Nomad Poetics:

A Nomad Poetics Pierre Joris, 2003-11-05 In his first collection of critical essays Joris maps the success and limitations of contemporary avant garde poetics This investigation leads him to envision a nomadic poetics as a strategy for new poetic work for translation and fundamentally for an ethics of early 21st century life A Nomad Poetics Pierre Joris, 2003

Powerful essays on the state and aims of contemporary poetry Poetry, Publishing, and Visual Culture from Late Modernism to the Twenty-first Century Natalie Pollard, 2020-05-27 This is a book about contemporary literary and artistic entanglements word and image media and materiality inscription and illustration It proposes a vulnerable fugitive mode of reading poetry which defies disciplinary categorisations embracing the open endedness and provisionality of forms This manifests itself interactively in the six case studies which have been chosen for their distinctness and diversity across the long twentieth century the book begins with the early twentieth century work of writer and artist Djuna Barnes exploring her re animation of sculptural and dramatic sources It then turns to the late modernist artist and poet David Jones considering his use of the graphic and plastic arts in The Anathemata and next to the underappreciated mid century poet F T Prince whose work uncannily re activates Michelangelo s poetry and sculpture The second half of the book explores the collaborations of the canonical poet Ted Hughes with the publisher and artist Leonard Baskin during the 1970s the innovative late twentieth century poetry of Denise Riley who uses page space and embodied sound as a form of address and finally the contemporary poet Paul Muldoon who has collaborated with photographers and artists as well as ventriloquising nonhuman phenomena The resulting unique study offers contemporary writers and readers a new understanding of literary artistic and nonhuman practices and shows the cultural importance of engaging with their messy co dependencies The book challenges critical methodologies that make a sharp division between the textual work and the extra literary and raises urgent questions about the status and autonomy of art and its social role Poems for the Millennium, Volume Four Jerome Rothenberg, Pierre Joris, Jeffrey Cane Robinson, Habib Tengour, 1995 Global anthology of twentieth century poetry Back cover

Poems for the Millennium, Volume Four Pierre Joris, Habib Tengour, 2013-01-31 In this fourth volume of the landmark Poems for the Millennium series Pierre Joris and Habib Tengour present a comprehensive anthology of the written and oral literatures of the Maghreb the region of North Africa that spans the modern nation states of Libya Tunisia Algeria Morocco and Mauritania and including a section on the influential Arabo Berber and Jewish literary culture of Al Andalus which flourished in Spain between the ninth and fifteenth centuries Beginning with the earliest pictograms and rock drawings and ending with the work of the current generation of post independence and diasporic writers this volume takes in a range of cultures and voices including Berber Phoenician Jewish Roman Vandal Arab Ottoman and French Though concentrating on oral and written poetry and narratives the book also draws on historical and geographical treatises philosophical and esoteric traditions song lyrics and current prose experiments These selections are arranged in five chronological diwans or chapters which are interrupted by a series of books that supply extra detail giving context or covering specific cultural areas in concentrated fashion The selections are contextualized by a general introduction that situates the importance of this little known culture area and individual commentaries for nearly each author     Poetic Community Stephen Joyce,2013-01-01 Poetic Community examines the relationship between poetry and community formation in the decades after the Second World War In four detailed case studies of Black Mountain College in North Carolina the Caribbean Artists Movement in London the Women s Liberation Movement at sites throughout the US and the Toronto Research Group in Canada the book documents and compares a diverse group of social models small press networks and cultural coalitions informing literary practice during the Cold War era Drawing on a wealth of unpublished archival materials Stephen Joyce offers new and insightful comparative analysis of poets such as John Cage Charles Olson Adrienne Rich Kamau Brathwaite and bpNichol In contrast with prevailing critical tendencies that read mid century poetry in terms of expressive modes of individualism Poetic Community demonstrates that the most important literary innovations of the post war period were the results of intensive collaboration and social action opposing the Cold War s ideological enclosures     The Organization of Distance Lucas Klein,2018-07-17 What makes a Chinese poem Chinese Some call modern Chinese poetry insufficiently Chinese saying it is so influenced by foreign texts that it has lost the essence of Chinese culture as known in premodern poetry Yet that argument overlooks how premodern regulated verse was itself created in imitation of foreign poetics Looking at Bian Zhilin and Yang Lian in the twentieth century alongside medieval Chinese poets such as Wang Wei Du Fu and Li Shangyin The Organization of Distance applies the notions of foreignization and nativization to Chinese poetry to argue that the impression of poetic Chineseness has long been a product of translation from forces both abroad and in the past     Region, Nature, Frontiers Donna L. Potts,Amy D. Unsworth,2009-05-27 The book is a collection of sixteen essays on issues of regional and national identities and perceptions in literature ranging from South Africa to the United States Discussions include the American frontier the relationship between non fiction and place linguistic and postcolonial boundaries     Uniting Regions and Nations through the Looking Glass of Literature Karoline Szatek-Tudor,2017-03-07 This volume of essays emphasizes the common theme that bodies of water may segregate but ironically also unite nations and their readers through the literature that authors from various countries produce It reveals the importance of valuing literature that over time has travelled down bubbling streams across lakes along ocean waves and white water rivers because fiction drama and poetry know neither actual nor artificial boundaries and therefore they cross fertilize and even transform beliefs practices and roles across cultures Topics examined here range from South Africa s on going crises that in part mirror those of Somalia and Mozambique to poetry that has been reinvented as a literature in movement and to philosopher Henri Bergson s influence on other philosophers as well as Nikos Kazantzakis author of Zorba the Greek The scholars contributing to this collection hail from across the globe allowing the work to add to conversations on regional and international literary study with special emphasis on writings from such places as Japan Luxembourg the Caribbean the United States Hungary South Africa Greece and Turkey

