Nobody Said Anything And Other Stories:

Behold Faith and Other Stories Tom Noyes,2002-12-02 In sometimes humorous and sometimes tragic even violent contexts the characters in these stories struggle to fathom the complexities and circumstances of their lives Here are ordinary people trying to come to grips with the implications of where they ve been and preparing themselves for where they re headed All these stories seek to interrogate and render in genuine and unflinching ways the nature of doubt delusion and surprisingly the potentially rescuing powers of faith and grace They are above all honest and compassionate stories Here is a writer you can trust here are people you have known Behold Faith Grace and Other Stories Bongani

Sibanda,2016-11-02 This collection of short stories explores the survival of the fittest in the hardship and poverty of a remote village in Matabeleland Bongani Sibanda draws his characters and their situations with a sardonic eye and caustic humour Sibanda satirises churches which enrich their leaders with the tithes of the poor and draws our attention to self proclaimed pastors who use the gospel of nationalism and patriotism to persuade their congregants to desist from supporting opposition politics The church is also a source of the villagers weekly entertainment with its cleansing ceremonies and the interrogation of witches belief has a place but so too does theatre Patriarchy family hierarchies and the traditional position of women and children all fall under Sibandas wry but compassionate scrutiny We feel an intimacy with the villagers as we learn about how they cope with no self pity little ambition but a fierce determination to survive Technique and Sensibility in the
