Putting Myself In The Picture A Politicalpersonal And Photographic Autobiography:

Putting Myself in the Picture Jo Spence, 1986 American Migrant Fictions Sonia Weiner, 2018-07-17 In American Migrant Fictions Space Narrative Identity Sonia Weiner focuses on novels of five American migrant writers of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries who construct spatial paradigms within their narratives to explore questions of linguistic diversity identities and belongings By weaving visual techniques within their narratives photography comics cartography authors Aleksandar Hemon G B Tran Junot Diaz Boris Fishman and Vikram Chandra convey a surplus of perspectives and gesture towards alternative spaces spatial in between ness and transnational space Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography in a Digital Age Del Loewenthal, 2013-02-11 The digital age has brought about a world wide evolution of phototherapy and therapeutic photography This book provides both a foundation in phototherapy and therapeutic photography and describes the most recent developments Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography in a Digital Age is divided into three sections In the first an introduction and overviews from different perspectives in the second approaches and contexts including phototherapy re enactment phototherapy community phototherapy self portraiture family photography This is followed by a conclusion looking at the future of phototherapy and therapeutic photography in terms of theory practice and research The book is for anyone interested in the therapeutic use of photographs It will be of particular interest to psychological therapists and especially psychotherapists counsellors psychologists and art therapists as well as photographers and others wishing to explore further the use of photographs therapeutically within their existing practices

The Handbook of Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography Del Loewenthal, 2023-07-10 This text introduces the concepts essential tenets and basic techniques of Phototherapy and Therapeutic Photography Through the use of case studies and the author's own professional experience this book covers the practices together with their theories and research behind phototherapy and therapeutic photography providing a comprehensive range of major approaches Examples include Talking Pictures Therapy Reenactment Phototherapy the creation of therapeutic photo books stories and diaries and the therapeutic use of portraiture Chapters also explain how we can effectively use these techniques in a variety of contexts including private practice voluntary organisations schools prisons and management consultancy as useful adjuncts to primary practices as well as for self help This handbook is for therapists photographers other professionals clients and activist clients

Image-based Research Jon Prosser, 2005-08-12 Just what is a picture worth Qualitative research is dominated by language However researchers have recently shown a growing interest in adopting an image based approach This is the first volume dedicated to exploring this approach and will prove an invaluable sourcebook for researchers in the field The book covers a broad scope including theory and the research process and provides practical examples of how image based research is applied in the field It discusses use of images in child abuse investigation exploring children's drawings in health education cartoons the media and teachers The Visual Is Political Na'ama Klorman-Eraqi, 2019-07-19 This book examines the phenomenon of feminist photography as it unfolded in Britain during the 1970s and 1980s Klorman Eraqi offers a unique analysis of the intersection between feminism and photography and the period's social conflicts and theoretical debates and adds to the understanding of feminist countercultural practices produced in this moment and of their continuing relevance Photography and Collaboration Daniel Palmer, 2020-09-14

Photography and Collaboration offers a fresh perspective on existing debates in art photography and on the act of photography in general Unlike conventional accounts that celebrate individual photographers and their personal visions this book investigates the idea that authorship in photography is often more complex and multiple than we imagine involving not only various forms of partnership between photographers but also an astonishing array of relationships with photographed subjects and viewers Thematic chapters explore the increasing prevalence of collaborative approaches to photography among a broad range of international artists from conceptual practices in the 1960s to the most recent digital manifestations Positioning contemporary work in a broader historical and theoretical context the book reveals that collaboration is an overlooked but essential dimension of the medium's development and potential

Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography Ingham, Mark Bruce Nigel, Milic, Nela, Kantas, Vasileios, Andersdotter, Sara, Lowe, Paul, 2023-02-17

Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century These links have often been described from each other's discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory Covering key topics such as identity trauma and remembrance this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals sociologists psychologists artists researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students

Photography Steve Edwards, 2006-08-24 Photographs are an integral part of our daily lives from sensationalist images in tabloid papers and snapshots to art photography displayed in galleries and sold through international art markets In this thought provoking exploration of the subject Edwards combines a sense of the historical development of photography with an analysis of its purpose and meaning within a wider cultural context He interrogates the way we look and think about photographs and considers such issues as truth and recording objectivity and fine art identity and memory ABOUT THE SERIES The Very Short Introductions series from Oxford University Press contains hundreds of titles in almost every subject area These pocket sized books are the perfect way to get ahead in a new subject quickly Our expert authors combine facts analysis perspective new ideas and enthusiasm to make interesting and challenging topics highly readable

Nursing the Image Julia Hallam, 2000 Julia Hallam considers the image of nursing and how it has been constructed contributing to the debates surrounding gender and occupational identity

The Photographer as

Autobiographer Arnaud Schmitt, 2022-09-10 This book explores hybrid memoirs combining text and images authored by photographers. It contextualizes this sub category of life writing from a historical perspective within the overall context of life writing before taking a structural and cognitive approach to the text image relationship. While autobiographers use photographs primarily for their illustrative or referential function, photographers have a much more complex interaction with pictures in their autobiographical accounts. This book explores how the visual aspect of a memoir may drastically alter the reader's response to the work but also how in other cases the visual parts seem disconnected from the text or underused.

Graphic Details Sarah Lightman, 2016-04-22 The comics within capture in intimate often awkward but always relatable detail the tribulations and triumphs of life. In particular, the lives of 18 Jewish women artists who bare all in their work which appeared in the internationally acclaimed exhibition Graphic Details: Confessional Comics by Jewish Women. The comics are enhanced by original essays and interviews with the artists that provide further insight into the creation of autobiographical comics that resonate beyond self, beyond gender and beyond ethnicity.

