Noran Bang The Yellow Room:

Noran Bang Myung Jin Kang, 1999 The death of a beloved grandmother ignites a wave of explosive emotions in a Canadian Korean family in the late 1970s Reading Without Maps? Den Tandt Christophe (ed.), 2005 Among the intellectual debates of the last forty years the critique of cultural canons has attracted the highest share of public attention stirring academic educational and media controversies on both sides of the Atlantic Postmodernism feminism postcolonialism and multiculturalism have refashioned the attitudes of educators and audiences towards cultural memory opening up curricula to subjects and traditions previously excluded from the humanities Predictably these new critical practices have triggered heated responses from commentators fearing that culture and education might thereby be deprived of their capacity to provide audiences and learners with proper groundings and landmarks The present volume gathers contributions that throw light on multiple aspects of this reconfiguration of cultural memory It brings together essays focusing on the dynamics of canon formation in several fields literature drama film and music Contributors examine how writers and communities find their bearings in a cultural landscape more complex than that previously envisaged by advocates of the Great Tradition Specifically the present essays throw light on the status of modernist writing drama in English or popular genres within the new canonical topography elaborated at the turn of the twenty first century “Mouths on Fire with Songs”. Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today's globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity Inspired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today Speaking in Tongues Marvin Carlson, 2010-04-23 Speaking in Tongues presents a unique account of how language has been employed in the theatre not simply as a means of communication but also as a stylistic and formal device and for a number of cultural and political operations The use of multiple languages in the contemporary theatre is in part a reflection of a more globalized culture but it also calls attention to how the mixing of language has always been an important part of the functioning of theatre The book begins by investigating various levels of language high and low style prose and poetry and the ways in which these have been used historically to mark social positions and relationships It next considers some of the political and historical implications of dialogue theatre as well as theatre that literally employs several languages from classical Greek examples to the postmodern era Carlson treats with special attention the theatre of the postcolonial world and especially the triangulation of the local language the national language and the colonial language drawing on examples of theatre in the Caribbean Africa Australia and New Zealand Finally Carlson considers the layering of languages in the theatre such as the use of supertitles or simultaneous signing Speaking in Tongues draws important social and political conclusions about the role of language in cultural power making a vital contribution to the fields of theatre and performance Marvin Carlson is Sidney E Cohn Professor of Theatre and Comparative Literature CUNY Graduate Center He is author of Performance A Critical Introduction Theories of the Theatre A Historical and Critical Survey from the Greeks to the Present and The Haunted Stage The Theatre as Memory Machine among many other books

Signatures of the Past Marc Maufort, Caroline De Wagter, 2008 In the last decades of the twentieth century North American drama has powerfully enacted the problematic notions of cultural memory and identity as the essays assembled in this critical anthology demonstrate Echoing Derrida's non essentialist interpretation of the term signature this collection provides an innovative focus on North American theatre and drama as a site of latent cultural memories In this volume the concept of cultural memory offers a privileged vantage point from which to redefine issues of diasporic identities exilic predicaments and multi ethnic subject positions at the dawn of a new century Playwrights examined here include noted Canadian and US artists such as Marie Clements Eva Ensler Lorraine Hansberry Tomson Highway Cherr e Moraga Djanet Sears Guillermo Verdecchia August Wilson and Chay Yew to cite but a few In the process of remembering North American dramatists develop new aesthetic modes in which the signatures of the past merge with the present and foreshadow an imagined future

Asianfail Eleanor Ty, 2017-03-21 Eleanor Ty's bold exploration of literature plays and film reveals how young Asian Americans and Asian Canadians have struggled with the ethos of self sacrifice preached by their parents This new generation's narratives focus on protagonists disenchanted with their daily lives Many are depressed Some are haunted by childhood memories of war trauma and refugee camps Rejecting an obsession with professional status and money they seek fulfillment by prioritizing relationships personal growth and cultural success As Ty shows these storytellers have done more than reject a narrowly defined road to happiness They have rejected neoliberal capitalism itself In so doing they demand that the rest of us reconsider our outmoded ideas about the so called model minority
