The Challenge of the Social and the Pressure of Practice Martin Carrier, Don Howard, Janet A. Kourany, 2008-01-20 In The Challenge of the Social and the Pressure of Practice philosophers sociologists and historians of science offer a multidisciplinary view of the complex interrelationships of values in science and society in both contemporary and historic contexts They analyze the impact of commercialization and politicization on epistemic aspirations and conversely the ethical dilemmas raised by practically relevant science in today's society For example much scientific research over the past quarter century has been guided by the financing that supports it What effect has this had on the quality of research produced and the advancement of real knowledge The contributors reveal how social values affect objectivity theory and the direction of inquiry and examine the byproducts of external value systems in topics such as expertise and socially robust knowledge among others They view science's own internal value systems the earlier disconnection of societal values from the scientific process and the plausibility of value free science The Challenge of the Social and the Pressure of Practice presents an in depth analysis that places the role of values at the center of philosophical debate and raises questions of morality credibility and the future role of values in scientific inquiry

Research Design for Social Work and the Human Services Jeane W. Anastas, 2000-01-28 Research Design for Social Work and the Human Services integrates a range of research techniques into a single epistemological framework and presents a balanced approach to the teaching of research methods in the helping professions Jeane W Anastas begins with a discussion of the different philosophical perspectives within which social research occurs and continues with problem formulation research design and methodological issues influencing data collection analysis and dissemination She presents both fixed quantitative and flexible qualitative methods of research granting legitimacy value utility and relevance to both styles of inquiry Utilizing complete case studies to illustrate different methodological approaches Research Design for Social Work and the Human Services integrates material on women and people of color and draws attention to the ways racism heterosexism sexism and classism affect the conceptualization and conduct of research Anastas not only exposes these biases but actively addresses the experiences needs and concerns of clients of both genders and different races ethnicities sexual orientations cultures and classes Gender, Race, and Nation Vanaja Dhruvarajan, Jill Vickers, 2002-01-01 Dhruvarajan and Vickers call into question feminism's presumed universality of gender analysis and bring to the foreground the voices of marginalized women in Western society and of women outside of the western world Safe Spaces Cornelia Roux, 2012-10-26 This book examines the crucial issues affecting Human Rights Education in contexts of culture religious and societal diversity It exhibits an impressive scholarly achievement capturing and combining the insights of both established academics and emerging researchers Each author succeeds in distilling the knowledge of their particular fields of interest as well as conveying the essence of their intuitive understanding and the richness of the context This book considers a variety of connected content and methodological issues in three major sections Philosophical and policy perspectives Gender discourses diverse perspectives and Discourses on narratives as safe spaces The Edition is further strengthened by allowing international reviewers the opportunity of engaging with the contributors in the Introduction and Conclusion an innovative departure from conventional formats and which will provide a global perspective to the readers The focus of the various chapters succeeds in establishing both a foundation and platform for dialogue surrounding human rights and human rights education in modern policy and governance Aptly named Safe Spaces the Edition offers in depth and credible safe nuances spaces in terms of the somewhat reified concept of human rights at a time when human rights remains a highly topical and contested international issue As such the book imparts an immense scope of theoretical and empirical perspectives reflected by the distinguished intellectuals who navigate the terrain of their respective disciplines with profound erudition This book represents a collaborative effort of immeasurable value This exemplary edition is both timeless and will prove timeless Feminist Dilemmas In Fieldwork Diane L. Wolf, 2018-03-05 Fieldwork poses particular dilemmas and contradictions for feminists because of the power relations inherent in the process of gathering data and implicit in the process of representation Although most feminist scholars are committed to seeking ethical ways to analyze women and gender these dilemmas are especially acute in fieldwork where research often entails working with those who are in less privileged positions than the researcher Despite attempts by feminist scholars to conduct more interactive and egalitarian research they have rarely been able to disrupt the hierarchies of power This book offers an interdisciplinary exploration of the kinds of dilemmas feminist researchers have confronted in the field both in the United States and in Third World countries Through experientially based writings the authors unravel the contradictions stemming from their multiple positions as insiders outsiders or both and from attempts to equalize the research relationship and in some cases to ameliorate the situation of those studied The introductory essay includes an extensive review of the literature

The Health Project Book Dr Neil Wood, Neil Wood, 2002-04-12 A practical handbook already tried and tested on students Based on the considerable experience of the author s work in guiding and supervising students Material covers up to date research methods such as the Internet and CD ROM facilities Long term sales potential both UK and internationally
