Hicks, 1991 The author argues that virtue is the fruit of learning and should be taught in the classroom The second half of the book includes a proposed curriculum with work ranging from maths sciences art languages humane letters to physical education and the problems of knowledge and faith

A Radical Proposal to Reinvigorate the Teaching of the Liberal Arts Michael Wayne Santos, 2020-09-15 This book offers a clarion call in the words of Franklin Roosevelt to try something And not just any something A systematic integrated chronological multi disciplinary approach to reinvigorate the teaching of the liberal arts and put them back where they belong at the center of a student's educational experience It does not pretend to offer a cure all or a one size fits all solution to everything that is ailing American higher education or even secondary education It does however offer a place to begin a discussion to invite experimentation and to initiate reform based on solid pedagogy and 2 500 years of time tested wisdom in the human experience As such it should be of interest to many people Those in higher education serious about the crisis facing their institutions could benefit from taking up the gauntlet this volume throws down For students and parents the book raises alternatives and poses some hard questions that they should be asking not only as they consider colleges and universities but of their secondary schools In fact anyone who keeps a close eye on the state of education would be interested in what this book adds to the discussion The Well-Trained Mind: A Guide to Classical Education at Home (Third Edition) Susan Wise Bauer, Jessie Wise, 2009-05-04 You do have control over what and how your child learns The Well Trained Mind will give you the tools you ll need to teach your child with confidence and success BOOK JACKET How To Get a Life, Vol. 1: Empowering Wisdom for the Heart and Soul Lawrence Baines, Ph.D., Daniel McBrayer, Ph.D., 2003-04 Presented in an easy to digest format with an uplifting message How to Get a Life offers individual chapters on the life views of some of the most important and powerful people in history Written in an engaging style by college professors Lawrence Baines and Daniel McBrayer each chapter contains a brief biographical sketch with that luminary s advice for daily living Take a trip on How to Get a Life and learn easy to understand advice from some of the world s greatest thinkers on The importance of relationships How to get over misunderstandings How to rise above mediocrity What to do when things go wrong Along with topics ranging from God and the universe to conceptions of love sex and death historical figures featured include Martin Luther King Jr Joseph Campbell Bill Wilson Gerda Weissmann Klein Albert Schweitzer Oprah Winfrey Buddha Leo Buscaglia Jane Goodall the Dalai Lama Muhammad Confucius and Richard of St Victor A Report from the Front Lines Michael Shahan, 2009 In tribute to the ongoing influence of Robert Benne director of the Center for Religion and Society at Roanoke College fourteen of his friends and colleagues have produced A Report from the Front Lines in which they consider the role of theology in the public arena at this turn of the twenty first century They speak powerfully to the cultural paralysis of the Western world where educated leaders claim that morality must not interfere with science or public policy by showing the relevance of orthodox Christianity to humanity s most pressing problems The constant theme weaving through the volume is Benne s own conviction that Christians can and must engage in the public square with positions forged out of their religious commitments using arguments whose presuppositions allow room for special revelation but whose resultant logic is translated into a shared universal rationality Book Jacket For the Love of Learning Jenny Sockey, 2002-06 Jenny Sockey, 2002-06-01 An Unexpected Journal: Joy Jasmin Biggs, Donald W.