Women's Albums and Photography in Victorian England Patrizia Di Bello, 2017-07-05 This beautifully illustrated study recaptures the rich history of women photographers and image collectors in nineteenth century England. Situating the practice of collecting, exchanging and displaying photographs and other images in the context of feminine sociability, Patrizia Di Bello shows that albums express Victorian women's experience of modernity. The albums of individual women and the broader feminine culture of collecting and displaying images are examined, uncovering the cross references and fertilizations between women's albums and illustrated periodicals and demonstrating the way albums and photography itself were represented in women's magazines, fashion plates and popular novels. Bringing a sophisticated eye to overlooked images such as the family photograph, Di Bello not only illustrates their significance as historical documents but elucidates the visual rhetorics at play. In doing so, she identifies the connections between Victorian album making and the work of modern day amateurs and artists who use digital techniques to compile and decorate albums with Victorian style borders and patterns. At a time when photographic album making is being re-vitalised by digital technologies, this book rewrites the history of photographic albums, placing the female collector at its centre and offering an alternative history of photography focused on its uses rather than on its aesthetic or artistic considerations. It is remarkable in elegantly connecting the history of photography with the fields of material culture and women's studies.

Reading Autobiography Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 2010 projects and an extensive bibliography. Book Jacket. Counter Print Victoria Horne, 2025-09-09 The history of contemporary art is also a history of its newsletters, manifestos, magazines, pamphlets and journals. Those periodical publications do not simply communicate or record ideas but have worked in exciting ways to shape art's practices, histories and communities. As a new generation of artists, activists and scholars seek to uncover the histories of alternative publishing and artistic networks this book gathers original archival discoveries while offering methodologies for studying and thinking with those artefacts As the first essay collection to focus on the periodical art press and the ways we study it Counter Print offers readers an alternative route into the past fifty years of contemporary art one that is defiantly collaborative border crossing and disruptive

Challenging Macho Values Jonathan Salisbury, David Jackson, 1996-01-24 Using a mix of the latest theory on boys men and masculinities and candid accounts of classroom based practice in an inner city school Challenging Macho Values examines the hidden problem of what is happening to our adolescent boys today why they are disruptive damaging to themselves and others and underachieving

The Contest of Meaning Richard Bolton, 1992-02-25 Photography's great success gives the impression that the major questions that have haunted the medium are now resolved On the contrary the most important questions about photography are just beginning to be asked These fourteen essays with over 200 illustrations critically examine prevailing beliefs about the medium and suggest new ways to explain the history of photography They are organized around the questions What are the social consequences of aesthetic practice How does photography construct sexual difference How is photography used to promote class and national interests What are the politics of photographic truth The Contest of Meaning summarizes the challenges to traditional photographic history that have developed in the last decade out of a consciously political critique of photographic production Contributions by a wide range of important Americans critics reexamine the complex and often contradictory roles of photography within society Douglas Crimp Christopher Phillips Benjamin Buchloh and Abigail Solomon Godeau examine the gradually developed exclusivity of art photography and describe the politics of canon formation throughout modernism Catherine Lord Deborah Bright Sally Stein and Jan Zita Grover examine the ways in which the female is configured as a subject and explain how sexual difference is constructed across various registers of photographic representation Carol Squiers Esther Parada and Richard Bolton clarify the ways in which photography serves as a form of mass communication demonstrating in particular how photographic production is affected by the interests of the powerful patrons of communications The three concluding essays by Rosalind Krauss Martha Rosler and Allan Sekula critically examine the concept of photographic truth by exploring the intentions informing various uses of objective images within society

Feminism & Autobiography Tess Coslett, Celia Lury, Penny Summerfield, 2002-01-04 Featuring essays by leading feminist scholars from a variety of disciplines this key text explores the latest developments in autobiographical studies The collection is structured around the inter linked concepts of genre inter subjectivity and memory Whilst exemplifying the very different levels of autobiographical activity going on in feminist studies the contributions chart a movement from autobiography as genre to autobiography as cultural practice and from the analysis of autobiographical texts to a preoccupation with autobiography as method

Feeling Photography Elspeth H. Brown, Thy Phu, 2014-09-09 This innovative collection demonstrates the profound effects of feeling on our experiences and understanding of photography It includes essays on the tactile nature of photos the relation of photography to sentiment and intimacy and the ways that affect pervades the photographic archive Concerns associated with the affective turn intimacy alterity and ephemerality as well as queerness modernity and loss run through the essays At the same time the contributions are informed by developments in critical race theory postcolonial studies and feminist theory As the contributors bring affect theory to bear on photography some interpret the work of contemporary artists such as Catherine Opie Tammy Rae Carland Christian Boltanski Marcelo Brodsky Zoe Leonard and Rea Tajiri Others look back whether to the work of the American Pictorialist F Holland Day or to the discontent masked by the smiles of black families posing for cartes de visite in a Kodak marketing campaign With more than sixty photographs including twenty in color this collection changes how we see think about and feel photography past and present Contributors Elizabeth Abel Elspeth H Brown Kimberly Juanita Brown Lisa Cartwright Lily Cho Ann Cvetkovich David L Eng Marianne Hirsch Thy Phu Christopher Pinney Marlis Schweitzer Dana Seitler Tanya Sheehan Shawn Michelle Smith Leo Spitzer Diana Taylor
