None To Accompany Me:

None to Accompany Me Nadine Gordimer, 2012-03-15 Set in South Africa this is the story of Vera Stark a lawyer and an independent mother of two who works for the Legal Foundation representing blacks trying to reclaim land that was once theirs As her country lurches towards majority rule so she discovers a need to reconstruct her own life A Comparative Analysis of the South African and German Reception of Nadine Gordimer's, Andre Brink's and J.M. Coetzee's Works Eva-Marie Herlitzius, 2005 J.M. Coetzee's Austerities Graham Bradshaw, Michael Neill, 2016-05-06 Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives this volume examines J M Coetzee's novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year The choice of essays reflects three broad goals aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee's writing with his late modernist aesthetic exploring the relationship between Coetzee's novels and his essays on linguistics and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments These objectives are realized in essays focusing on among other matters the function of names and etymology in Coetzee's fiction the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa the importance of film in Coetzee's literary sensibility Coetzee's reworkings of Defoe the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace intertextuality and the fictional self consciousness of Slow Man Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist's later work the collection points towards a narrato political and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon Nadine Gordimer and the Rhetoric of Otherness in Post-Apartheid South Africa Maria-Luiza Caraivan, 2017-01-06 Nadine Gordimer and the Rhetoric of Otherness in Post Apartheid South Africa observes and examines several issues that are central to the South African writer's works the uniqueness of terror in a difficult historical period the desire to annihilate racial oppression and above all the psychological alienation provoked by racism The analysis also focuses on literary topics that are specific to Gordimer's post Apartheid writings such as the significance of multiculturalism the status of writers the banalisation of violence due to mass media coverage the reconciliation with a violent past globalization and loss of cultural and national identity economic exile and migration The book proposes in five chapters a journey into Nadine Gordimer's novels short stories and non fiction that presents the reader with a multifaceted Other who is no longer specific to postcolonial and multicultural South Africa but can be identified across the globe as alterity is redefined by globalization Nadine Gordimer's Fiction Syeda Faiqa Mazhar, 2023-12-15 Nadine Gordimer's Fiction is a major study of the life and writings of Nadine Gordimer a towering figure in the literary and cultural life of South Africa in the late 20th and early 21st centuries recognised for her fiction through several prizes most notably the 1991 Nobel Prize for Literature It has the makings of a guide taking the reader through the complexities in Gordimer's life literature and society backed by academic research doctoral and postdoctoral and informed by Dr Mazhar's study visit to South Africa including a face to face interview with Gordimer The reader gets a rich picture mediated by the author's own intellectual journey from Pakistan the country of her birth and the United Kingdom Dr Mazhar maps the complexities of colonialism in South Africa and beyond in different forms most notably in the legislated discrimination based on race ethnicity Apartheid 1948 1994 Covering the literary writings and political activism of Gordimer both during and after Apartheid the book provides the reader with a detailed account of individual works of fiction and vistas of critical thought and action that serve as their source and backdrop Dr Mazhar draws on the cultural theories of Homi Bhabha especially on the notion of The Third Space a fictional space borderland between social and political polarisations which allows for reflection refinement and re action that is transformational and psychologically uplifting She demonstrates that Gordimer takes her characters through such spaces which allow for a transformational experience that leads to perspectives realisations that were missing as a result of constraints that were externally imposed by law and tradition and interiorised as a survival mode Dr Mazhar concludes that Gordimer gracefully articulates her vision for a world free of complexities which one must strive for Although the book presents the academic analysis of Gordimer s fiction and the memoir as separate parts there are organic connections between the two which link the social ethos political struggles varied ideological perspectives and ethnic and trans ethnic identities from which Gordimer draws her subjects and their lives and depicts them through appropriate narrative techniques Nadine Gordimer s Fiction is a welcome addition to books on author studies literary criticism and South African culture and society It offers excellent material for both academic and non academic readers The style of writing used in the book is clear and simple yet powerful This can help the reader to appreciate the enormous achievement of Gordimer which has established her as a major literary figure in South Africa and beyond Dr Balasubramanyam Chandramohan PhD Shef FHEA Senior Research Fellow Institute of Commonwealth Studies School of Advanced Study University of London
