Nursing Education In A Changing Society:

Nursing Education in a Changing Society Mary Q. Innis, Nursing Education in a Changing Society Mary Q. Innis, 1970-12-15 Rapid social change and the advances made in the field of health care have greatly changed the role and function of the nurse in the last fifty years Nursing is now almost a full fledged profession This book celebrates the fiftieth anniversary of the School of Nursing of the University of Toronto The field it covers is wide and varied from care of the sick by the nuns of early Quebec to the development of pre paid nursing plans from concepts of bedside nursing to delivery health services There are long looks into the future of nursing education and health care which include descriptions of health science centres diagnosis by computer and treatment centres in outer space The book sketches the history of this pioneer school of nursing surveys nursing legislation and examines the rise of the public health nurse and the nursing assistant Essays contributed by leading Canadian authorities show a wide range of opinion one writer wants to see the scope of nursing education enlarged another thinks it is too broad already At a time when nursing education is becoming an increasingly controversial subject this book will be of interest and value to all those in the health field Education for a Changing World of Work United States. Panel of Consultants on Vocational Education, United States. Office of Education, 1963 Handbook of Research on Education and Technology in a Changing Society Wang, Victor C. X., 2014-05-31 Technology has become an integral part of our everyday lives This trend in ubiquitous technology has also found its way into the learning process at every level of education The Handbook of Research on Education and Technology in a Changing Society offers an in depth description of concepts related to different areas issues and trends within education and technological integration in modern society This handbook includes definitions and terms as well as explanations of concepts and processes regarding the integration of technology into education Addressing all pertinent issues and concerns in education and technology in our changing society with a wide breadth of discussion this handbook is an essential collection for educators academicians students researchers and librarians Nursing Education in this Changing World California. Board of Nursing Education and Nurse Registration, 1958 Changing Women, Changing History Diana Lynn Pedersen, 1996 Changing Women Changing History is a bibliographic guide to the scholarship both English and French on Canadian s women s history Organized under broad subject headings and accompanied by author and subject indices it is accessible and comprehensive Higher Education in a Sustainable Society Hans Chr. Garmann Johnsen, Stina Torjesen, Richard Ennals, 2015-03-28 This book addresses the following question What is a sustainable society and how can higher education help us to develop toward it The core argument put forward is that the concept of sustainability reaches much farther than just the direct aspects of environmental threats and carbon emissions Using higher education as a point of departure the book shows that sustainability involves a broad range of disciplines from nursing and nutrition to technology and management It argues that a sustainable society entails a distinct perspective on society that influences our social thinking in terms of ethics democracy and knowledge development The book also discusses if and if so how higher education can and should contribute to such a development based on the principles of the freedom of science in a liberal democratic society The book presents Mutual Competence Building as a concept higher education can adapt in order to contribute to a sustainable Society Curriculum Design in a Changing Society Richard W. Burns,Gary D. Brooks,1970 A History of Higher Education in Canada 1663-1960 Robin S. Harris,1976-12-15 This book traces the development of higher education in Canada through a detailed description and analysis of what was being taught and of the research opportunities available to professors in the years from 1860 to 1960 Background is provided in the opening chapters of Part I which outline the origins of post secondary education in both French and English Canada from 1635 to 1860 and in the parallel chapters of Parts II to V which describe the establishment of new and the growth of existing institutions during the period 1861 90 1891 1920 1921 40 and 1941 60 The remaining chapters of each of the book s main divisions present an examination of the curricula in arts and science professional education and graduate studies in 1860 1890 1920 1940 and 1960 as well as the conditions pertaining to scholarship and research in these years The concluding chapter identifies the characteristics which differentiate Canadian higher education from that of other countries The book includes a full bibliography an extensive index and statistical appendices providing data on enrolment and degrees granted A History of Higher Education in Canada 1663 1960 will be the definitive work in its field valuable both for the wealth of information and the historical insights it contains
