The Management of Non-Hodgkin's Lymphomas in Europe Silvio Monfardini,2012-12-06 The European School of Oncology came into existence to respond to a need for information education and training in the field of the diagnosis and treatment of cancer There are two main reasons why such an initiative was considered necessary Firstly the teaching of oncology requires a rigorously multidisciplinary approach which is difficult for the Universities to put into practice since their system is mainly disciplinary orientated Secondly the rate of technological development that impinges on the diagnosis of cancer has been so rapid that it is not an easy task for medical faculties to adapt their curricula flexibly With its residential courses for organ pathologies and its seminars on new techniques or on the principal therapeutic controversies it is the ambition of the European School of Oncology to fill a cultural and scientific gap and thereby create a bridge between the University and Industry and between these two and daily medical practice One of the more recent initiatives of the ESO is the Intercity Meetings The concept of Intercity Meetings was first put forward with the idea of creating total coverage throughout Europe of certain tumours at the forefront of research and in some cases controversy Non-Hodgkin's Lymphomas Bruce D.
