

NO-FAULT

A no-fault divorce state means just as it sounds; either party can file for divorce without having to prove any wrongdoing from the other party. The purpose of Florida (and about 49 others stated) being a no-fault divorce state is to help reduce conflict during the dissolution process.

No-fault Negotiating Len Leritz,1987      No Fault Negotiating Len Leritz,1991-01-01      Interpersonal Negotiations Len LERITZ,1994-09-30 Finally a negotiation framework that encourages a positive outcome for both parties This book takes the win win concept a step further to make negotiating a more gratifying experience even if you don t get exactly what you want Interpersonal Negotiations Breaking Down the Barriers builds on mutual understanding and respect for each other s needs and provides a proven framework for fulfilling them You ll discover the secrets that can help turn an adversary into an advocate You will learn how to Ensure a safe fair and effective negotiation process Direct the negotiation process to create mutual understanding and acceptance Recognize and understand your own needs and those of the other person Make it easy for others to understand your needs Be creative and persistent to address and resolve blocks to successful negotiation Assess the other person s behavioral and emotional responses Acknowledge your own and the other person s perceptions and beliefs Avoid getting mired in the process This is an ebook version of the AMA Self Study course If you want to take the course for credit you need to either purchase a hard copy of the course through amaselfstudy.org or purchase an online version of the course through www.flexstudy.com      Federal Employers' Liability Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Energy and Commerce. Subcommittee on Transportation and Hazardous Materials,1990      No-fault Divorce Allen M. Parkman,2019-03-04 Since 1970 all the states adopted no fault divorce statutes which have had the unexpected effect of producing dire financial conditions for many divorced women and their children In this important study economist and lawyer Allen Parkman shows how no fault divorce has systematically operated against the interests of these women and children With rare economic and legal insight Parkman argues that by changing the grounds for divorce without changing the laws that define and allocate property at divorce the legal system created substantial injustices The key mistake he suggests was in accepting a definition of property that did not include the income earning capacity human capital of the individuals involved Using human capital theory Parkman criticizes current divorce law and presents a framework for reform that would reduce the injustices introduced by no fault divorce He concludes that a thorough reform however may require the changing of the grounds for divorce to mutual consent This book is essential reading for scholars professionals and indeed for anyone interested in the health and future of the family and the well being of women in contemporary U S society

Rulings on Requests for Review of the Assistant Secretary of Labor for Labor-Management Relations Pursuant to Executive Order 11491, as Amended United States. Office of Federal Labor-Management Relations,1977      Negotiating Development in Muslim Societies Gudrun Lachenmann,Petra Dannecker,2008-05-29 Negotiating Development in Muslim Societies explores the negotiation processes of global development concepts such as poverty alleviation human rights and gender equality It focuses on three countries which that are undergoing different Islamisation processes Senegal Sudan and Malaysia While much has been written about the hegemonic production and discursive struggle of development concepts

globally this book analyzes the negotiation of these development concepts locally and translocally Lachenmann and Dannecker present empirically grounded research to show that although women are instrumentalized in different ways for the formation of an Islamic identity of a nation or group they are at the same time important actors and agents in the processes of negotiating the meaning of development restructuring of the public sphere and transforming the societal gender order Negotiating Agreement and Disagreement in Japanese Junko Mori,1999-01-01 On the basis of the meticulous transcription observation process of Conversation Analysis this book observes recurrent patterns in sequences where Japanese speakers negotiate agreement and disagreement It contributes to the growing body of research on interaction and grammar by examining how linguistic recourses are utilized for constructing turns and anticipating the upcoming course of interaction More specifically it focuses on the recurrent use of two structurally different types of connective expressions clause initial connectives and clause final connective particles The study examines the occurrences of these causal and contrastive markers with reference to their sequential environment and the resulting interaction While the introductory chapters situate this approach in the current literature the main analytical chapters investigate the ways in which delivery of agreement delivery of disagreement and pursuit for agreement are performed with the use of the different types of connective expressions As one of the earliest conversation analytic studies of Japanese this book also addresses methodological issues concerning cross linguistic cross cultural studies of human interaction Senate documents ,1888
