ABSTRACT

Nigeria is facing profound social, economic and environmental impact of population growth, development and environmental constraints. It is apparent that government alone has limited capacity to deal with all these problems. NGOs being one of the most effective partners have been playing supportive roles with the government, in some cases, they are considered more effective to get attached with the grass root level developmental initiatives. However, despite the role NGOs played, their presence and impact is not fully evaluated, recognized and appreciated by many governments and community members. It is for this reason this article attempts to examine whether projects executed by NGOs have any impact on sustainable development in Katsina Metropolis, given special emphasis on projects that dealt with environmental protection, poverty alleviation and health care services. The study further look at whether efficiency of NGOs officials has any impact on success of sustainable development projects execution. A structured questionnaire was used to

Nongovernmental Organizations In Malawi The Contribution To Development And Democratization

Anthony Bebbington, Graham Thiele

Nongovernmental Organizations In Malawi The Contribution To Development And Democratization:

Non-governmental Organizations in Malawi M. Glasgow, 1997 The role of Non Governmental Organizations in Africa has been widely discussed Malawi like other African countries underwent a transition towards pluralism and democratization The NGOs play a vital part in this process especially since state bureaucracies and market mechanisms do not provide the expected development But are NGOs really able to make up for the shortcomings of official institutions considering the problems that still lie ahead Taking their historical political economic and social environment into consideration the study draws a picture of NGOs in Africa with all their possibilities and limitations Competitive Authoritarianism Steven Levitsky, Lucan A. Way, 2010-08-16 Based on a detailed study of 35 cases in Africa Asia Latin America and post communist Eurasia this book explores the fate of competitive authoritarian regimes between 1990 and 2008 It finds that where social economic and technocratic ties to the West were extensive as in Eastern Europe and the Americas the external cost of abuse led incumbents to cede power rather than crack down which led to democratization Where ties to the West were limited external democratizing pressure was weaker and countries rarely democratized In these cases regime outcomes hinged on the character of state and ruling party organizations Where incumbents possessed developed and cohesive coercive party structures they could thwart opposition challenges and competitive authoritarian regimes survived where incumbents lacked such organizational tools regimes were unstable but rarely democratized Media, Development and Democracy Heloisa Pait, Juliana Laet, 2021-12-08 Sponsored by the Communication Information Technologies and Media Sociology section of the American Sociological Association CITAMS this 22nd volume in Studies in Media and Communications explores the complex construction of democratic public dialogue in developing countries Mission as God's Spiral of Renewal R.

Ross, 2019-02-06 In this remarkable volume covering diverse subjects in a span of three decades Kenneth R Ross articulates his views on the meaning and practice of Christian mission and challenges the binary view of mission that prevailed before the 1950s He further reflects on Scotland's experiences in the world wide Christian mission and demonstrates the centrality of Africa in any discourse on Christianity This volume is invaluable in its argument for a rethinking of Christian mission especially in relation to the West which is now a new frontier for Christian mission The book will be immensely beneficial to students of missiology and general readers who are interested in the subject of Christian Mission Non-Governmental Organizations and the State in Latin America Anthony Bebbington, Graham Thiele, 2023-06-16 This presents twenty specially commissioned case studies of farmer participatory approaches to agricultural innovation initiated by NGOs in Latin America Beginning with a broad review of institutional activity at the grassroots the authors set the case material within the context of NGO relations with the State and their contribution to democratisation and the consolidation of rural civil society Specific questions are raised how good bad are NGOs at promoting technological innovation and addressing constraints to change in present agriculture how effective are NGOs at strengthening grassroots organizations and how do will donor pressures influence NGOs and their links to the State This title is part of a series on Non Governmental Organizations co-ordinated by the Overseas Development Institute To complete this comprehensive review and critique there are two other regional case study volumes on Asia and Africa and an overview volume Reluctant Partners International African Bibliography ,2005 Non-Governmental Development Organizations and the Poverty Reduction Agenda Jonathan Makuwira,2013-12-04 The Non Governmental Development Organisations NGDOs have over the past two decades entered centre stage in their active participation in the social political and economic issues affecting both the developing and developed world This book offers a highly stimulating and concise summary of the NGDO sector by examining their history and metamorphosis their influence on the social political and economic landscapes of the Northern and Southern governments and societies The author analyses competing theoretical and conceptual debates not only regarding their contribution to the global social political dynamism but also on the sector's changing external influence as they try and mitigate poverty in marginalized communities This book presents NGDOs as multidimensional actors propelled by the desire to make a lasting change but constrained by market oriented approaches to development and other factors both internal and external to their environment While a lot of attention has been given to understanding international NGDOs like World Vision International Oxfam Care International and Plan International this book offers a critical analysis of grassroots organizations those NGDOs founded and established by locals and operate at the deepest end of the development contexts This work will be of interest to students and scholars in a range of areas including Development Studies International Organizations and Globalization Malawi's Second Democratic Elections Martin Ott,Kings Mbacazwa Phiri,Nandini Patel,2000 Policy and Governance in Post-Conflict Settings Puthsodary Tat,2019-08-13 Post conflict societies are commonly constructed as weak fragile and failed states Economic recovery risks of renewed violent conflict natural resource degradation and poverty alleviation become prioritized agendas of donor countries and international institutions Billions of dollars on development policy and governance reform have been invested However misapplication ineffectiveness and foreign aid dependency have become a controversial debate on whose policy whose governance and whose outcomes To understand the problems the author employs a blend of social constructionism and discourse theory to establish a platform for understanding and discussing hegemonic aid conditionality on recipient governments The theories also help analyze how the meanings of post conflict governance are socially economically and politically constructed and used in state building state apparatuses institutional building and policy making process He reveals that the philosophical and theoretical knowledge that underlies the interface between the mode of governance and policy design create the consensus of values norms and indicators between experts public servants donors and communities in post conflict settings The author also shares illuminating case studies by way of his considerable wealth of experience leading reconstructive efforts in Afghanistan and Cambodia A Current Bibliography on African Affairs ,1962 State Recognition and Democratization in Sub-Saharan Africa L.

