerns and issues related to the intersection of computer technologies and the Internet within the framework of multicultural education

Immigration, Diversity, and Education Elena L. Grigorenko, Ruby Takanishi, 2009-09-10 This edited volume presents an overview of research and policy issues pertaining to children from birth to 10 who are first and second generation immigrants to the U S as well as native born children of immigrants The contributors offer interdisciplinary perspectives on recent developments and research findings on children of immigrants By accessibly presenting research findings and policy considerations in the field this collection lays the foundation for changes in child and youth policies associated with the shifting ethnic cultural and linguistic profile of the U S population

Resources in Education , 2001-10 Valuing Language Study Yetta M. Goodman, 2003 Argues for a focus on language study in elementary and middle school classrooms Presents a study of language as a whole not as isolated decontextualized bits of teaching on grammar vocabulary and sounds and advocates helping children gain greater proficiency with language by having them engage in varied activities and explorations
