Noche Insular:

Antología de la poesía hispanoamericana actual Julio Ortega, 1987-01-01 Selección cuyo sentido radica en la actividad del lector en esa lectura que organiza los textos como un proyecto de su propia aventura y goce creadores No se supedita ni al medio ni a la historia ni siquiera a las tendencias literarias Quiere ser fiel a esa experiencia nica que es la lectura de poesía a su escenario de un habla compartida que la convierte en un ritual primitivo tanto como en una operación disolvente de los códigos restrictivos

The Poetry of the Americas Harris Feinsod, 2017-09-08 The Poetry of the Americas offers a lively and detailed history of relations among poets in the US and Latin America spanning three decades from the Good Neighbor diplomacy of World War II through the Cold War cultural policies of the late 1960s Connecting works by Martin Adán Elizabeth Bishop Paul Blackburn Jorge Luis Borges Julia de Burgos Ernesto Cardenal Jorge Carrera Andrade Allen Ginsberg Langston Hughes Jos Lezama Lima Pablo Neruda Charles Olson Octavio Paz Heberto Padilla Wallace Stevens Derek Walcott William Carlos Williams and many others Feinsod reveals how poets of many nations imagined a poetry of the Americas that linked multiple cultures even as it reflected the inequities of the inter American political system This account offers a rich contextual study of the state sponsored institutions and the countercultural networks that sustained this poetry from Nelson Rockefeller's Office of the Coordinator for Inter American Affairs to the mid 1960s avant garde scene in Mexico City This innovative literary historical project enables new readings of such canonical poems as Stevens's Notes Toward a Supreme Fiction and Neruda's The Heights of Macchu Picchu but it positions these alongside lesser known poetry translations anthologies literary journals and private correspondences culled from library archives across the Americas The Poetry of the Americas thus broadens the horizons of reception and mutual influence and of formal historical and political possibility through which we encounter midcentury American poetry recasting traditional categories of U S or Latin American literature within a truly hemispheric vision

Muerte de Narciso José Lezama Lima, 1988 Esta antología presenta una de las aventuras más singulares de la lengua española en el siglo veinte la escritura imaginativa del cubano José Lezama Lima 1910 1976 uno de los maestros más intensos de la fabulación verbal en nuestro tiempo Guía secreto de muchos escritores narradores y poetas espíritu aislado que mostraba el vertigo del sedentarismo en sus páginas y en su conversación

Nomadic New Women Renée M. Silverman, Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2024-11-08 Nomadic New Women Exile and Border Crossing between Spain and the Americas Early to Mid Twentieth Century examines how gender and sexuality border crossing and exile intersect in women's intellectual and artistic practices during the volatile historical period of the first half of the twentieth century in and around Spain and the Americas Each of the twelve chapters in this highly interdisciplinary volume analyzes the combined impact of gender and sexual identity and the traversing of particular national and world regional boundaries on creative work Together and separately the contributors push the limits of past and present research on exile and migration displacement and nomadism to reveal how the complex interrelationships among gender sexuality and cultural production come under intense pressure by the crossing of borders Minima Cuba Marta Hernández Salván, 2015-06-30 2016 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Minima Cuba analyzes the reconfiguration of aesthetics and power during the Cuban postrevolutionary transition 1989 to 2005 the conclusion of the Special Period It explores the marginal cultural production on the island by the first generation of intellectuals born during the Revolution The author studies the work of postrevolutionary poets and essayists Antonio José Ponte Rolando Sánchez Mejías and Iván de la Nuez among others In their writing we find the exhaustion of the allegorical and melancholic rhetoric of the Cuban Revolution and the poetics of irony developed in the current biopolitical era The book will appeal to anyone interested in contemporary literary and cultural studies poetics and film studies in Latin America and the Caribbean Religion in the Américas Christopher D. Tirres, Jessica L. Delgado, 2025-04-01 Religion in the Américas explores the fluid dynamic and complex nature of religion across Latin America and its diasporic communities in the United States Utilizing a transdisciplinary and trans-hemispheric lens this groundbreaking anthology transcends traditional scholarly boundaries geographical disciplinary and temporal as it explores ideas and cultural practices that share a common history of Iberian colonialism This robust collection of essays forges a dialogue among scholars throughout the Americas who represent a variety of disciplinary perspectives The book is divided into five sections Fluidity in the Afro-Latine Diaspora Aesthetics in Las Américas Critical Feminist Epistemologies and Activism The Limits of Institutional Religion and Spiritual Invasions and Contagions Throughout the volume the concept of experience serves as a foundational lens as chapters examine how individuals and communities actively interpret and negotiate their realities within diverse historical and social contexts Focusing on religion as a culturally conditioned epistemic practice Religion in the Américas invites readers to engage with religion in the Americas on multiple intersecting levels of knowledge including local insights scholarly analyses and the positionality and queries of readers themselves The book's dialogical approach encourages not only continual reevaluation of the complexities of religious experience in the Americas but also creative innovation that will inspire new avenues of inquiry Symbolic Cities in Caribbean Literature C. Winks, 2009-05-25 Utilizing cross-cultural strands this comparative study analyzes Caribbean literary representations of magic and invisible cities reworking the notion of the city as both instituted social space and imaginary community Queer Women in Modern Spanish Literature Ana I. Simón-Alegre, Lou Charnon-Deutsch, 2021-11-29 This original collection of essays explores the work and life choices of Spanish women who through their writings and social activism addressed social justice religious dogmatism the educational system gender inequality and tensions in female subjectivity It brings together writers who are not commonly associated with each other but whose voices overlap allowing us to foreground their unconventionality their relationships to each other and their relation to modernity The objective of this volume is to explore how the idea of queerness played an important role in the personal lives and social activism of these writers as well as in the unconventional and nonconformist characters they created in their work Together the essays demonstrate that the concept of queer women is useful for investigating the evolution of women's writing and sexual identity during the period of Spain's fitful transition to modernity in the nineteenth century. The concept of queerness in its many meanings points to the idea of non normativity and gender dissidence that encompasses how women intellectuals experienced friendship, religion, sex, sexuality and gender. The works examined include autobiography, poetry, memoir, salon chronicles, short and long fiction, pedagogical essays, newspaper articles, theater and letters. In addition to exploring the significant presence of queer women in nineteenth and twentieth century Spanish literature and culture, the essays examine the reasons why the voices of Spanish women authors have been culturally silenced. One thrust in this collection explores generational transitions of Spanish writers from the romantics and their hermandad lrica lyrical sisterhood through to las Sinsombrero Women Without Hats and finally current Spanish writers linked to the LGBTQ community. Transatlantic Travels in Nineteenth-Century Latin America Adriana Méndez Rodenas, 2013-12-12

