Differences Ignasi De Sola-Morales, 1997-01-07 Differences brings together ten essays written over the past decade by the distinguished Spanish architect and theorist Ignasi de Sol Morales Differences brings together ten essays written over the past decade by the distinguished Spanish architect and theorist Ignasi de Sola Morales Many of the essays have never previously been translated and the author has provided a new introduction especially for this English edition Contemplating the panorama of contemporary art and architecture de Sola Morales posits that there is no one way to describe today's practice instead he concentrates on elucidating the present dynamic of contrast diversity and tension In an unorthodox pairing de Sola Morales derives his inspiration from both phenomenology and Deleuzean poststructuralism Combining these philosophical inheritances allows him to reinvoke the human subject without referring to classical humanism or announcing the death of the object His retrospective review of the disciplines of art and architecture particularly as they have developed since World War II provokes him to design draft and ultimately build a description of Modernism's lineage of subjectivity The result is a provocative construction of fluid topographies that articulate rather than depict the shaky ground on which our current artistic and architectural production rests The essays Sado masochism Criticism and Architectural Practice Topographies of Contemporary Architecture Mies van der Rohe and Minimalism Architecture and Existentialism Weak Architecture From Autonomy to Untimeliness Place Permanence or Production Difference and Limit Individualism in Contemporary Architecture High Tech Functionalism or Rhetoric The Work of Architecture in the Age of Mechanical Reproduction

A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2015-03-15 What is the theological significance of art Why has the Church always encouraged the arts What is so profoundly human about the arts In A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R Garcia Rivera answers these questions in a series of sketches that are mixed spiritual and theological reflections on various works of art written in a poetic style These reflections explore the relationship between the multi dimensional spiritual and the arts The first sketch The Beginning of Art introduces the rest that go on to explore further the human artistic and theological implications of a wounded innocence Each sketch reflects on a particular human work of art Some are conventional works of art Others may never find their way into a museum but then that is one of the implications coming out of this book A museum does not define what a work of art is its human depth does In these deeply studied yet spiritually written reflections on each work of art it is hoped that the reader will find his and her own creative depth described perhaps even revealed A Wounded Innocence is both inspiring and informative Readers will learn about art spirituality and theology and will find themselves inspired to look at works of art and even to produce a work of art It sets a new way of doing theology that is at the same time spiritual More importantly Garcia Rivera describes a theology of art Chapters are The Beginning of Art The End of Art Human Freedom and Artistic Creativity Heaven with Us The Idea and Image Fredrik Lång, 2024-11-08 What does art tell us about man's place in history In Thought and Image award winning author and philosopher Fredrik Lång takes the reader on a two thousand year journey spanning the worlds of art and philosophy from ancient Greece into the modern day Thought and Image explores the ways in which artistic expression is linked to the way of life and manner of thought of people throughout the centuries Art like knowledge is an interpretation of a contemporary existence executed in the concepts that thinking provides at the time Every picture is worth a thousand words and every significant work of art contains a statement and is a confirmation of the general values of its time Lång journeys slowly through the winding gallery of images and concepts that man has built up over the millennia analysing the gaze of Giotto and the technical metaphors of Duchamp The book ends with a challenging question What is the significance of the insights gained for the understanding of our own time

The Body as Medium and Metaphor Hannah Westley, 2008 Reconsidering the relationship between autobiography and self portraiture The Body as Medium and Metaphor explores the intertextuality of self representation in twentieth century French art Situating the body as the nexus of intersections between the written word and the visual image this book rethinks the problematic status of the self Starting at the twentieth century's departure from figurative and mimetic representation this study discusses the work of seminal artists and writers including Marcel Duchamp Michel Leiris Francis Bacon Bernard Noël Gisèle Prassinos Louise Bourgeois and Orlan to articulate the twentieth century's radical revisions of subjectivity that originated from and returned to representations of the word the image and the body This volume will be of interest to students of both French Literature and Art History particularly those who are interested in the interdisciplinary exchanges between visual arts and literature

Marcel Duchamp, 2020-12-07 Perspectives on Contemporary Literature David Herschberg, 2021-10-21 Today's music painting and film share with literature in the development of a new aesthetic even as these other arts influence and are influenced by literary themes and structures And at the same time the music and art of the past continue to re-echo in twentieth century letters The thirteen essays gathered here open a fine and varied view of the ways in which contemporary literature interacts with the other arts Surrealism in French painting and literature collage theory and the cutups of William Burroughs texts of Butor as shaped by works of Duchamp this volume offers a rich harvest of perceptive studies on these and other aspects of a fascinating topic

Duchamp and the Aesthetics of Chance Herbert Molderings, 2010-05-31 Marcel Duchamp is often viewed as an artist engineer scientist a kind of rationalist who relied heavily on the ideas of the French mathematician and philosopher Henri Poincaré Yet a complete portrait of Duchamp and his multiple influences draws a different picture In his 3 Standard Stoppages 1913 1914 a work that uses chance as an artistic medium we see how far Duchamp subverted scientism in favor of a radical individualistic aesthetic and experimental vision Unlike the Dadaists Duchamp did more than dismiss or negate the authority of science He pushed scientific rationalism to the point where its claims broke down and alternative truths were allowed to emerge With humor and irony Duchamp undertook a method of artistic research reflection and visual thought that focused less on beauty than on the notion of the possible He became a passionate advocate of the power of invention and thinking things that had never been thought before The 3 Standard Stoppages is the ultimate realization of the play between chance and dimension visibility and invisibility high and low art and art and anti art Situating Duchamp firmly within the literature and philosophy of his time Herbert Molderings recaptures the spirit of a frequently misread artist and his thrilling aesthetic of chance The

