and her relationship with her distinguished psychoanalyst parents through a series of jewel like vignettes She explores her past through her questions about life and the lessons her parents taught her about the existence of God how to cut a napoleon and build a fire and the hazards of self deception Into this tapestry of memory Wheelis also a psychoanalyst weaves profound reflections from adulthood Wrestling with the loss of her parents the author faces the questions of what matters and what remains of their lives She reckons with their histories and legacies tracing the heritage of love and conflict through the generations As she revisits the rooms and landscapes of her past her prose takes on the poetic logic of memory itself
