

NOBODY

Nobody loves me,
Nobody cares,
Nobody picks me peaches and pears.
Nobody offers me candy and Cokes,
Nobody listens and laughs at my jokes.
Nobody helps when I get in a fight,
Nobody does all my homework at night.
Nobody misses me,
Nobody cries,
Nobody thinks I'm a wonderful guy.
So if you ask me who's my best friend, in a whiz,
I'll stand up and tell you that Nobody is.
But yesterday night I got quite a scare,
I woke up and Nobody just wasn't there.
I called out and reached out for Nobody's hand,
In the darkness where Nobody usually stands.
Then I poked through the house, in each cranny and nook,
But I found somebody each place that I looked.
I searched till I'm tired, and now with the dawn,
There's no doubt about it—
Nobody's gone!

Nobody Stop by to See James Janda, 1977      Poetry in Motion Keecia Crystal Wilkes, 2018-12 As an author I am promoting poetry love peace hope justice faith compassion respect perfection it is to build to bring some kind of enjoyment into every sector of everyone's lives This society needs a positive agenda in this day of change God wants his people to have abundance in their lives to have peace not a spirit of fear to be without a non violent environment without force cruelty or hate God is a spirit God changed my life I just want to encourage you so you don't miss the light      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1979      English poetry for schools, selected and arranged by G. Cookson George Cookson, 1899      The 'Globe' poetry books Globe poetry books, 1901      The Complete Poetry of Robert Herrick Tom Cain, Ruth Connolly, 2013-11-01 This is the first edition for fifty years of one of the greatest of English lyric poets Volume I concentrates on Herrick's large printed collection Hesperides published in 1648 and the product of nearly four decades of writing The text is based on a collation of all fifty seven known surviving copies of Hesperides In addition it includes a much needed new biography covering the suicide of his father his apprenticeship as a goldsmith banker and his subsequent career in Cambridge London and Devon It provides a survey of Herrick's fluctuating critical reputation from the first in rank and station of English song writers to trivially charming and a detailed reconstruction of the original printing and publishing just after the first Civil War of a book which was the first Complete Works to be published by an English poet There is also a newly ordered sequence of Herrick's letters from Cambridge his only surviving prose An extensive commentary on Hesperides is placed in Volume II so that readers can use it side by side with the poems if they wish The commentary gives new translations of Herrick's hundreds of classical allusions and quotes his equally numerous Biblical ones both of them far more extensive and frequently far more playful than has hitherto been realised It also notes many parallels between Herrick's work and that of contemporaries especially Jonson Shakespeare Burton and John Fletcher and his habit of echoing or quoting himself a tendency which reinforces the strong sense of Herrick's persona dominating the collection Full explanations are given of contemporary personal political and cultural references      Conscious Poetry " My Spoken Words" PAMELA DIAMOND BLACK. Nobody's Rag Doll Kate Swift, 2011-06-01 Description This book takes you into the centre of my childhood and shows you how everything is not always what it seems To the outside world we were a normal family and that is just how my mother liked it to appear But behind the closed front door was drinking abuse addiction violence and for a time a man who posed as a family friend in order to gain access to the boys I take you from my childhood through my teens and on the very rocky journey of my healing from the past I share with you my innermost thoughts during some of the most difficult times of my life so far This book gives you an insight into a victim of child abuse working her way through to becoming a survivor Along the journey I too fell into relationships where domestic violence was common place and I share with you my experiences and what made me finally walk away This book is about survival it is about how you can go to rock bottom and come back up again How you can feel that your life is finished and then find a whole new purpose and energy for living In my previous book This Tangled Web I shared my poetry written in the years after my abuse here we have the untangling of that web and the story behind the poetry About the Author Kate Swift was born into a family of 5 other siblings in the spring of 1977 Kate's early years were not a great introduction into family life and the world around her. Her father worked hard and drank even harder coming home to sleep off the alcohol. For Kate as a child of 3 4 5 he was a loud and scary person who ranted and raved. Kate found solace by hiding under the table until the shouting was done. Kate was a mummy's girl she adored and idolised her mother. Whilst her father was someone she felt never particularly wanted her. Kate enjoyed school and thrived on the love of her mother. Life was never quiet with 5 other siblings around and the ups and downs of every day living. When Kate was in her 8th Year she was just like any other child enjoying school playing with her dolls drawing pictures making mud pies just being a child until the day her life would change forever. The day her older brother placed his hand somewhere she had never been touched before. It was the school summer holidays a bright sunny day and they were watching cartoons on television. That was the beginning of the end of her childhood and what followed was a further 8 years of being sexually abused. Kate would be woken up in the middle of the night by him climbing into her bed. In her sleepy state she would be told what was expected of her not always with words in fact often with silent physical prompting. Always when he got what he wanted from her he would turn and walk away never looking back or speaking. Kate was left with her soft toys for comfort. It won't surprise you to know she suffered nightmares and was so afraid of the dark. Night times held a ritual for Kate before she would go upstairs to bed she would send her dad up. What did she want him to check for I guess her parents thought they were checking for monsters under the bed. Her curtains had to be shut tight no gaps the light had to be on the windows locked. Kate was trying to feel safe in a world where the danger was inside the house and silent. The sexual abuse was everything from touching to rape. Kate never knew when next he would come to abuse her. She would listen out for the floor board that creaked in a certain spot on the landing. No time of the day or night was off bounds to him depending on the availability of his victim and the right opportunity. Life continued as normally as was possible for Kate in between these times. Looking back there were signs that adults could have picked up on but for whatever reasons missed. When Kate was 15 years old the ordered chaos in her mind descended into complete terror and panic. Here she was a student at senior school who thought she was expecting her brother's baby. The torment was too much and