Destruction of Art Dario Gamboni,2013-06-01 Last winter a man tried to break Marcel Duchamp's Fountain sculpture The sculpted foot of Michelangelo's David was damaged in 1991 by a purportedly mentally ill artist With each incident intellectuals must confront the unsettling dynamic between destruction and art Renowned art historian Dario Gamboni is the first to tackle this weighty issue in depth exploring specters of censorship iconoclasm and vandalism that surround such acts Gamboni uncovers here a disquieting phenomenon that still thrives today worldwide As he demonstrates through analyses of incidents occurring in nineteenth and twentieth century America and Europe a complex relationship exists among the evolution of modern art destruction of artworks and the long history of iconoclasm From the controversial removal of Richard Serra's Tilted Arc from New York City's Federal Plaza to suffragette protests at London's National Gallery Gamboni probes the concept of artist's rights the power of political protest and how iconoclasm sheds light on society's relationship to art and material culture Compelling and thought provoking The Destruction of Art forces us to rethink the ways that we interact with art and react to its power to shock or subdue The States of 'theory' David Carroll,1990 This book constitutes a critical investigation and rethinking of the grounds and possibilities of theory and the place and critical function theory can serve within various disciplines notably history and aesthetics

Fragment, Image, and Absence in 1960s Japan Ignacio A. Adriasola Muñoz,2022-11-28 This groundbreaking book examines how the notion of the object was transformed in Japanese experimental art during a time of rapid social economic and environmental change Reviving the legacies of the historical avant garde Japanese artists and intellectuals of the 1960s formulated an aesthetics of disaffection through which they sought to address the stalemate of political and aesthetic representation Ignacio A Adriasola Muñoz draws from psychoanalytic theories of melancholia to examine the implications of such an approach tracing a genealogy of disaffection within modernist discourse By examining the discursive practices of artists working across a wide range of media and through a close analysis of artwork philosophical debates artist theories and critical accounts Adriasola Muñoz shows how negativity became an efficacious means of addressing politics as a source for the creative act of undoing In examining ideas of the object advanced by artists and intellectuals both in writing and as part of their artwork this book brings discussions in critical art history to bear on the study of art in Japan It will be of interest to art historians specializing in modernism the international avant garde Japanese art and the history of photography Literature and Visual Technologies J. Literature and the Other Arts David Hershberg,1987 Duchamp Juan Ramírez,2013-06-01 Marcel Duchamp s stature in the history of art has grown steadily since the 1950s as several artistic movements have embraced him as their founding father But although his influence is comparable only to Picasso s Duchamp continues to be relatively unknown outside his narrow circle of followers This book seeks to explain his oeuvre which has been shrouded with mystery Duchamp s two great preoccupations were the nature of scientific truth and a feeling for love with its natural limit death His works all speak of eroticism in a way that pushes the socially acceptable to its outer limits Juan Antonio Ramirez addresses such questions as the meaning of the artist s ground breaking ready mades and his famous installation Etant donn s his passionate essay reproduces all of Duchamp s important works in addition to numerous previously unpublished visual sources Duchamp Love and Death even is a seminal monograph for understanding this crucial figure of modern art Theorizing Modernism Johanna Drucker,1994 The final section explores concepts of the artist as a producing subject and of the viewer as a produced subject with respect to such artists as Pablo Picasso Marcel Duchamp Andy Warhol and Sherrie Levine

Perspectives on Contemporary Literature ,1984 Unpacking Duchamp Dalia Judovitz,1998-04-28 Transit transitional transition Dalia Judovitz catches Marcel Duchamp on the run with his art in a suitcase and his thought all boxed and ready to go She demonstrates how the theme of transition reappearing from work to work makes each piece reproduce some other piece while all continue to exemplify an original which can no longer be found and which has no creator Jean Fran ois

Lyotard Translation and the Arts in Modern France Sonya Stephens,2017-07-10 Translation and the Arts in Modern France sits at the intersection of transposition translation and ekphrasis finding resonances in these areas across periods places and forms Within these contributions questions of colonization subjugation migration and exile connect Benin to Brittany and political philosophy to the sentimental novel and to film Focusing on cultural production from 1830 to the present and privileging French culture the contributors explore interactions with other cultures countries and continents often explicitly equating intercultural permeability with representational exchange In doing so the book exposes the extent to which moving between media and codes the very process of translation and transposition is a defining aspect of creativity across time space and disciplines Cubism and the Trompe l'Oeil Tradition Emily Braun,Elizabeth Cowling,2022-10-17

The age old tradition of pictorial illusionism known as trompe l'oeil deceive the eye employs visual tricks that confound the viewer's perception of reality and fiction truth and falsehood This radically new take on Cubism shows how Pablo Picasso Georges Braque and Juan Gris both parodied and paid homage to classic trompe l'oeil themes and motifs The authors connect Cubist works to trompe l'oeil specialists of earlier centuries by juxtaposing more than one hundred Cubist paintings drawings and collages with related compositions by old masters The informed and engaging texts trace the changing status of trompe l'oeil over the centuries reveal Braque's training in artisanal trompe l'oeil techniques as an integral part of his Cubist practice examine the material used in Gris's collages and discuss the previously unstudied trompe l'oeil iconography within Cubist still lifes