Seeking a Home for Poetry in a Nomadic World Silvia Panicieri, 2020-01-28 This thoroughly researched overview on one of the most absorbing literary phenomena of recent decades the trespassing of cultural and linguistic borders departs from the canonical point of view offered by the English works of the Nobel laureate Russian American poet and essayist Joseph Brodsky to approach the work of the emerging Hungarian English poet Lehel Czky Through the epistemological filter offered by some guiding texts such as Bauman Hall Braidotti and many others this study allows the reader to discover the recounting of a search for an identity where the adoption of English as an artistic vehicle is only the first thread that unites the two nomadic authors Striving to locate language and identity Brodsky and Lehel Czky face the limits of doing so due to the fluid and nomadic nature of language itself This suggests if not answers then new ways of expression which draw the language of our future

Male Subjectivity and Poetic Form in "New American" Poetry A. Mossin, 2010-05-24 Focusing in particular on pairings of writers within the larger grouping of poets this book suggests how literary partnerships became pivotal to American poets in the wake of Donald Allen's New American Poetry anthology

Speaking the Earth's Languages Stuart Cooke, 2013 Speaking the Earth's Languages brings together for the first time critical discussions of postcolonial poetics from Australia and Chile The book crosses multiple Languages landscapes and disciplines and draws on a wide range of both oral and written poetics in order to make strong claims about the importance of a nomad poetics not only for understanding Aboriginal or Mapuche writing practices but more widely for the problems confronting contemporary literature and politics in colonized landscapes The book begins by critiquing canonical examples of non indigenous postcolonial poetics Incisive readings of two icons of Australian and Chilean poetry Judith Wright 1915 2000 and Pablo Neruda 1904 1973 provide rich insights into non indigenous responses to colonization in the wake of modernity The second half of the book establishes compositional links between Aboriginal and Mapuche poetics and between such oral and written poetics more generally The book's final part develops an emerging synthesis of contemporary Aboriginal and Mapuche poetics with reference to the work of two of the most important avant garde Aboriginal and Mapuche poets of recent times Lionel Fogarty 1958 and Paulo Huirimilla 1973 Speaking the Earth's Languages uses these fascinating links between Aboriginal and Mapuche poetics as the basis of a deliberately nomadic open ended theory for an Australian Chilean postcolonial poetics The central argument of this book the author writes is that a nomadic poetics is essential for a genuinely postcolonial form of habitation or a habitation of colonized landscapes that doesn't continue to replicate colonialist ideologies involving indigenous dispossession and environmental exploitation

Contemporary Women's Poetry and Urban Space Z. Skoulding, 2013-10-03 This book focuses on the role of the city and its processes of mutual transformation in poetry by experimental women writers Readings of their work are placed in the context of theories of urban space while new visions of the contemporary city and its global relationships are drawn from their innovations in language and form      Rootedness Christy Wampole, 2016-04-06 People have long imagined themselves as rooted creatures bound to the earth and nations from which they came In Rootedness Christy Wampole looks toward philosophy ecology literature history and politics to demonstrate how the metaphor of the root surfacing often in an unexpected variety of places from the family tree to folk etymology to the language of exile developed in twentieth century Europe Wampole examines both the philosophical implications of this metaphor and its political evolution From the root as home to the root as genealogical origin to the root as the past itself rootedness has survived in part through its ability to subsume other compelling metaphors such as the foundation the source and the seed With a focus on this concept s history in France and Germany Wampole traces its influence in diverse areas such as the search for the mystical origins of words land worship and nationalist rhetoric including the disturbing portrayal of the Jews as an unrooted and thus unrighteous people Exploring the works of Martin Heidegger Simone Weil Jean Paul Sartre Paul Celan and many more Rootedness is a groundbreaking study of a figure of speech that has had wide reaching and at times dire political and social consequences      Unfettering Poetry J. Robinson, 2006-04-29 This book calls attention to the pervasive but largely unacknowledged poetics of the Fancy evident in poetry written during the British Romantic period These poetics Robinson demonstrates are an early nineteenth century version of what will become the visionary experimental open form poetics of the twentieth century      Approaching a Nomad Poetics Katherine Handley, 2009      Poetry of the Civil Rights Movements in Australia and the United States, 1960s-1980s Ameer Chasib Furaih, 2024-09-03 This book examines the poetries of two Aboriginal Australian poets namely Oodgeroo Noonuccal formerly Kath Walker 1920 1993 and Lionel Fogarty 1958 and two African American Black Arts poets namely Amiri Baraka formerly Everett LeRoi Jones 1934 2014 and Sonia Sanchez 1943 to demonstrate their role in the struggle for civil and human rights of their peoples from the 1960s The book demonstrates commonalities and differences in the strategies of these poets literary and political resistance These poet activists though ethnically diverse and geographically dispersed share comparable socio political concerns and aspirations Their activism is not a reflection of a single ideological current but a bricolage of many ideologies and perspectives They have engaged in trans Pacific political movements and transgressed the borders of any one ideological territory It is important to establish Aboriginal and African American trans Pacific communication because these poets have collaborated and engaged in global politics whether in the form of Garveyism or the transnation Their poetries are characterized by an irresistible drive towards international rhizomatic collaboration and engagement This is a transcontinental literary influence exerted by African American poets on Aboriginal poets during the 1960s and beyond      Placing Poetry Ian Davidson, Zoë Skoulding, 2013 The essays in this volume present a thorough re evaluation of the idea of place for the twenty first century linking across theoretical interests in space and spatialisation and in motion and mobility Placing becomes an active process that happens in different parts of the world and there is work here from the countries of the United Kingdom from Ireland the USA Australia and mainland Europe Placing