As a child I could not understand why the children got punished because their parents were going through hard times. It was the child that got the blame for the wrongs of the adult. The child was put into homes that needed workers to help on the farms and they were placed there by the Children's Aid. The family was split up so there was no one to play with and in the end the games were played in the one's own mind. My poem I Walk Alone reflects on my pains as a child experiencing difficult times in foster homes and being separated from my family. When I grew older to confirm to myself that I had become a man and that I could live on my own I joined the Canadian Armed Forces. I suppose at the same time I was looking for friendship. But to tell you the truth I have never been able to experience a lifetime friendship. I have kept in touch with one army friend but you could not call it close friends as he did not extend the same willingness to carry on our friendship This isolation shows up in many of my poems such as To Walk in Memories The abuse caused by the welfare is one of my most heart felt poems as when I retired The hard time they gave me in trying to get financial assistance for me and my grandchild was a paltry 116 month This financial difficulty cumulated with the frustration of not been able to work for a living gave me the anger inside that inspired me to write poetry for this book I am not a story writer I did it in poetry because it seems easier for me to express my thoughts in short writings There are several poems that relate to the challenges I faced with welfare Welfare Pay Day is one such poem Religion is another hard subject for me as it creates a lot of contradictions both in reading it and listening to someone preaching it Blame It on My Brother and What is Sin are two poems that express my thoughts on the ambiguity of religion In our society we have courts and corruption of courts they call this law In Rule by Elders I write One word in law becomes a book and in the end the meaning mistook The drunkenness of judges and lawyers up here was pretty bad They have tried to clean some of it up but what of the lives they ruined when the were drunk in the court rooms themselves There is no law when you say to the First Nations that you are under apartheid which the Indian Act is but we call it equality The Indian Act is one law that we cannot have in our society We cannot have equality when the laws are different for different groups of people They say it is because of the government But to my mind that is even worse as they are the ones that are supposed to make society equal I have done many years hunting and trapping up here in the Arctic We had wide open trap lines but you respected the other person s line If another trapper was on a certain line first you made your line some place else Most of us just got enough fur to support our families It was the white man that thought himself one step higher and in the end destroyed the life in the bush for both himself and the natives I have several poems on my life in the bush for example The Hunter      The Poetry of Our Own Times Marguerite Wilkinson,1926      Christmas Poems to Keep You Warm Through the Storm Seth Kinstle, They might not be as delightful as the classic legendary Christmas lyrics we all love Or despise out of annoyance after they re repetitively jammed in our ear every year Either way these poems offer a unique take on Christmas Something to to be shouted from the rooftops while drunk instead of sang on someone s doorstep On the other hand do with them what you will Maybe this book is just what the spirit of Christmas needed All you need is a peek to help them keep you warm through the storm To elevate your Christmas spirit to the heavens Maybe you ll end up building a life sized gingerbread house afterwards I hope you do that would be cool      Contemporary Literary Criticism Daniel G. Marowski,1986-12 Entries include critical commentary brief biographical information a portrait when available a list of principal works and may also include a further reading section      Hoekzema's Gleanings from English Poetry David Hoekzema,1893
