most brutal cruelty While Ma Jian wrote The Dark Road he traveled through the rural backwaters of southwestern China to see how the state enforced the one child policy far from the outside world's prying eyes He met local women who had been seized from their homes and forced to undergo abortions or sterilization in the policy's name and on the Yangtze River he lived among fugitive couples who had gone on the run so they could have more children that most fundamental of human rights Like all of Ma Jian's novels The Dark Road is also a celebration of the life force of the often comically stubborn resilience of man's most basic instincts
