Nuclear Politics and the Non-Aligned Movement William Potter, 2017-10-03 The Non Aligned Movement NAM is the largest and most diverse political grouping of states engaged on issues related to nuclear nonproliferation and disarmament Drawing on the authors first hand experiences as members of NAM observer state delegations in NPT and IAEA negotiations as well as the findings of a larger CNS research project on NAM nuclear politics the book will provide important new insights about how a small subset of NAM states has tended to dominate NAM politics and have promoted policies that are often at odds with those advanced by Western states on issues such as nuclear terrorism IAEA safeguards nuclear export controls multinational fuel arrangements proliferation in the Middle East NPT and nuclear arms control and disarmament Based on an analysis of NAM perspectives politics and priorities the book will provide practical recommendations for engaging NAM members in a more constructive fashion on issues related to nuclear nonproliferation disarmament peaceful use and counter nuclear terrorism Particular attention will be given to problems likely to be encountered when Iran assumes the chairmanship of NAM in 2012 and how these difficulties can best be mitigated in the lead up to the next NPT Review Conference

Non-Aligned Movement Summits Jovan Cavoški, 2022-05-19 Using newly declassified documents from Serbian British Indian Chinese Myanmar U S and Soviet archives Non Aligned Movement Summits shows how the Non Aligned Movement NAM gradually evolved into the third force of Cold War politics enveloping most of the post colonial and non bloc world Jovan Cavo ki follows the evolution of the NAM through its summits and other gatherings during which major political decisions pertaining to the destiny of the Third World were made These events were scrutinized by all major powers and had a corresponding effect on their policies From the Belgrade Conference in 1961 until 1989 all major Third World and non bloc nations met to demonstrate to the Eastern and Western Blocs that they were independent active and respected participants in world affairs Cavo ki shows how these summits were also closely related to events occurring in the relationship between the two blocs providing opportunities for non bloc actors to influence the global balance of power By moving the focus of 20th century international history away from the bloc nations and instead giving developing nations in Africa and Asia due attention this book provides a fresh perspective on Cold War history and fills a significant gap in the literature It is an important study for all students and scholars of the Cold War and international history

Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non-Aligned Movement Paul Stubbs, 2023-01-15 After a summit in Belgrade in September 1961 socialist Yugoslavia led by President Josip Broz Tito until his death in 1980 initiated a movement with states in the Global South The Non Aligned Movement not only offered an alternative to the Cold War polarization between NATO and the Warsaw Pact but also expressed the hopes of a world emerging from colonial domination Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non Aligned Movement investigates the Non Aligned Movement both as a top down interstate initiative and as a site for transnational exchange in science art and culture architecture education and industry Re invigorating older debates by consulting newly available sources the volume challenges studies that marginalize the role of socialist Yugoslavia in the Non Aligned Movement Contributors address topics such as women s involvement antifascism and anti imperialism cultural and educational exchange tensions in Yugoslav diplomacy competing understandings of economic development the role of the Yugoslav construction company Energoprojekt Yugoslav relations with Latin America and Africa and contemporary support for refugees and asylum seekers as a kind of practical and affective afterlife of Yugoslavia s non aligned commitments Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non Aligned Movement offers an innovative approach to one of the twentieth century s most important international movements and confronts issues of economic social and cultural rights that remain relevant today

The Non-Aligned Movement and the Cold War

Natasa Miskovic, Harald Fischer-Tiné, Nada Boskovska, 2014-04-16 The idea of non alignment and peaceful coexistence was not new when Yugoslavia hosted the Belgrade Summit of the Non Aligned in September 1961 Freedom activists from the colonies in Asia Africa and South America had been discussing such issues for decades already but this long lasting context is usually forgotten in political and historical assessments of the Non Aligned Movement This book puts the Non Aligned Movement into its wider historical context and sheds light on the long term connections and entanglements of the Afro Asian world It assembles scholars from differing fields of research such as Asian Studies Eastern European and Southeast European History Cold War Studies Middle Eastern Studies and International Relations In doing so this volume looks back to the ideological beginnings of the concept of peaceful coexistence at the time of the anticolonial movements and at the multi faceted challenges of foreign policy the former freedom fighters faced when they established their own decolonized states It analyses the crucial role Yugoslav president Tito played in his determination to keep his country out of the blocs and finally examines the main achievement of the Non Aligned Movement to give subordinate states of formerly subaltern peoples a voice in the international system An innovative look at the Non Aligned Movement with a strong historical component the