Transatlantic Travels in Nineteenth Century Latin America European Women Pilgrims retraces the steps of five intrepid lady travelers who ventured into the geography of the New World: Mexico, the Southern Cone, Brazil and the Caribbean at a crucial historical juncture, the period of political anarchy following the break from Spain and the rise of modernity at the turn of the twentieth century. Traveling as historians, social critics, ethnographers and artists, Frances Erskine Inglis (1806-82), Maria Graham (1785-1842), Flora Tristan (1803-44), Fredrika Bremer (1801-65) and Adela Breton (1849-1923) reshaped the map of nineteenth century Latin America. Organized by themes rather than by individual authors, this book examines European women's travels as a spectrum of narrative discourses ranging from natural history, history and ethnography. Women's social condition becomes a focal point of their travels. By combining diverse genres and perspectives, women's travel writing ushers a new vision of post-independence societies. The trope of pilgrimage conditions the female travel experience, which suggests both the meta-end of the journey as well as the broader cultural frame shaping their individual itineraries.

Assimilation/generation/resurrection Ben A. Heller, 1997 Cuban author Jose Lezama Lima (1910-76) produced some of the most enigmatic and important poetry in the Spanish language. He did this during a turbulent moment in Cuban history, a period of social unrest, radical change in political systems and attempts at cultural self-definition. While some have argued that his poetry evades these circumstances, Assimilation/Generation/Resurrection adopts a contextual approach and reveals the extent of Lezama's engagement with the defining political and cultural issues of his day. It also lays bare the underlying connection of this poetry to a weave of intertexts, Lezama's productive interaction with several traditions. Intimidating in its philosophical scope and linguistic complexity, Lezama's poetry has received far less critical attention than his prose. The present study rectifies this critical imbalance, foregrounding the poetry while discussing three issues that link disparate areas of Lezama's literary production. These issues—cultural assimilation, generation and resurrection—are central elements in Lezama's poetics yet are also pertinent to wide-ranging debates on Latin American cultural identity. This study reads key poems from each of his published books of poetry using an interpretive approach forged from diverse yet cohering sources including Lezama's own theories on reading and writing After a brief methodological excursus and a first contextualization of Lezama's poetics vis a vis a number of other Cuban writers this study considers Lezama's early assimilation of a number of initiatory texts as well as his indirect but crucial response to the social concerns of the 1930s Assimilation Generation Resurrection makes clear that Lezama's poetry owes its existence to an engagement with cultural artifacts and social circumstances more generally Yet it is far more than a response It constantly attempts to go beyond generating the new at the intersection of the old and the as yet uncreated The result of this practice is a poetry that claims the power both to translate over distance and to resurrect by virtue of the image