Buur, H. Kyed, 2007-11-26 Being critical and empirically grounded the book explores the complex often counter balancing consequences of the involvement of traditional authority in the wave of democratization and liberal style state building that has rolled over sub Saharan Africa in the past decade Routledge Handbook of African Politics Nic Cheeseman, David Anderson, Andrea Scheibler, 2017-07-05 Providing a comprehensive and cutting edge examination of this important continent Routledge Handbook of African Politics surveys the key debates and controversies dealing with each of the major issues to be found in Africa's politics today Structured into 6 broad areas the handbook features over 30 contributions focused around The State Identity Conflict Democracy and Electoral Politics Political Economy Development International Relations Each chapter deals with a specific topic providing an overview of the main arguments and theories and explaining the empirical evidence that they are based on drawing on high profile cases such as the Democratic Republic of Congo Kenya Nigeria Somalia South Africa Rwanda and Zimbabwe The Handbook also contains new contributions on a wide range of topical issues including terrorism the growing influence of China civil war and transitional justice making it required reading for non specialists and experts alike Featuring both established scholars and emerging researchers this is a vital resource for all students of African Studies democratization conflict resolution and Third World politics Routledge Handbook of Democratization in Africa Gabrielle Lynch, Peter VonDoepp, 2019-07-02 This volume explores the issues and debates surrounding the ongoing processes of democratization in sub Saharan Africa illuminating the central dynamics characterizing Africa's democratic experiments and considering the connections between democratization and economic social and cultural developments on the continent Reflecting the diverse and rich nature of this field of study the Handbook of Democratization in Africa features more than thirty contributions structured into six thematic sections The politics and paths of regime development Institutional dynamics Political mobilization and voting dynamics The politics of identity Social forces from below The consequences of democracy Chapters offer overviews of the key scholarship on particular topics including central insights from the latest research and provide suggestions for those interested in further inquiry The material includes attention to broad cross continental patterns for example with respect to public opinion political violence or the role of different institutions and actors It also includes rich case material drawing on and highlighting the experiences of a diverse collection of countries Encouraging a comprehensive view of key concerns and enhancing understanding of particular issues the Handbook of Democratization in Africa represents a critical resource for experts and students of African politics democratization and African studies Defeating Authoritarian Leaders in Postcommunist Countries Valerie J. Bunce, Sharon L. Wolchik, 2011-06-30 From 1998 to 2005 six elections took place in postcommunist Europe that had the surprising outcome of empowering the opposition and defeating authoritarian incumbents or their designated successors Valerie J Bunce and Sharon L Wolchik compare these unexpected electoral breakthroughs They draw three conclusions First the opposition was victorious because of the hard and creative work of a transnational network composed of local opposition and civil society groups members of the international democracy assistance community and graduates of successful electoral challenges to authoritarian rule in other countries Second the remarkable run of these upset elections reflected the ability of this network to diffuse an ensemble of innovative electoral strategies across state boundaries Finally elections can serve as a powerful mechanism for democratic change This is especially the case when civil society is strong the transfer of political power is through constitutional means and opposition leaders win with small mandates Civil Society in a Democracy, 1995 Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs Appropriations for 2006 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Foreign Operations, Export Financing, and Related Programs, 2005 Congressional Presentation, Foreign Operations, 2000 Reviving Democracy Barry Knight, Rajesh Tandon, 2012-05-23 The aim of this text is to analyze the conditions for a good society and from extensive international research to show how citizens can be put at the centre of the political process This has enormous importance for future policy which the authors explore With support from the Commonwealth Foundation the book sets out to change the current political consensus and demonstrate the route forward to sustainable development Civil Society & Development Jude Howell, Jenny Pearce, 2001 Setting out to explore critically the way civil society has entered development thinking policy and practice as a paradigmatic concept of the 21st century Howell development studies U of Sussex and Pearce Latin American politics U of Bradford trace the historical path leading to the encounter between the ideas of development and civil society in the late 1980s and how donors have translated these into development policy and programs They find that there are competing normative visions which have deep roots in Western European political thought about the role of civil society in relation to the state and market both among donors and within the societies where donors are operating This leads to donors playing a major role in shaping the character of service provision They also argue that their study exposes the hitherto unexplored power of the market as opposed to solely the state to distort donor programs c Book News Inc Malawi Country Study Guide Volume 1 Strategic Information and Developments IBP USA,
