Nontraditional Security In The Asiapacific The Dynamics Of Securitisation Nontraditional Security In Asia:

Non-traditional Security in the Asia-Pacific Ralf Emmers, 2004 This work studies the non traditional security agenda in the Asia Pacific focusing particularly on the dynamics of securitisation It questions why and how some issues are securitised and examines the policy outcomes that derive from securitising these concerns The conceptual discussion draws upon but also modifies the theory of securitisation and desecuritisation originally advanced by the Copenhagen School The empirical study analyses Thailand's securitisation of drug trafficking Singapore's combined securitisation of sea piracy and maritime terrorism and Australia's securitisation of people smuggling These various issues can be defined as forms of transnational crime The case studies consider the rhetoric used by the three countries concerned as well as their policy responses at the unilateral bilateral and multilateral level READERSHIP Academics policy makers and administrators and those interested in the study of regionalism and regional security The Asia-Pacific Security Lexicon David H. Capie, Paul M. Evans, 2007 Identifies and defines the concepts and ideas central to security discourse in the Pacific region This book looks at how concepts such as human security and non traditional security have evolved and found adherents

Non-Traditional Security Issues in North Korea Kyung-Ae Park, 2013-07-31 The concept of security has undergone significant change in the past few decades Traditionally thought of in terms of the state centric militarily focused realist discourse the concept of security has been broadened to include a greater number of potential threats and an increased number of relevant actors Yet despite the great changes in security scholarship the vast majority of studies on North Korea continue to focus primarily on the country's nuclear weapons program its military and other traditional security issues surrounding Pyongyang While North Korea captures headlines with its aggressive behavior and growing nuclear arsenal the ground level threats to average everyday North Koreans go largely unnoticed This groundbreaking volume seeks to refocus research on North Korean security from the traditional to largely unexplored non traditional security NTS issues In the wake of political succession to Kim Jung Un the issue of non traditional security is increasingly important From the lasting effects of the famine of the 1990s to continued food shortages and the growing marketization of North Korean society the Pyongyang regime is facing diverse and unprecedented challenges This book offers cutting edge analyses of emerging North Korean NTS issues by the world's leading specialists in the field It looks at these issues and their effects at the local regional and international level as well as examining the international community's efforts to promote an NTS approach to North Korea More specifically the volume addresses the traditional and non traditional security paradigms energy security gender security transnational organized crime the internal and external dimensions of North Korea's food security the Responsibility to Protect refugee issues and international law and the role of NGOs in promoting NTS in North Korea As the global community begins to move toward a more people centered approach to security and foreign policy work such as that presented in this thought provoking volume will be increasingly vital to scholars policymakers and interested citizens
