Nononsense Guide To Islam:

The No-nonsense Guide to Islam Ziauddin Sardar, Merryl Wyn Davies, 2004 Even before 11 September 2001 Muslims were generally viewed in the West as enemies of freedom and progress Yet there is far more to Islam than the stereotypical Occidental view This No Nonsense Guide looks at how Islam a complex faith and civilization can reconcile itself with the twenty first century Critically minded Muslims everywhere are rethinking and reformulating Islam as a contemporary moral and ethical force Merryl Wyn Davies and Zia Sardar explain the Islamic worldview examining the Qur an and Islamic law sharia Islam in history Islam s relationship with the West and its contemporary nature They analyse the struggle within the faith for a more humane and holistic interpretation of their religion examine the issues surrounding women democracy and economic development and suggest how we can all move forward after 9 11

The No-nonsense Guide to Islam Ziauddin Sardar, Merryl Wyn Davies, 2007 A balanced portrayal of real Islam looking beyond the common perceptions and polemical debates It shows what Islam has achieved and shows why a better understanding of Muslims is needed throughout the world But it also explains why Islam needs to make itself more relevant by showing it can create a tolerant and peaceful society and explores the steps for reform A plain speaking independent view that informs current debates and puts modern developments into the context of the history of Islam and its people

No-Nonsense Guide To Islam , The No-nonsense Guide to Tourism Pamela Nowicka, 2007 Demystifies the often invisible impacts of global tourism one of the biggest industries in the world From labour conditions to development by stealth to the role of elites and the cultural impacts on both the visitor and the visited The No Nonsense Guides are the most accessible and enjoyable means for people with hurried lives to find out how the world really works George Monbiot Guardian columnist and author of Captive State

The No-nonsense Guide to International Migration Peter Stalker, 2008 Social sciences

No-Nonsense Guide to Global Terrorism, 2nd Edition Jonathan Barker, 2008-09-01 Terrorism and counter terrorism have become key points in political talk and government policy This No Nonsense Guide has been revised and updated to take account of the major changes in global terrorism over the past seven years Jonathan Barker presents a highly accessible history of terrorism that looks at examples from the Middle East and elsewhere instances of state terrorism and the terrorist fringes of political movements He also delves beneath the surface offering political and moral analysis of the causes and contexts of terrorism the theories that justify and guide terrorist acts and the battle of images that accompanies them

The No-nonsense Guide to Global Media Peter Steven, 2003 The power and influence of the mass media grows daily crucially affecting the way all of us see and understand each other The No Nonsense Guide to Global Media introduces readers to the political economy of the major media film television radio recording publishing and the Internet Peter Steven looks at the ever greater concentration of ownership and at the convergence of technologies and media functions At the same time he emphasizes the diversity of local media production and media around the world The media is more than the economics of ownership and the technology of production he stresses it is also audiences in all their annoying and wonderful diversity The No-Nonsense Guide to World Health Shereen Usdin, 2007 A history of modern healthcare shows that public health is largely determined by socio economic factors The No-nonsense Guide to Terrorism Jonathan Barker, 2003 Terrorist or freedom fighter Analyzing the causes and contexts of terrorism the world over Barker guides readers through the moral and political theories justifying and guiding terrorist acts The No-nonsense Guide to International Development Maggie Black, 2007 Building dams in India planting trees in Burkina Faso rescuing street children in Brazil these are images of aid and international development with which we can all identify However what passes for development all too often improves life for the better off while actively hurting the very people the venture was meant to support Maggie Black exposes the hypocrisy and reveals a more accurate picture of what is happening in development's name arguing for a process to be put in place that truly defends the interests of poor people The No-nonsense Guide to the United Nations Maggie Black, 2008 Conveys the complexity of the UN assesses its record and considers options for reform The No-Nonsense Guide to Sexual Diversity Vanessa Baird, 2007-10-01 The treatment of sexual minorities whether lesbian gay bisexual or transgender varies significantly in different parts of the world In some countries equal rights have been achieved and progress is being made against discrimination in others being gay still incurs the death penalty This guide examines all the colors of the sexual rainbow unearths hidden histories and looks at contributions from medicine and science It also includes a unique global survey of laws that affect sexual minorities Vanessa Baird has been co editor at New Internationalist magazine since 1986 Her previous books include as compiler and editor Eye to Eye Women The No-nonsense Guide to Water Maggie Black, 2004 Water sustains life without it humans cannot survive for more than a few days And yet this precious fluid is becoming increasingly politicized as the debates about control and ownership of water itself and of the many organizations which govern its use gain force Maggie Black explores the many roles water plays in human life and as the defense of water rights looks set to become an explosive issue provides a clear overview on the vital issues of distribution technology irrigation land use and commodification The No-nonsense Guide to Conflict and Peace Peter Greener, 2006 This invaluable guide is excellent for students peace groups and activists With tables maps case studies and quotes it looks at how conflict escalates and ways it can be prevented It examines the changing types of war including the War on Terror and ethnic conflict such as in Rwanda the role of diplomacy and the UN and what steps ordinary people are taking to rebuild communities It also offers ideas and inspiration for creating lasting peace The No-Nonsense Guide to Fair Trade David Ransom, 2006-10-01 Meeting the people who grow our bananas and cocoa and make our clothes this No Nonsense Guide to Fair Trade tells the human story behind what we consume Examining the global contest between free and fair trade David Ransom argues that the key question is not whether trade should be regulated or deregulated but whether it is to be the master or servant of the people And as fair trade products are being turned into brands by large corporations a new contest opens it is no longer just a question of fair versus free but what kind of fair trade The No-nonsense Guide to World Music Louise Gray, 2009 A look behind the catch all term world music aiming to explore the reasons for the contemporary interest in world music who its audience is and why it has become such a popular genre Through chapters on the many different genres that make up this multi faceted area the case for music as a powerful harmonising tool is aptly put forward The No-nonsense Guide to Religion Symon Hill, 2010 Religion is a term which is often used in the media and public life without any clarification However it is a word that encompasses hundreds of different beliefs It is also a loaded word that has a different meaning for each person Religion can be seen as a source of war and peace love and hate dialogue and narrow mindedness Today thanks to the globalisation of communications more people than ever before belong to a different religious community than their parents This No Nonsense Guide considers how religion has shaped culture The No-nonsense Guide to World History Chris Brazier, 2001 This guide integrates concisely the conventional narratives of history with the stories of the continents and communities of Asia Africa and Latin America The No-nonsense Guide to World Poverty Jeremy Seabrook, 2007 The world is wealthier than ever yet the gap between rich and poor is getting bigger Jeremy Seabrook summarises his celebrated work on the meaning of poverty drawing on the experience of poor people in both rich and poor societies He concludes that the opposite of poverty is not wealth but sufficiency the relatively poor majority of the world s people do not aim to be rich but to be safe Economic growth will never overcome the problems that it is largely responsible for creating This is a call for radical thinking about the way we live The No-nonsense Guide to Women's Rights Nikki van der Gaag, 2004 How much has life really changed for women during the last decade Has the womens movement affected women all over the world Has it changed womens relationships with men Nikki van der Gaag answers these questions with hard sometimes disturbing evidence Many women have made huge leaps forward in legal rights political representation employment education health but beneath the surface the statistics are shocking Vivid testimonies from women and men around the world explain why especially in this post feminist age womens rights are still very much an issue for men and women alike She has made a special effort to correct many of the misconceptions and biases related to the feminist movement to link the liberation of women who constitute half of society to the liberation of men and to the dispossessed majority living on earth from the introduction by Nawal El Saadawi
