Nobody Son Of Nobody:

Nobody's Son Zaria Garrison, 2013-03-01 Semaj Matthews is a private detective whose life revolves around helping people locate their lost loved ones. The one person he's been unsuccessful in finding is his own birth father, but the reason is that he never wanted to find him. He often tells himself that he doesn't care. He's become a successful man in spite of the fact that his only male role models were the great dads he watched on television each week. In the midst of planning his wedding to the love of his life, Semaj receives an anonymous tip that turns everything he's ever believed upside down. The caller tells him the name of his father, and he's shocked to learn that it's a man he's admired his entire life: America's favorite TV Dad, Wayne James. Frustrated, Semaj lashes out at the world and finds himself on the wrong side of the law, where only the Heavenly Father can save him and his earthly father.

Nobody's Son Luis Alberto Urrea, 1998 Born in Tijuana to a Mexican father and an Anglo mother, Urrea moved to San Diego at age three. In this memoir of his childhood, Urrea describes his experiences growing up in the barrio and his search for cultural identity.

Nobody's Son Mark Slouka, 2016-10-18 I have never before read anything except Nabokov's Invitation of a Memory that so relentlessly and shrewdly exhausted the kindness and cruelty of recollection's shaping devices. Geoffrey Wolff, Born in Czechoslovakia, Mark Slouka's parents survived the Nazis only to have to escape the Communist purges after the war. Smuggled out of their own country, the newlyweds joined a tide of refugees moving from Innsbruck to Sydney to New York, dragging with them a history of blood and betrayal that their son would be born into. From World War I to the present, Slouka pieces together a remarkable story of refugees and war, displacement and denial, admitting into evidence memories, dreams, stories, the lies we inherit and the lies we tell in an attempt to reach his mother, the enigmatic figure at the center of the labyrinth. Her story, the revelation of her life-long burden and the forty-year love affair that might have saved her, shows the way out of the maze.

Nobody's Son; Or, The Life and Adventures of Percival Mayberry Percival Mayberry (pseud.), 1851

Nobody, Son of Nobody Vraje Abramian, 2015-06 Readers who swoon within the love-intoxicated poetry of Rumi must read the poetry of Shaikh Abil Kheir. This renowned but little-known Sufi mystic of the 10th century preceded Rumi by over two hundred years on the same path of annihilation into God. He referred to himself as Nobody Son of Nobody, his expression of the reality that his life was subsumed in the Divine and that the individual self had disappeared in the heart of God. Under this cloak is nothing but God. Introduce me as Nobody Son of Nobody. These are 195 short selections translated from the original Farsi. These poems deal with the longing for union with God, the desire to know the Real from the False, the inexpressible beauty of Creation when seen through the eyes of Love, and the many attitudes of heart, mind, and feeling that are necessary to those who would find the Beloved, The Friend, in this life.
