Performing Nordic Heritage Lizette Gradén, 2016-05-13 The performance of heritage takes place in prestigious institutions such as museums and archives in officially sanctioned spaces such as jubilees and public monuments but also in more mundane ephemeral and banal cultural practices such as naming of phenomena viewing exhibitions or walking in the countryside This volume examines the performance of Nordic heritage and the shaping of the very idea of Norden in diverse contexts in North America the Baltic and the Nordic countries and examines the importance of these places as sites for creating and preserving cultural heritage Offering rich perspectives on a part of Europe which has not been the centre of discussion in the Anglophone world this volume will be of value to a wide readership including cultural historians museum practitioners policy makers and scholars of heritage ethnology and folkloristics Viking Heritage and History in Europe Sara Ellis

Nilsson,Stefan Nyzell,2024-03-06 Viking Heritage and History in Europe presents new research and perspectives on the use of the Vikings in public history especially in relation to museums re creation and re enactment in a European context Taking a critical heritage approach the volume provides new insights into the re creation of history imagining the past interpretation ambivalence of authenticity authority of History remembrance and memory medievalism and public history Highlighting the complexity of the field of public history today the fourteen chapters all engage with questions of historical authenticity and authority The volume also critically examines the public s reception engagement with and interpretation of the Viking Age and the concepts of who these individuals were Each chapter illuminates an aspect of these themes in relation to museums leisure activities politics tourism re enactment and popular culture all from the vantage point of Viking cultural heritage Viking Heritage and History in Europe is one of the first volumes to examine the use and role of the Vikings within the field of public history both past and present The book will be of interest to those engaged in the study of heritage public history history the Vikings vikingism medievalism and media history Nordic Sagas as Children's Literature Velma Bourgeois

Richmond,2023-08-25 This book examines translations of Icelandic sagas and the Victorian and Edwardian children s literature they inspired some of which are canonical while others are forgotten It covers authors like William Morris Henry Wadsworth Longfellow Thomas Gray Walter Scott H Rider Haggard W H Auden John Greenleaf Whittier and more In lavish volumes and modest schoolbooks British and American writers claimed Nordic heritage and explored Nordic traditions The sagas offered a rich and wide ranging source for these authors Volsunga saga s Sigurd the dragon slayer King Olaf s saga of opposing Nordic Gods and Christianity Frithiof s model of headstrong youth beset with unfair opposition and lost love Grettir and Njal tell of men who accepted fate and met conflict and enemies unflinchingly Aslaug Gudrida Hallberga and Hervar exerted remarkable influence and Eric the Red and Leif the Lucky provided Americans with a Nordic heritage of discovery

