Young People Making It Work Hernan Cuervo,Johanna Wyn,2012-08-01 Young People Making it Work examines a generation s lives in rural Australia over the last two decades Against a backdrop of dramatic social economic and environmental change the book tells the story of how a generation of young people have strived to remain connected to the people and places that matter to them It transcends the assumption that rural places are one of deficit and disadvantage to focus on the ways in which powerful narratives of belonging are conceptualised Now aged in their late thirties these are participants in the Youth Research Centre s Life Patterns longitudinal study who left school in the early 1990s They are members of generation X and like their peers in urban places they have used education to achieve their goals Their stories reveal the powerful influence of both family and place on the decisions they have made since leaving secondary school Cuervo and Wyn draw on contemporary theory from sociology cultural geography and youth studies to provide new insights about youth transitions and young adulthood that are relevant not only to the rural context but to all young people

Rethinking Rural Literacies Michael Corbett,2013-06-12 The chapters in this international collection investigate a wide range of theorizations of rurality and literacy literate practices and pedagogies questions of place space and sustainability and representations of rurality that challenge simplistic conceptions of standardized literacy and the real and imagined world beyond the metropolis Yearbook of International Organizations ,1989 Nordic Media Histories of Propaganda and Persuasion Fredrik Norén,Emil Stjernholm,C. Claire Thomson,2022-10-14 This open access edited volume shines new light on the history of propaganda and persuasion during the Nordic welfare epoch A common analytical framework is developed that highlights transnational and transmedial perspectives rather than national or monomedial histories The return of propaganda in contemporary debate underlines the need to historically contextualize the role and function of persuasive communication activities in the Nordic region and beyond Building on an empirically situated approach the chapters in this volume break new ground by covering a range of themes from cultural diplomacy and nation branding to media materiality and information infrastructures In doing so the book stresses that the Nordic welfare epoch with its associated epithet the Nordic Model was built not only on governance social security and economic productivity but also on propaganda and persuasion

Queerness in Play Todd Harper,Meghan Blythe Adams,Nicholas Taylor,2018-10-19 Queerness in Play examines the many ways queerness of all kinds from queer as LGBT to other less well covered aspects of the queer spectrum intersects with games and the social contexts of play The current unprecedented visibility of queer creators and content comes at a high tide of resistance to the inclusion of those outside a long imagined cisgender heterosexual white male norm By critically engaging the ways games as a culture an industry and a medium help reproduce limiting binary formations of gender and sexuality Queerness in Play contributes to the growing body of scholarship promoting more inclusive understandings of identity sexuality and games
