The Second Nuclear Age Colin S. Gray,1999 The author takes issue with the complacent belief that a happy mixture of deterrence arms control and luck will enable humanity to cope adequately with weapons of mass destruction arguing that the risks are ever more serious Nonproliferation Policy and Nuclear Posture Neil Narang,Erik Gartzke,Matthew

Kroenig,2015-10-08 This volume examines the causes and consequences of nuclear postures and nonproliferation policies The real world importance of nuclear weapons has led to the production of a voluminous scholarly literature on the causes and consequences of nuclear weapons proliferation Missing from this literature however is a more nuanced analysis that moves beyond a binary treatment of nuclear weapons possession to an exploration of how different nuclear postures and nonproliferation policies may influence the proliferation of nuclear weapons and subsequent security outcomes This volume addresses this deficit by focusing on the causes and consequences of nuclear postures and nonproliferation policies It is the aim of this book to advance the development of a new empirical research agenda that brings systematic research methods to bear on new dimensions of the nuclear weapons phenomenon Prior to the contributions in this volume there has been little evidence to suggest that nuclear postures and policies have a meaningful impact on the spread of nuclear weapons or security outcomes This book brings together a new generation of scholars advancing innovative theoretical positions and performing quantitative tests using original data on nuclear postures nonproliferation policies and WMD proliferation Together the chapters in this volume make novel theoretical empirical and methodological contributions to the field of nuclear weapons proliferation This book will be of much interest to students of nuclear proliferation international relations and security studies China's Diplomacy Responding to World Transformation in the New Era Honghua

The AI Commander James Johnson, 2024-08-09
What does AI

mean for the role of humans in war The AI Commander addresses the largely neglected question of how the fusion of machines into the war machine will affect the human condition of warfare James Johnson emphasizes the mind both human and machine and the mechanisms of thought intelligence consciousness emotion memory experience etc to consider the effects of AI and autonomy on the human condition of war Johnson investigates the vexing and misunderstood and at times contradictory ethical moral and normative implications whether incremental transformative or revolutionary of synthesizing man and machine in future algorithmic warfare or AI enabled centaur warfighting At the heart of these vexing questions are whether we are inevitably moving toward a situation in which AI enabled autonomous weapons will make strategic decisions in place of humans and thus become the owners of those decisions Can AI powered systems replace human commanders And more importantly should they The AI Commander argues that AI cannot be merely passive and neutral force multipliers of human cognition Instead they will likely become either by conscious choice or inadvertently strategic actors in war AI will transform the role and nature of human warfare but not necessarily in the ways most observers expect