In Search of Vikings Stephen E. Harding,David Griffiths,Elizabeth Royles,2014-12-19 This book presents a collection of papers from experts in a broad range of disciplines including history archaeology genetics and linguistics to provide a detailed understanding of the Vikings in peace and in war It focuses on one particularly exciting area of the Viking world namely the north west section of England where they are known to have settled in large numbers The 12 integrated studies in this book are designed to reinvigorate the search for Vikings in this crucial region and to provide must reading for anyone interested in Viking history      Publications of the Society for the Advancement of Scandinavian Study Society for the Advancement of Scandinavian Study (U.S.),1914      A Scandinavian Heritage Joan Magee,1996-08-10 A Scandinavian Heritage surveys the numerous contributions made in this area by the people of 5 nations Denmark Norway Sweden Finland and Iceland The history of these people from the first settlers to the present is explored in detail      The Perfect Volume Kristin Melum Eide,Marc Fryd,2021-07-15 Drawing on the data and history from a wide range of languages from Atayal to Zapotec this volume brings together leading scholars in the field of tense and aspect research resulting in 18 contributions on the perfect and some of its close relatives e g iamitives Different approaches complement each other to shed light on the source emergence grammaticalization and the typological extension of perfect constructions cross linguistically One focal point is the so called aoristic drift where the perfect comes to resemble the simple past or aorist often via the hodiernal today reading The semantics and pragmatics of perfects are also investigated through their interaction with other categories e g negation mood Over time some perfects undergo auxiliary doubling or omission or the auxiliary becomes subject to selection These facts also receive special attention in this book presenting new insights on perfects in both well studied as well as very understudied languages      The Heritage Tourist Experience Dallen J. Timothy,2017-05-15 This three volume reference series provides an authoritative and comprehensive set of volumes collecting together the most influential articles and papers on tourism heritage and culture The papers have been selected and introduced by Dallen Timothy one of the leading international scholars in tourism research The second volume The Heritage Tourist Experience focuses on the nature of the heritage experience the demand for heritage and managing visitors and their experiences Sold individually and as a set this series will prove an essential reference work for scholars and students in geography tourism and heritage studies cultural studies and beyond      Heritage and Identity J.M. Fladmark,Thor Heyerdahl,2015-11-17 Was the shaping of nation states in Northern Europe governed by military might or by Christian and democratic ideals How has trade and cross cultural exchange between Scandinavia and the British Isles shaped our historic identities and what about the impact of global politics and marketing in recent times These are some of the questions explored by the contributors in the context of forces that shape national identities today Their analysis highlights the need for historical awareness when developing future cultural policy brand profiles and marketing strategies Looking back Jesse Byock tells how democracy was first embraced in the north by the early settlers of Iceland Bjorn Myhre delves into the unpredictability of historical interpretation Edward Cowan discusses the role of battles and beddings in relations across the North Sea John Purkis writes about William Morris fascination with Nordic culture Stephen Harrison presents the winning ways of product development and marketing by Manx National Heritage whilst Chris Powell looks at Cool Britannia today and Simon Anholt at national branding strategies This is an inspirational book that sheds new light on old subjects equally relevant for both public and private sector policy makers alike     Heritage, Democracy and the Public Torgrim Sneve Guttormsen, Grete Swensen, 2016-12-05 What is the significance of heritage for how welfare is defined What function does heritage have in the public realm and how is heritage becoming a resource for citizens to gain influence in society Who and what defines the public debates and the politics about heritage Is there a knowledge gap between research communities management and the public understanding and use of heritage These are some of the questions that the authors of this book reflect upon They provide Nordic perspectives on how the management of the past takes place and how it is carried out in the service of the society offering new interpretations of the role of heritage in present society where institutional heritage management has become just one of the many and multiple ways in which different publics engage with cultural heritage This book addresses the main challenges faced by heritage managers today in light of the changing understanding of heritage in society     Seattle Public Sculptors Fred F. Poyner IV, 2017-05-03 From Seattle s earliest days as a Gold Rush boomtown to its celebration of the future during the 1962 World s Fair local artists have created public art installations statuary reliefs and other sculpture that have become familiar features of the city s landscape This comprehensive study of 12 Seattle sculptors and their works examines the motivations of the artists and their benefactors the development of the city s public art policy and the political forces behind the pieces that are now part of the city s rich history Biographical details and historical perspective are provided for such artists as Lorado Taft Alice Robertson Carr John Carl Ely Max P Nielsen August Werner and James FitzGerald     Library and Information Sciences in Arctic and Northern Studies Spencer Acadia, 2024-05-17 The role of library and information sciences LIS in for and about Arctic and Northern studies is underexplored This book examines the intersection of LIS and Arctic Northern scholarship research and study by considering the Arctic and North as a global information knowledge society demonstrates practical and applied ways that librarians archivists curators and other information scholars and professionals can participate and have participated in real activities within Arctic and Northern environments explains how LIS as a discipline focused on data information and knowledge has a significant role to play in Arctic and Northern endeavours and emphasises the inter multi disciplinary nature of what are Arctic studies and Northern studies and the placement of LIS into that structure Even though LIS has historically been overlooked in Northern and Arctic matters this book suggests that LIS is in a remarkable position to add value to future Arctic Northern studies This book is of interest to scientists researchers scholars educators professionals and students globally working in Northern and Arctic contexts and or with Northern and Arctic pursuits in mind     The Immigration History Newsletter , 1991     The Northern Earldoms Barbara E. Crawford, 2013-08-08 The medieval earldoms of Orkney and Caithness were positioned between two worlds the Norwegian and the Scottish They were a maritime lordship divided or united by the turbulent waters of the Pentland Firth This unlikely combination of island and mainland territory survived as a single lordship for 600 years against the odds Growing out of the Viking maelstrom of the early Middle Ages it became an established and wealthy principality which dominated northern waters with a renowned dynasty of earls Despite their peripheral location these earls were fully in touch with the kingdoms of Norway and Scotland and increasingly subject to the rulers of these kingdoms How they maintained their independence and how they survived the clash of loyalties are themes explored in this book from the early Viking age to the late medieval era when the powerful feudal Sinclair earls ruled the islands and regained possession of Caithness This is a story of the time when the Northern Isles of Scotland were part of a different national entity which explains the background to the non Gaelic culture of this locality when links across the North Sea were as important as links with the kingdom of Scotland to the south

Ethnologia Europaea vol. 40:2 , The Historical Imagination in Nineteenth-Century Britain and the Low Countries Hugh Dunthorne, Michael Wintle, 2012-11-01 The 19th century laid the foundations of history both professional and popular The authors of this collection compare Britain the Netherlands and Belgium unearthing the ways in which history was conceived and then utilized usually for nationalistic purposes

Decolonial Heritage Aníbal Arregui, Gesa Mackenthun, Stephanie Wodianka, 2018 The volume attempts to triangulate three vibrant discourses of our times It combines postcolonial and decolonial readings of cultural conflicts with assessments of ecological dimensions of those conflicts as well as their significance within discourses on natural and cultural world heritage The examples from four continents range from the medieval Middle East already shaken by a convergence of ecological and social disaster to modern imaginary constructions of medieval Vikings the persistence of Indigenous knowledge in the Arctic literary poetics of patrimony and the heritage politics of Mediterranean urban architecture Authors ask which strategies societies in developing countries use to defend their cultural and ecological uniqueness and integrity while being penetrated by environmental hazards and hegemonizing Western forms of heritage culture or how western societies construct their own past in ways that are sometimes reminiscent of traditional imaginations of a pre modern past petrified eternally in an ideal moment of time Colonial and historical forms of heritagization of human and non human environments the essays show answer to pressing emotional needs for a sense of stability But the desire for nostalgia frequently commodified tends to collide with the similarly pressing need for political and economic survival in a rapidly changing world and in the face of accelerating extraction practices Without being able to solve this dilemma the volume makes an interdisciplinary contribution to taking intellectual stake of the asymmetrical politics and poetics of heritage and collective cultural memory
